The Era Of Expressionism German Expressionism:

Expressionismus Paul Raabe,1980 The Era of German Expressionism Paul Raabe,1974 Voices of German Expressionism Victor H. Miesel,2003-05-14 Between 1900 and 1933 Expressionist artists created some of the most dramatic and enduring images of the twentieth century This volume brings together the thoughts and aspirations of the individuals who brought about this revolutionary epoch in the visual arts It offers readers the opportunity to engage at firsthand with key writings by the most significant artists of the Expressionist era The Era of German Expressionism Paul Raabe,1974

Expressionism Reassessed Shulamith Behr,David Fanning,Douglas Jarman,1993 Expressionism reassessed focuses on the multi disciplinary development of Expressionism setting it in a cultural political and historical context The international team of specialists cover painting music theatre sculpture film opera architecture and dance Back cover German

Expressionist Painting Peter Selz,1957 1 copy located in CIRCULATION German Expressionism Dorothy Price,2020-06-24 This book presents new research on the histories and legacies of the German Expressionist group Blaue Reiter the founding force behind modernist abstraction For the first time Blaue Reiter is subjected to a variety of novel interdisciplinary perspectives ranging from a philosophical enquiry into its language and visual perception to analyses of its gender dynamics its reception at different historical junctures throughout the twentieth century and its legacies for post colonial aesthetic practices The volume offers a new perspective on familiar aspects of Expressionism and abstraction taking seriously the inheritance of modernism for the twenty first century in ways that will help to recalibrate the field of Expressionist studies for future scholarship Blaue Reiter still matters the contributors argue because the legacies of abstraction are still being debated by artists writers philosophers and cultural theorists today An Analysis of German

Expressionism in Relation to the Emerging Hollywood Style Julia Deitermann,2006-09-18 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject Film Science grade A San Diego State University course Film History all of which provoked the need of a new representation of reality Moreover people not only longed for entertainment and distraction in this insecure new world but also did they inherit a new sense of intellectual liberation after censorship was ended and women were allowed to vote Furthermore the German film industry lacked film imports from other countries and decided to become involved in international film business itself thus creating the large film company Ufa Universum Film AG that still exists today Ufa produced films of various genres but the most popular and influential in the world was to become the Expressionist film Expressionism insofar forms a sharp contrast to Impressionism and Naturalism as it does not attempt to depict momentary impressions of the world nor does it aim at presenting the physical world as it is On the contrary it portrays an interpreted psychological and spiritual reality thus revealing the underlying essence and meaning of things As a result reality can be seen as a creation of the mind which calls for the viewer s interpretation Max Pechstein: The Rise and Fall of Expressionism Bernhard Fulda,Aya Soika,2012-10-30 Max Pechstein 1881 1955 is one of the most prominent German artists of the twentieth century not least because of his crucial role in the breakthrough of German Expressionism This long overdue biography combines the portrayal of an outstanding artistic personality with the story of an individual German who struggled through the political upheavals of his time Pechstein's work is presented in the cultural context of museum politics and art associations art dealers and critics market forces and cultural trends German Expressionism, 1978 German Expressionist Theatre David F. Kuhns, 1997-08-28 German Expressionist Theatre The Actor and the Stage considers the powerfully stylized anti realistic styles of acting on the German Expressionist stage from 1916 to 1921 It relates this striking departure from the dominant European acting tradition of realism to the specific cultural crises that enveloped the German nation during the course of its involvement in World War I This book describes three distinct Expressionist acting styles all of which in their own ways attempted to show how symbolic stage performance could be a powerful rhetorical resource for a culture struggling to come to terms with the crises of historical change The examination of Expressionist script and actor memoirs allows for an unprecedented focus on description and analysis of acting itself German Expressionist Woodcuts Shane Weller, 2012-05-11 Over 100 works by Beckmann Feininger Kirchner Kollwitz Nolde Marc and others Distorted stylized forms embody revolutionary mood of the early 20th century Introduction Captions Notes on artists The Dance Theatre of Kurt Jooss Suzanne Walther, 1997-12-23 First Published in 1997 This is Volume 3 Part 2 in the Choreography and Dance journal and looks at the dance and the theatre of Kurt Jooss in context of his times of birth his evolution of as an artist Jooss as a teacher and his ballets A World History of Architecture Marian Moffett, Michael W. Fazio, Lawrence Wodehouse, 2003 The Roman architect and engineer Vitruvius declared firmitas utilitas and venustas firmness commodity and delight to be the three essential attributes of architecture These qualities are brilliantly explored in this book which uniquely comprises both a detailed survey of Western architecture including Pre Columbian America and an introduction to architecture from the Middle East India Russia China and Japan The text encourages readers to examine closely the pragmatic innovative and aesthetic attributes of buildings and to imagine how these would have been praised or criticized by contemporary observers Artistic economic environmental political social and technological contexts are discussed so as to determine the extent to which buildings met the needs of clients society at large and future generations The Print in Germany, 1880-1933 Frances Carey, Antony Griffiths, British Museum. Department of Prints and Drawings, 1984 During the early 20th century the leaders of the German Expressionism were also the greatest European printmakers of their day This catalogue discusses and illustrates over 200 prints and 44 printed books and includes the work of artists such as Bruecke Kirchner and Heckel The Visual Arts in Germany, 1890-1937 Shearer West, 2000 This work provides an introduction to the visual arts in Germany from the early years of German unification to World War II The study is an analysis of painting sculpture graphic art design film and photography in relation to a wider set of cultural and social issues that were specific to German modernism It concentrates on the ways in which the production and reception of art interacted with and was affected by responses to unification conflict between left and right political factions gender concerns contemporary philosophical and religious ideas the growth of cities and the increasing important of mass culture The Turn of the Century Christian Berg, Frank Durieux, Geert Lernout, 1995 Rewritten versions of contributions to an international conference held at the University of Antwerp in May 1992 Starting point for the conference was the vagueness of the very terms modernism and modernity In the first section a group of comparatists address the theoretical and terminological problems of modernism Practical readings of modernist writers discussions of different modernist movements and the work of critics who have contributed to debates about modernism make up the second section The third section looks at the problem of modernism from an interartistic and interdisciplinary perspective Russian Theatre In The Age Of Modernism Andrew Barratt, Robert Russell, 1990-06-14 Cinema's Sinister Psychiatrists Sharon Packer, M.D., 2012-09-18 Film history is merged with psychiatric history seamlessly to show how and why bad depictions of mind doctors especially hypnotists occur in early film long before Hannibal Lecter burst upon the scene The German Expressionist Dr Caligari is not cinema's first psychotic charlatan but he launches the stereotype of screen psychiatrists who are sicker than their patients Many film psychiatrists function as political metaphors while many more reflect real life clinical controversies This book discusses films with diabolical drugging unethical experimentation involuntary incarceration sexual exploitation lobotomies shock schlock conspiracy theories and military medicine to show how fact informs fantasy and when fantasy trumps reality Traditional asylum thrillers changed after hospital stays shortened and laws protected people against involuntary commitment Except for six short golden years from 1957 to 1963 portrayals of bad psychiatrists far outnumber good ones and this book tells how and why that was Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth E Iskin, 2016-12-08 Re envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies
