The Sense of Beauty George Santayana,1955-01-01 The great philosopher essayist poet and novelist masterfully offers his fascinating outline of Aesthetics Theory Drawing on the art literature and social sciences involved Santayana discusses the nature of beauty form and expression Artistic Visions and the Promise of Beauty Kathleen M. Higgins,Shakti Maira,Sonia Sikka,2017-03-06 This volume examines the motives behind rejections of beauty often found within contemporary art practice where much critically acclaimed art is deliberately ugly and alienating It reflects on the nature and value of beauty asking whether beauty still has a future in art and what role it can play in our lives generally The volume discusses the possible end of art what art is and the relation between art and beauty beyond their historically Western horizons to include perspectives from Asia The individual chapters address a number of interrelated issues including art beauty and the sacred beauty as a source of joy and consolation beauty as a bridge between the natural and the human beauty and the human form the role of curatorial practice in defining art order and creativity and the distinction between art and craft The volume offers a valuable addition to cross cultural dialogue and in particular to the sparse literature on art and beauty in comparative context It demonstrates the relevance of the rich tradition of Asian aesthetics and the vibrant practices of contemporary art in Asia to Western discussions about the future of art and the role of beauty

The Revival of Beauty Catherine Wesselinoff,2023-08-18 This book provides original descriptive accounts of two schools of thought in the philosophy of beauty the 20th century Anti Aesthetic movement and the 21st century Beauty Revival movement It also includes a positive defence of beauty as a lived experience extrapolated from Beauty Revival position Beauty was traditionally understood in the broadest sense as a notion that engages our sense perception and embraces everything evoked by that perception including mental products and affective states This book constructs and places in parallel with one another the Anti Aesthetic and Beauty Revival movements In the author s view Anti Aestheticism is devoted to a decisive negation of beauty denying its importance as a philosophical notion and its significance as a lived experience It suggests that beauty is a merely sensual experience which can be used at best as a distraction from justice and at worst as an instrument of evil Alternatively the Beauty Revival movement advances arguments for beauty as an experience that extends primarily to sensual experience but which also calls forth mental products and cognitive and affective states evoked by that experience After reconstructing these two positions the author elaborates on the notion of beauty as a lived experience through three key moments which occur in the process of our experiencing beautiful objects These moments are a the conditions that constitute an experience of beauty b the attitudinal features most likely to lead to the experience of beauty and c the results of the experience of beauty The Revival of Beauty will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in aesthetics history of philosophy and art history

Potter,1908 On the Origin of Beauty John Griffin,2011-10-01 In the light of the looming ecological crisis facing the world today much of the stunning beauty of the natural world is being lost forever On the Origin of Beauty seeks to confront this crisis through a philosophical enquiry into our perception of natural beauty Through discussions of numerous fields including the philosophy of science environmental ethics rationalism and Eastern and Western religion Griffin asserts that Beauty itself may be the catalyst needed to save the globe from destruction The Soul of Beauty Ronald Schenk,1992 The problem explored in The Soul of Beauty is the split in modern consciousness between the world of perception and appearance on the one hand and the world of action and meaning on the other We see in one way and find truth in another The work presents this dualism as a problem in the modern sense of beauty The intent of the book is the recovery of beauty as that which brings together such contemporary splits as perception and action appearance and meaning matter and spirit subject and object Beauty is imaged in two paradigms The first presents beauty as a matter of appearance which holds meaning beauty as truth The second holds that beauty is subjective experience which in its modern sense is divorced from knowledge and practical action beauty as relative experience The paradigms are formed through an imaginative and historical exploration of the tradition of beauty in Western consciousness The prototype of the first paradigm beauty as appearance is seen in the goddess Aphrodite who reflects the Greek sense of divinity in form itself This paradigm is then founded upon the tradition of Plato in the Phaedrus and the Symposium Plotinus Dionysius and Ficino The major elements of this paradigm are depicted in beauty as 1 source in a hierarchical universe 2 universal mediator 3 object of love 4 human perception 5 human knowledge 6 light and 7 unity goodness and being The suggestion is made that the paradigm of beauty as appearance is relevant for psychology as a study of soul because it brings together perception and meaning The paradigm of beauty as a subjective experience focuses historically upon beauty as a spiritual conceptual proportion methodological linear perspective and subjective phenomenon In the tradition of proportion and subjectivism knowledge is gained through perception that occurs via an organizing system such as mathematics or a concept such as proportion rather than through the direct perception of appearance Meaning is separated from perception and the organizing system or concept not appearance becomes the ground of knowledge It is suggested that this paradigm reflected in scientific and conceptual psychology is problematic for psychology as a study of soul Instead psychology conducts its endeavors in the service of identification with the divine control over the physical world and certainty of consciousness The final portion of the work examines the recovery of beauty as appearance in contemporary psychology through the notion of image in Jung s later thought and the phenomenon of psychotherapy The work concludes with a presentation of psychology as an aesthetic enterprise bringing together meaning and appearance spirit and matter art and science subject and object History of the Congress. For most of the last century the methodology of art history has followed a positivist approach emphasizing form and style fact and history as the means of studying works of art By contrast the philosophical pursuit of truth once central to the fine arts and humanities has largely been abandoned In For The Love of Beauty Arthur Pontynen offers a searching and ambitious critique of modern aesthetic practice that aims to restore the pursuit of the knowledge of reality Being to its rightful place Pontynen begins by addressing the question of why the pursuit of truth be it called Dao Dharma God Logos Ideal etc is no longer acceptable in academic circles even though it has been intrinsic to the purpose of art at most times and in most cultures Lacking the pursuit of truth of some degree of knowledge of what is true and good the humanities necessarily lack intellectual and cultural grounding and purpose Fields of study such as philosophy music art and history are therefore trivialized and brutalized Pontynen s focus on the study of the visual arts details the how the denial of purpose and quality in modernist and postmodernist aesthetics has denied art any possibility of transcending entertainment therapy or propaganda In place of the established narratives Pontynen offers a counter narrative based on a cross cultural pursuit of the good the true and the beautiful He recognizes that substantively different cultural traditions exist and that the truth claims of each may be valid in whole or in part He shows how the history of art parallels the intellectual history of Western culture and how these parallels affect both aesthetics and ethics Pontynen engages with those elements of modernist and postmodernist thought that might be true His purpose is not simply to deny their validity but to engage a viewpoint that does not privilege the notion of a purposeless cosmos For the Love of Beauty will be of interest A Treasure of True Beauty' Paul van der Velde,2022-07-15 The poet saint Raskh n lived in the 16th 17th century C E Story has it he was born as a Muslim but later converted to Krishnaism This conversion took place because at first he was infatuated by a young boy but later on transformed his love to a mystical devotion to the young cowherd god Krishna Due to this conversion his mystical poems have a particular place in the bhakti cult of Northern India Raskh n s songs rank among the finest of Krishna poetry in Brajbh the language the young god Krishna is supposed to have spoken when he lived on earth It is the language of the pilgrimage site of Brindavan in Northern India Raskh n s songs are on the lips of many devotees up to the present day Paul van der Velde is professor of Asian Religions Sanskrit and Hindi at the Radboud University Nijmegen The Netherlands He stayed long periods in the village of Brindavan and did research there on the devotional cult on Krishna and R dh and the Brajbh language
