

INDIVIDUALITY

The image is a dense collage of the word "INDIVIDUALITY". The word is repeated many times in various colors (white, blue, green, orange, yellow) and orientations (horizontal, vertical, diagonal). The background is a mix of these colors, creating a textured, layered effect. In the center, the word "INDIVIDUALITY" is written in a large, bold, black serif font, enclosed within a white rectangular box with a thin orange border. This central box is the most prominent element, standing out from the chaotic arrangement of the word fragments around it.

we become true persons and that we get a hold of the sense of purpose and loyalty we crave both individually and in a universal unlimited community

The View of Life Georg Simmel, 2015-07-03 Published in 1918 The View of Life is Georg Simmel's final work. Famously deemed the brightest man in Europe by George Santayana, Simmel addressed diverse topics across his essayistic writings which influenced scholars in aesthetics, epistemology, and sociology. Nevertheless, certain core issues emerged over the course of his career: the genesis, structure, and transcendence of social and cultural forms and the nature and conditions of authentic individuality, including the role of mindfulness regarding mortality. Composed not long before his death, The View of Life was what Simmel wrote as his testament, a capstone work of profound metaphysical inquiry intended to formulate his conception of life in its entirety. Now Anglophone readers can at last read in full the work that shaped the argument of Heidegger's Being and Time and whose extraordinary impact on European intellectual life between the wars was extolled by Jürgen Habermas. Presented alongside these seminal essays are aphoristic fragments from Simmel's last journal, providing a beguiling look into the mind of one of the twentieth century's greatest thinkers.

Harvard Lectures of Alfred North Whitehead Paul Bogaard, 2017-03-21 Presents Whitehead's lectures at Harvard during the 1924-5 academic year, the first philosophy lectures he ever gave. Beginning in September of 1924, Alfred North Whitehead presented a regular course of 85 lectures which concluded in May of 1925. These represent the first ever philosophy lectures he gave and capture him working out the philosophical implications of the remarkable turns physics had taken in his lifetime. This volume finally recreates these lectures by transcribing notes by W. P. Bell, W. E. Hocking, and Louise Heath, taken at the time, many of which have only recently been discovered, and including hundreds of sketches of Whitehead's blackboard diagrams. This is a unique insight into the evolution of Whitehead's thought during the months when he was drafting his seminal work Science and the Modern World. Includes transcriptions of the lecture notes, a chronology, over 300 line drawings of Whitehead's blackboard sketches, a bibliography of referenced works, and an index to the lectures. Gives an overview of the content of the 85 lectures. Clarifies how these lectures represent Whitehead's philosophical insights. Describes the circumstances that preserved the three sets of notes.
