The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice Arnold H. De Graaff,2025-06-20 Scripture s compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today The implications of the Amsterdam way of interpreting Scripture are evident throughout the book It is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re connecting with the Bible As one of the founders of the Amsterdam way of interpretation Karel Deurloo stated The opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the Bible has been taken away Often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text a historical literary approach or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented moralistic and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches Instead Deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of God today This alternative is rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures Its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the Gospels and apostolic letters Hence the choice of subtitle Rediscovering the Old Testament It is a joyful journey of discovery finding new meaning in the Bible for our lives      Seraphita. Louis Lambert. The exiles Honoré de Balzac,1900      Creation and Emotion in the Old Testament David A. Bosworth,2023-10-10 Creation conjures emotion and thereby shapes how we think and act People fear snakes and enclosed spaces and delight in well watered landscapes Language about nature evokes these emotional meanings and their consequences We may construe nature as a mother to enhance love of creation and motivate care for our common home Mother nature becomes a caregiving source of life rather than an inert resource Alternatively we may focus on the dangers or uselessness of a swamp so that we may drain it and plant crops Creation and the ways we speak about it reflect and shape emotion and influence behavior Every reference to the natural world in biblical literature involves some emotional resonance Any animal might have intruded into the paradise of Eden but the biblical narrative gives this role to a snake The serpent elicits ominous foreboding because snakes evoke fear and fascination Isaiah amplifies the joy of Israel's restoration by depicting deserts transforming into fertile fields and creation itself rejoicing Biblical authors draw on human emotional responsiveness to creation to express and elicit emotions David A Bosworth analyzes how biblical texts use creation to conjure emotion He draws on the science of emotion including research on human emotional responsiveness to nature Ancient texts correlate with contemporary research on how human environments shape emotion and behavior The chapters unfold how specific emotions emerge from biblical references to aspects of creation      Babylon - Quest for Love Leo Berman,2010-12-08 Several Hebrew captives arrive in Babylon from the land of Judah Among them are Darnill and his sister Helez King Nebuchadnezzar's aim is to educate them in the ways and laws of Babylon so they can serve in his court Murder threats and escape from the fiery furnace of execution follow as their life in Babylon unfolds Helez a plain Hebrew girl of noble birth falls in love with Zarko Bel son of the chief army commander Their unlikely love is threatened by his reputation as a womaniser and by the fact that he serves other gods Will she eventually open herself to be loved or stay true to her faith Zarko Bel has had his way with several nubile young girls in the past He battles his own demons as he tries to win the heart of the beautiful Hebrew exile Will he succeed or is this the one that will get away Together they face life in Babylon and must survive jealousy despair and loss Will they be triumphant in their love for one another or will the challenges they face drive a wedge between them Only time will tell if they will overcome the obstacles in their path to have a chance to live happily ever after      God as Love Johannes M. Oravec,2014-04-19 Nineteenth and twentieth century Russian religious intellectuals devoted a great deal of attention to the concept of agape or Divine Love arguing that the Christian church is a reflection of the triune self sacrificing God and his love for all of creation On account of their deliberations these intellectuals played a key role in mediating between the Orthodox Church and modern society Their quest for dialogue between the mystery of the sacred and the ordinary of everyday life remains relevant for Western societies today In God as Love Johannes Oravec presents a comprehensive summation of twenty five prominent Russian religious thinkers and their thought on the concept of agape showing in detail how they broke new ground in their various affirmations of the truth that God is love No other book in any language treats this topic with such breadth and depth Encountering the God of Faith, Hope, and Love in the Bible George M. Smiga, 2025-08-15 Faith hope and love are three vital dimensions of our life with God Faith is entering into and clinging to a relationship with God Hope is what we expect from that relationship And love the greatest of these is the very essence of the relationship itself In Encountering the God of Faith Hope and Love in the Bible award winning Scripture commentator Fr George Smiga explores how God is revealed through various stages of salvation history from the call of Abraham through the resurrection of Jesus and how faith hope and love have evolved as our understanding of God grows Commentary study and reflection questions prayers and access to online lectures are included 6 lessons
