The Face Of China As Seen By Photographers Travelers 18601912:

The Face of China as Seen by Photographers & Travelers, 1860-1912 Nigel Cameron, Philadelphia Museum of Art, 1978 Encyclopedia of Nineteenth-Century Photography John Hannavy, 2013-12-16 The Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography is the first comprehensive encyclopedia of world photography up to the beginning of the twentieth century It sets out to be the standard definitive reference work on the subject for years to come Its coverage is global an important first in that authorities from all over the world have contributed their expertise and scholarship towards making this a truly comprehensive publication The Encyclopedia presents new and ground breaking research alongside accounts of the major established figures in the nineteenth century arena Coverage includes all the key people processes equipment movements styles debates and groupings which helped photography develop from being a solution in search of a problem when first invented to the essential communication tool creative medium and recorder of everyday life which it had become by the dawn of the twentieth century The sheer breadth of coverage in the 1200 essays makes the Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography an essential reference source for academics students researchers and libraries worldwide

Robert Hart and China's Early Modernization Richard Smith, John K. Fairbank, Katherine Bruner, 2020-03-23 As the Ching government's Inspector General of the Maritime Customs Service Robert Hart was the most influential Westerner in China for half a century These journal entries continue the sequence begun in Entering China's Service and cover the years when Hart was setting up Customs procedures establishing a modus operandi with the Ching bureaucracy and inspecting the treaty ports They culminate in Hart's return visit to Europe with the Pin ch un Mission and his marriage in Northern Ireland Smith Fairbank and Bruner interleave the segments of Hart's journals with lively narratives describing the contemporary Chinese scene and recounting Hart's responses to the many challenges of establishing a Western style organization within a Chinese milieu Life in Treaty Port China and Japan Donna Brunero, Stephanie Villalta Puig, 2018-03-30 This edited volume moves beyond the traditional examination of the treaty ports of China and Japan as places of cultural interaction It moves beyond the Bund presenting instead the history of material culture the everyday life of the residents of the treaty ports beyond the symbology of Shanghai's waterfront Bringing for the first time together scholars of China and Japan museum curators legal economic and architectural historians it studies the treaty ports not only as sites of cultural exchange but also as sites of social contestation accommodation and mobility covering topics as varied as day to day life itself such as family property and law health and welfare travel visual culture and memory The call of this volume is to peel the multiple layers of the encounter between East and West in the treaty ports of China and Japan Women and China's Revolutions Gail Hershatter, 2018-09-04 If we place women at the center of our account of China's last two centuries how does this change our understanding of what happened This deeply knowledgeable book illuminates the places where the Big History of recognizable events intersects with the daily lives of ordinary people using gender as its analytic lens Leading scholar Gail

Hershatter asks how these events affected women in particular and how women affected the course of these events For instance did women have a 1911 revolution A socialist revolution If so what did those revolutions look like Which women had them Hershatter uses two key themes to frame her analysis The first is the importance of women s visible and invisible labor The labor of women in domestic and public spaces shaped China s move from empire to republic to socialist nation to rising capitalist power The second is the symbolic work performed by gender itself What women should do and be was a constant topic of debate during China s transformation from empire to weak state to partially occupied territory to nascent socialist republic to reform era powerhouse What sorts of concerns did people express through the language of gender How did that language work and why was it so powerful Drawing on decades of Hershatter s groundbreaking scholarship and mastery of a range of literatures this beautifully written book will be essential reading for all students of China s modern history "A Truthful Impression of the Country" Nicholas J. Clifford,2001 An examination of the writings of travelers to China in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Death by a Thousand Cuts Timothy Brook,Jérôme Bourgon,Gregory Blue,2025-09-01 In Beijing in 1904 multiple murderer Wang Weiqin became one of the last to suffer the extreme punishment known as lingchi called by Western observers death by a thousand cuts This is the first book to explore the history iconography and legal contexts of Chinese tortures and executions from the 10th century until lingchi s abolition in 1905

Cody,Frances Terpak,2011 Accompanies an exhibition held at the J Paul Getty Museum 8 February 1 May 2011 Art Worlds Roberta Wue,2014-12-09 The growth of Shanghai in the late nineteenth century gave rise to an exciting new art world in which a flourishing market in popular art became a highly visible part of the treaty port s commercialized culture Art Worlds examines the relationship between the city s visual artists and their urban audiences Through a discussion of images ranging from fashionable painted fans to lithograph illustrated magazines the book explores how popular art intersected with broader cultural trends It also investigates the multiple roles played by the modern Chinese artist as image maker entrepreneur celebrity and urban sojourner Focusing on industrially produced images mass advertisements and other hitherto neglected sources the book offers a new interpretation of late Qing visual culture at a watershed moment in the history of modern Chinese art Art Worlds will be of interest to scholars of art history and to anyone with an interest in the cultural history of modern China By focusing on objects sites social networks and technologies this elegantly conceived book enriches our understanding of art production and consumption in nineteenth century Shanghai The author makes masterful use of newspapers guidebooks diaries and advertisements as well as paintings to present readers with the compelling story of a city and its artists Tobie Meyer Fong author of What Remains Coming to Terms with Civil War in 19th Century China and Building Culture in Early Qing Yangzhou Rich in findings forensic in visual analysis and not least elegantly crafted Wue s book on painting printing and the social worlds of art in late Qing Shanghai is an exemplary contribution A must read volume Shane McCausland author of Zhao Mengfu Calligraphy and Painting for Khubilai s China Popular Photography ,1978 Zooming In Wu Hung,2016-06-15 From the first sets of photographic records made by Western travelers to doctored portraits of Chairman Mao and the avant garde photographic performances of the post Cultural Revolution era photography in China has followed divergent paths In this book Wu Hung explores the multiple histories of photographic production in China using them to tell a larger story about China s shifting sociopolitical contexts and the different agendas technologies and aesthetics that have helped define its arts At the center of the book is a large question how has photography represented China and its people its collective history and memory as well as the diversity of Chinese artists who have striven for creative expression To address this question the author offers an in depth study of selected photographers themes and movements in Chinese photography from 1860 to the present covering a wide range of genres including portraiture photojournalism architectural and landscape photography and conceptual photography Beautifully illustrated this book offers a multifaceted and in depth analysis of an important photographic history History of Photography Laurent Roosens,Luc Salu,1989 An unannotated bibliography of 11 209 books on photography since 1914 grouped under 3 000 alphabetically arranged headings Entries include author editor contributors title place and year of publication publisher and number of pages and illustrations Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Treasures of the Yenching Harvard-Yenching Library,Mikael S. Adolphson,2003 Visuality and Identity Shu-mei Shih,2007-06-19 Shu mei Shih inaugurates the field of Sinophone studies in this vanguard excursion into sophisticated cultural criticism situated at the intersections of Chinese studies Asian American studies diaspora studies and transnational studies Arguing that the visual has become the primary means of mediating identities under global capitalism Shih examines the production and circulation of images across what she terms the Sinophone Pacific which comprises Sinitic language speaking communities such as the People s Republic of China Taiwan Hong Kong and Chinese America This groundbreaking work argues that the dispersal of the so called Chinese peoples across the world needs to be reconceptualized in terms of vibrant or vanishing communities of Sinitic language cultures rather than of ethnicity and nationality Tokens of Exchange Lydia H. Liu,2000-01-19 Theorizes the role of translation in the circulation of ideas and meanings in a global economy through a number of China related case studies Some Did it for Civilisation, Some Did it for Their Country Jane E. Elliott,2002 This book marks a total departure from previous studies of the Boxer War It evaluates the way the war was perceived and portrayed at the time by the mass media As such the book offers insights to a wider audience than that of sinologists or Chinese historians The important distinction made by the author is between image makers and eyewitnesses Whole categories of powerful image makers both Chinese and foreign never saw anything of the Boxer War but were responsible for disseminating images of that war to millions of people in China and throughout the world New York Magazine ,1978-07-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Sheying Clark Worswick,2008 This beautifully illustrated diary contains some of the finest paintings from the National Gallery s permanent collection Featuring fifty two carefully reproduced paintings in a week to view format this diary highlights some of the finest Irish and European works on view in the Gallery Horizon ,1979

Enjoying the Track of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within The Face Of China As Seen By Photographers Travelers 18601912

In a world eaten by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instant connection, the melodic splendor and mental symphony produced by the prepared term frequently disappear in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, situated within the pages of The Face Of China As Seen By Photographers Travelers 18601912 a marvelous fictional treasure filled with raw emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an elegant composer of language, that fascinating masterpiece conducts visitors on a psychological journey, well unraveling the concealed melodies and profound influence resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this moving evaluation, we shall examine the book is central harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing design, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
