The Face of the Earth J. Donald Hughes, 2015-05-11 Although the organizing principle of virtually every world history text is development the editor of this volume maintains that this traditional approach fails to address the issue of sustainability By adopting the ecological process as their major theme the authors show how the process of human interaction with the natural environment unfolded in the past and offer perspective on the ecological crises in our world at the beginning of the 21st century Topics range from broad regional studies that examine important aspects of the global environment that affect nations to a study of the widespread influence of one important individual on his nation and beyond The authors take different approaches but all share the conviction that world history must take ecological process seriously and they all recognize the ways in which the living and non living systems of the earth have influenced the course of human affairs

The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth Amos Yong, 2009-04-01 This collection of essays was first presented at the 37th annual meeting of the Society for Pentecostal Studies held jointly with the Wesleyan Theological Society at Duke University in March 2008 under the conference theme Signs Sighs and Significance Pentecostal and Wesleyan Explorations of Science and Creation Along with a companion volume of Wesleyan essays published also by Pickwick Publications the twelve chapters here represent both Pentecostal reflections responses to the science religion discussion and Pentecostal contributions to the ongoing exchange by biblical studies specialists historians and theologians among those trained in other disciplines Together the essayists model an actual dialogue in which Pentecostal scholarly reflection is impacted by science religion discourses on the one hand while Pentecostals reach deep into their own tradition to explore how their pre understandings and commitments might enable them to speak with their own voice into pre existing conversations on the other hand This volume thus represents one of the first hopefully the first of many in which Pentecostals register their perspectives on a major issue of our time In a world dominated by science and at a time when theologies of creation that encourage and require care for creation and the environment are proliferating The Spirit Renews the Face of the Earth provides a set of Pentecostal perspectives on these important matters

The ^AChanging Face of Christianity Lamin Sanneh, Joel A. Carpenter, 2005-03-10 Over the past century Christianity's place and role in the world have changed dramatically In 1900 80 percent of the world's Christians lived in Europe and North America Today more than 60 percent of the world's Christians live outside of that region This change calls for a reexamination of the way the story of Christianity is told the methodological tools for its analysis and its modes of expression Perhaps most significant is the role of Africa as the new Christian heartland The questions and answers about Christianity and its contemporary mission now being developed in the African churches will have enormous influence in the years to come This volume offers nine new essays addressing this sea change and its importance for the future of Christianity Some contributions consider the development of non Western forms of Christianity others look at the impact of these new Christianities in the West The authors cover a wide range of topics from the integration of witchcraft and Christianity in Nigeria and the peacemaking role of churches in Mozambique to the American Baptist reception of Asian Christianity The Changing Face of Christianity shows the striking cultural differences between the new world Christianity and its western counterpart But with so many new immigrants in Europe and North America the faith's fault lines are not purely geographical The new Christianity now thrives in American and European settings and northerners need to know this faith better At stake is their ability to be good neighbors and perhaps to be good Christian citizens of the world

The Face of the King; Or, Seeing Jesus, Man's Greatest Pleasure, Etc James Hiles Hitchens, 1867

The Face of Truth Julius Lipner, 1986-01-01 The Face of Truth examines in depth the Vedantic theology of R m nija the most important and well known of the classical Hindu theologians Julius Lipner clearly analyzes R m nija's theory of sacred language and divine predication his views on the nature of the self God and the relationship between infinite and finite being In addition to offering new insights into and analyses of religious matters The Face of Truth exposes the theology of language the understanding of religious language and God This is consistent with Lipner's other purpose the furthering of inter religious dialogue especially between Hindu and Christian points of view Lipner has also translated several technical Sanskrit terms into English making his point intelligible to non Sanskrit readers Drawing together the complex strands of R m nujan thought Lipner succeeds in increasing inter religious understanding

The Face of Water Sarah Ruden, 2018-12-04 In this dazzling reconsideration of the language of the Old and New Testaments acclaimed scholar and translator of classical literature Sarah Ruden argues that the Bible's modern translations often lack the clarity and vitality of the originals Singling out the most famous passages such as the Genesis creation story the Ten Commandments the Lord's Prayer and the Beatitudes Ruden reexamines and retranslates from the Hebrew and Greek illuminating what has been misunderstood and obscured in standard English translations By showing how the original texts more clearly reveal our cherished values Ruden gives us an unprecedented understanding of what this extraordinary document was for its earliest readers and what it can still be for us today

The Face of Fear Dean Koontz, 2013-08-06 For one man facing his own murder is not as terrifying as surviving it in this blistering novel of suspense from 1 New York Times bestselling author Dean Koontz A brutal killer known as The Butcher is stalking women in New York City When the police enlist the help of clairvoyant Graham Harris the horrifying images of the Butcher's crimes replay in Harris's mind sometimes even at the moment they are happening Then he sees the most terrifying vision of all that of his own murder Harris and his girlfriend soon find themselves trapped on the fortieth floor of a deserted office building The guards have been killed the elevators shut down and the stairways blocked The only way out is to climb down the sheer face of the building Otherwise they ll become the Butcher s next victims The Face of Africa Stan Chu Ilo, 2012-12-01 This book is a call on Africans and non Africans to once more believe in the possibility of a better future for Africa In these pages Stan Chu Ilo writes of his experience and the experiences of many young Africans like himself who are disturbed by the present condition of Africa He writes about the challenges facing most Africans who are growing up in the African continent without any hope of quality education without any guarantee of adequate food water housing and clothing without any hope of getting a job and without any prospect of living in peace with their neighbors He writes of the sad situation of millions of young Africans who are dying of malaria and HIV AIDS and the African women whose fate and fortune have been shackled by a male dominated society He questions the bases of the existence of the failed states of Africa who are caught up in a cycle of violence and disorder and who are not asking the right questions about the future of their nations He argues that corruption excessive authoritarianism a stubborn hold on power and lack of openness to consensus building among some African leaders insult the cultural value of Africans with regard to a sense of community love and solidarity He also writes of the pain of globalization the debt burden immigration and trade restrictions on Africans and African countries exploitation of ordinary Africans by fellow Africans and Western governments and business conglomerates He wonders why many Western nations should turn their backs on Africa when they all share some responsibility in bringing Africa to her knees However even though many Africans have become exhausted in the battle for national survival and for a living space to pursue their ordered ends this book proposes that Africans should not claim perpetual victimhood rather they should stand up once more and work for a better tomorrow which is possible and within their reach Ilo insists that the imposing mountains of economic and social ruin the rising moans and groans of numberless Africans should not weaken the inner energy and ardent hopes of millions of Africans struggling against the untested assumption that the cracking social political and economic foundations of present day Africa are incapable of supporting the structures of a new Africa The face of Africa today is ugly but behind the ugly face is the beauty that has been distorted by historical and cultural factors The present condition of Africa is only the sign of the urgent need for the peoples of Africa to brace up for the long and hard journey to reclaim their future Ilo outlines how non Africans who are interested in the African condition can be involved with the peoples of Africa A proper understanding of the African continent and her peoples her history and cultural evolution is a necessary first step for those who wish to be engaged with the Africans His total picture approach model as the key to interpreting the African condition and in comprehensively addressing the challenges facing Africa offers a helpful and original tool in understanding Africa It helps to overcome the stereotypes prejudices and paternalism which non Africans apply in their reading of African history and their relation with the African reality With masterly skills a keen sense of history

a balanced perspective and objectivity Ilo identifies the constraints to growth and innovation in Africa in terms of the low stocks in the human capital and cultural development He introduces a new concept in the interpretation of the African condition homelessness in terms of cultural and existential crises that confront Africans today His conclusion is that cultural and human development is the irreducible decimal in any proposal for the transformation of the continent that grassroots village based action should be preferred over bogus and unworkable national approaches to African development

The Face of Things Silvia Benso, 2000-06-01 Here s a book that dispels the traditional tendency of philosophy to ignore the alterity of things Drawing on two major figures in the continental tradition Levinas and Heidegger author Silvia Benso engages them on the provocative issue of an ethics of things She argues that Levinas advances an ethics without things and Heidegger proffers a conception of things without ethics Taking up their respective meditations on ethics and things precisely at the point where they abandon such themes and exposing them to each other Benso innovatively elaborates an ethical attitude toward things capable of celebrating their alterity a demand rendered urgent and compelling by the contemporary environmental crisis Creatively centered on a philosophical hermeneutics of tenderness The Face of Things advances the everyday time of festivity as the novel dimension within which the alterity of things can be recognized preserved and celebrated

The Face of Immortality Davide Stimilli, 2005-01-01 Argues for a new kind of criticism one that mediates between literal and allegorical modes of interpretation

The Face of Mammon David Landreth, 2012-04-19 Money talked in sixteenth century England as money still does today But what the sixteenth century s gold and silver had to say for itself is strikingly different from the modern discourse of money As David Landreth demonstrates in The Face of Mammon the material and historical differences between the coins of the English Renaissance and today s paper and electronic money propel a distinctive and complex assessment of the relation between material substance and human value Although the sixteenth century was marked by the traumatic emergence of conditions that would prove to be characteristic of the modern economy the discipline of economics had not been invented to assess those conditions The Face of Mammon considers how literary texts investigated these unexplained material transformations through attention to the materiality of gold and silver money In new readings of Spenser s Faerie Queene Marlowe s Jew of Malta three plays by Shakespeare King John The Merchant of Venice and Measure for Measure the poetry of John Donne and the prose of Thomas Nashe Landreth argues that these texts situate the act of exchange at the center of a system of common wealth that sought to integrate political ethical and religious values with material ones and probe the ways in which market value corrodes that system even as it depends upon it Joining the methods of material culture studies to those of economic criticism The Face of Mammon offers a new account of the historical transformations of the concept of value to scholars of early modern literature culture and art as well as to those interested in economic history

In the Face of Difference William L. Sachs, 2014-11-20 Encounters with difference are the measure of faith as how a person of one faith approaches persons of other faiths reveals the heart of religious conviction Christian congregations are often ill equipped to respond to differing religious perspectives Most are hesitant many are prejudiced In the Face of Difference offers a basis for constructive response demonstrating how one can honor people of another faith by living fully into one s own faith William Sachs examines how Christians can maximize their spiritual growth through a genuine exchange of ideas and inspiration with those of others faiths focusing on encounters between Christians and Muslims By providing a clear and concrete blueprint for congregational leadership in new social circumstances Sachs charts a course for overcoming major religious prejudice He demonstrates how bridges can be built by applying the ideals of love of God and love of neighbor and how faithful people can translate religious ideals into reconciling realities Weekly World News ,1994-10-18 Rooted in the creative success of over 30 years of supermarket
