Matuozzi, Elizabeth B.

Lindsay, 2008-07-31 Characterized by its move away from Romanticism and toward mundane every day subjects as well as incorporating such ideas as metanarrative stream of consciousness and disjointed timelines the American Modernist Era was at its heyday during the years 1914 1949 It produced such great authors as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner and F Scott Fitzgerald and memorable works like As I Lay Dying and The Great Gatsby Literary Research and the American Modernist Era offers the scholar and researcher a clear introduction to the best contemporary library resources and practices for researching American modernist writing Graduate students advanced undergraduates researchers and scholars specializing in American modernist writing will improve their information skills and fluency whether in the real or the virtual library Even those lacking access to some of the resources described here can profit from this overview of literary research because it will help them frame questions indicate where to go for answers and demonstrate useful connections between many of the secondary scholarly sources This guide offers a coherent account of how contemporary research skills and resources can complement one another in helping the scholar effectively deal with typical challenges they encounter in their work

American Biography Carl Rollyson, 2006-02 This collection of reviews selected from Rollyson s New York Sun column is as much about the romance of biography as it is about the American lives Certain concerns resonate throughout the book the American left s failure to reckon with Communist subversion McCarthyism and Stalinism the problematic nature of authorized biography the history of American biography definitive biographies literary biography the differences between autobiography and biography the importance of interviews in biographies of contemporary figures the differences between history and biography comparative biographies the virtues of short biographies and of biographies for children the tendency of biographers to fictionalize and of novelists to biographize psychology and biography Rollyson s own experience as a biographer and the way biographers treat one another s work Too many biographers he believes evince no interest in the biographical tradition Concerned only with possession of their subjects their proprietorial attitude deforms not only their biographies but also the genre itself. If biography is reviewed badly receiving hardly more than a summary of the subject's life with a perfunctory nod to the biographer it is because the biographical tradition has been disregarded or discounted. This book in other words has been written on the behalf of biography a genre that still awaits a full vindication. Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater Wenying Xu, 2022-08-15 A Library Journal Best Reference Book of 2022 This book represents the culmination of over 150 years of literary achievement by the most diverse ethnic group in the United States. Diverse because this group of ethnic Americans includes those whose ancestral roots branch out to East Asia Southeast Asia South Asia and Western Asia. Even within each of these regions there exist vast differences in languages cultures religions political systems and colonial histories. From the earliest publication in 1887 to the latest in 2021 this dictionary celebrates the incredibly rich body of fiction poetry memoirs plays and children's literature. Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has more than 700 cross referenced entries on genres major terms and authors. This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about this topic. The History of American Literature on Film Thomas Leitch, 2019-06-13 From William Dickson's Rip Van Winkle films 1896 to Baz Luhrmann's big budget production of The Great Gatsby 2013 and beyond cinematic adaptations of American literature participate in a rich and fascinating history. Unlike previous studies of American literature and film which emphasize particular authors like Edith Wharton and Nathaniel Hawthorne particular texts like Moby Dick particular literary periods like the American Renaissance or particular genres like the novel this volume considers the multiple functions of filmed American literature as a cinematic genre in its own right one that reflects the specific political and aesthetic priorities of different national and historical cinemas even as it plays a decisive role in defining American literature for a global audience. Encyclopedia of American Literature Lisa Olson Paddock, 2002 Documentary Film Carl Rollyson, 2006-11-28 Documentary Film Contexts and Criticism is designed to complement Rollyson's Documentary Film A Primer. The films discussed in this volume include Zelig the Lumiere brothers documentaries Nanook of the North The Man With a Movie Camera Triumph of the Will Olympia The Wonderful Horrible Life of Leni Riefenstahl Why We Fight Fires Were Started and several Jill Craigie films including an extended discussion of Two Hours From London her controversial examination of the Balkan wars and the siege of Dubrovnik. What sets this text apart from other studies of documentary is that it includes a wide array of student comments on the films and reviews very much centered in discussions of the documentary tradition. In this same vein Rollyson has included his essay Jill Craigie and the Documentary Tradition exploring her relationship with John Grierson and other prominent documentary filmmakers. This dialogic text captures some of the actual give and take of the classroom and the range of opinion that even the best critics cannot convey. What should emerge from the reading of these comments are the different voices mindsets through which the films are viewed. New Essays on the African American Novel L. King, Linda F. Selzer, 2016-04-30

This collection contributes to scholarly discussions about the African American novel as a literary form. Essays respond to the general question what has been the impact of the African American vernacular tradition from the spirituals blues gospel and jazz to hip hop on the structure and style of the modern African American novel. Selecting and Using a Core-Reference Collection Margaret I. Nichols, 1995-09 Identifies a small number of sources which will meet the basic needs of libraries of all sizes Designed specifically to help small libraries select a reference collection which will meet their essential needs Focuses on 105 annotated sources and 68 notes citing another 75 reference titles which may be substituted for those recommended in the text or purchased in addition to them Section II is designed to help small libraries in the acquisition process Also contains 9 exercises on using basic types of sources and is intended for new reference workers. The Silent Appalachian Vicki Sigmon Collins, 2017-01-03 Appalachian literature is filled with silent or non discursive characters The reasons for their wordlessness vary Some are mute or pretend to be some choose not to speak or are silenced by grief trauma or fear Others mutter monosyllables stutter grunt and point speak in tongues or idiosyncratic language They capture the reader's attention by what they don't say. Convergences Dr. Nabil M. Abdel-Al, 2017-05-25 This anthology is an amalgam of the authors output in the domains of interpretation translation and literary scholarship It is a serious attempt to highlight the cardinal traits common to said fields This research is a vested trek into the inner workings of the authors profession interpretation and translation as well as his standing engagement with literary genres throughout the ages The books uniqueness resides in treating a diversity of matters interrelated in various ways although on the surface it appears to make up a queer admixture of dissimilar elements hence the title Convergences Interpretation and translation are twin vocations and between them convergence is all encompassing Both transform a message from a source to a target language Complementary and mutually supportive as they are yet there is a train of difference in the execution of these two inseparable professions the method nature and techniques involved in each Interpretation is the instantaneous the simultaneous in a word the express mode of communication and translation is the meditative the slow or the local medium of correspondence Concomitantly literature is the crucible for teleologically permeable convergences and incredible divergences It has a noble ontological message and brings out humanity's hidden treasures experiences thoughts and choices Literature's lofty missive is grounded in understanding the scenes events and characters it depicts excerpts of which feed into discourses to be interpreted and translated Clients come up with multiple interpretations depending on circumstances and the context in which texts are couched
