The Life and the Adventures of a Haunted Convict Austin Reed, 2017-01-24 The earliest known prison memoir by an African American writer recently discovered and authenticated by a team of Yale scholars sheds light on the longstanding connection between race and incarceration in America A harrowing portrait of life behind bars part confession part jeremiad part lamentation part picaresque novel reminiscent at times of Dickens and Defoe Michiko Kakutani The New York Times NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE In 2009 scholars at Yale University came across a startling manuscript the memoir of Austin Reed a free black man born in the 1820s who spent most of his early life ricocheting between forced labor in prison and forced labor as an indentured servant Lost for more than one hundred and fifty years the handwritten document is the first known prison memoir written by an African American Corroborated by prison records and other documentary sources Reed's text gives a gripping first person account of an antebellum Northern life lived outside slavery that nonetheless bore in its day to day details unsettling resemblances to that very institution Now for the first time we can hear Austin Reed's story as he meant to tell it He was born to a middle class black family in the boomtown of Rochester New York but when his father died his mother struggled to make ends meet Still a child Reed was placed as an indentured servant to a nearby family of white farmers near Rochester He was caught attempting to set fire to a building and sentenced to ten years at Manhattan's brutal House of Refuge an early juvenile reformatory that would soon become known for beatings and forced labor Seven years later Reed found himself at New York's infamous Auburn State Prison It was there that he finished writing this memoir which explores America's first reformatory and first industrial prison from an inmate's point of view recalling the great cruelties and kindnesses he experienced in those places and excavating patterns of racial segregation exploitation and bondage that extended beyond the boundaries of the slaveholding South into free New York Accompanied by fascinating historical documents including a series of poignant letters written by Reed near the end of his life The Life and the Adventures of a Haunted Convict is a work of uncommon beauty that tells a story of nineteenth century racism violence labor and captivity in a proud defiant voice Reed's memoir illuminates his own life and times as well as ours today Praise for The Life and the Adventures of a Haunted Convict One of the most fascinating and important memoirs ever produced in the United States Annette Gordon-Reed The Washington Post Remarkable triumphantly defiant The book's greatest value lies in the gap it fills O The Oprah Magazine Reed displays virtuosic gifts for narrative that a century and a half later earn and hold the reader's ear Thomas Chatterton Williams San Francisco Chronicle The book's urgency and relevance remain undiminished This exemplary edition recovers history without permanently trapping it in one interpretation The Guardian A sensational novelistic telling of an eventful life The Paris Review Vivid and painful NPR Lyrical and graceful in one sentence burning with fury and hellfire in the next Columbus Free Press ADVENTURES IN A BACKWATER GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT AND OTHER SCENES FROM THE UNREMARKABLE LIFE OF A SON OF THE SUBURBS Patrick Hickman-Robertson, 2019-10-29 Patrick was a wayward child who could not speak until he was four and ran away from boarding school A disappointment to his parents and the despair of his teachers he lacked the normal abilities that young people acquire as they grow up After being sacked from his job Patrick decided to try his fortunes overseas A timid traveller and always obedient to authority how did he come to the attention of the FBI the Royal Canadian Mounted Police the Los Angeles Police Departments South Africa's Bureau of State Security and Rhodesia's BSA Police And why did he come to be in police custody in Tanganyika and the first white man deported by newly independent Kenya Back in England Patrick's CV was no conducive to gainful employment of the kind enjoyed by his peers encyclopaedia salesman nomadic field hand lavatory cleaner bear chaser baggage smasher waitress yes factory labourer scullion The BBC offered sanctuary as a clerk with few prospects of advancement After five years of entertaining if ill paid work in an office full of colourful misfits Patrick fell into the embrace of the Civil Service A trainee again at the age of 30 could things improve Things could but not without a catalogue of mishaps on the way Patrick's propensity for bright ideas tended towards disaster including a national crisis when he set in train the events that culminated in Black Wednesday Haunted Seasons Derek Johnston, 2015-08-10 This book explores the literary and cultural history behind certain Christmas and Halloween traditions and examines the way that they have moved into broadcasting It demonstrates how these horror traditions have become more domestic and personal and how they provide a necessary seasonal pause for reflection on our fears Fodor's 2008 Walt Disney World
