The Hakka Billionaire Barney Yiu, 2019-08-15 The main character was from Guangdong China who migrated to Indonesia to make his livelihood in 1930 In his first job to sell coffee throughout Java he built a distribution network for himself and his entrepreneur journey began when he partnered a fellow clansman in garments and also bought into a leather tanning factory He was detained during the Japanese occupation but found an opportunity subsequently to provide assistance to the Independence Freedom Fighters After the war he received support to start a bank and provided micro credit loans and funded shop houses development However impacted by the devaluation of the Rupiah in 1959 and growing political uncertainty the Jakarta Tiger moved his base to Hong Kong With funds which he brought out of Indonesia he started in real estate development and became one of its early successes in addressing the growing manufacturing and housing needs in the territory But as ill luck would have it the bank deposit run in 1965 hit his business hard and he decided to relocate back to Indonesia His last ventures there included banking as well as starting a high school for Chinese students who had to suspend their education previously

Filmonomics André de Palma, Luc Leruth, 2025-04-08 What could movies as diverse as The Last Samurai Cl o from 5 to 7 or Dr Strangelove have in common Filmonomics has a simple yet intriguing answer economics as the main driving force of the plot or as the main motivation of the characters actions This book analyses how movie makers use economic and financial motives in their plots or to build their characters Have they done it in line with economic theory Or are they proposing a new angle a new perspective that economists should take note of The authors here do not discuss wages in the film industry or the economics of movies What interests them is the economic motivations underpinning the behaviour of fictional characters in their favourite films They argue that credible movie characters can behave in irrational ways and movie makers occasionally introduce new ideas that economists should take note of A unique contribution this book will be of interest to readers eager to discover what economists have to say about films and film directors It will be indispensable for students and researchers of economics media studies film studies and cultural studies The Zhangs from Nanxun Nanchen Zhang, Laurence Chang, 2010
