Page,2003-09-16 The most exhaustive reference work available on this critical subject in world history focusing on the politics economy culture and society of both colonizers and colonized The history of the last 500 years is the history of imperialism writes editor Melvin Page In the Americas as a result of imperialist conquest disease famine and war nearly wiped out a population estimated in the tens of millions Africa was devastated by the slave trade an integral part of imperialism from the 1400s to the 1800s In Asia even though native populations survived native political institutions were destroyed Imperialism also forged the two most important ideologies of the last five centuries racialism and modern nationalism In more than 600 essays presented in this three volume encyclopedia Page and other leading scholars historians political scientists economists and sociologists analyze the origins of imperialism the many forms it took and its impact worldwide They also explore imperialism s bitter legacy the gross inequities of global wealth and power that divide the former conquerors primarily Europe the United States and Japan from the people they conquered The Great Bahamian Hurricanes of 1899 and 1932 Wayne Neely, 2012 Hurricanes have long been a fact of life in the Bahamas With extensive exposed coastlines jutting out of the Atlantic and uniquely flat lands and shallow coastal waters these islands had seen many tempests before there was a Bahamas as we know it today Hurricanes have shaped the islands landscape and in a sense their people as well In the history of the Bahamas often considered a patriarchal society in which the hurricanes traditionally bore the names not of women but of the islands they devastated the storms have impacted all aspects of everyday life A growing number of studies covering many aspects of hurricanes have examined their social impacts Even so the historical ramifications of the hurricanes of the Bahamas and of the wider realm of the Caribbean have rarely been approached The Great Bahamas Hurricane of 1899 and the Great Abaco Hurricane of 1932 hold special places in the archives of Bahamian history These hurricanes were two of the worst natural disasters the country had experienced at the time and even to this day these storms are considered among the top ten most destructive Bahamian storms of all time These two notable and very destructive Bahamian hurricanes resulted in the deaths of over 334 Bahamians in 1899 and 18 in 1932 Learn why as author Wayne Neely explores the breadth and depth of each disaster not only how they impacted the society at the time but how they impacted the progression of history American Book Publishing Record , 2003
