On a Global Mission: The Automobiles of General Motors International Volume 3 Louis F. Fourie,2016-12-29 Volume One traces the history of Opel and Vauxhall separately from inception through to the 1970s and thereafter collectively to 2015 Special attention is devoted to examining innovative engineering features and the role Opel has taken of providing global platforms for GM Each model is examined individually and supplemented by exhaustive supporting specification tables The fascinating history of Saab and Lotus begins with their humble beginnings and examines each model in detail and looks at why these unusual marques came under the GM Banner Included is a penetrating review of Saab through to its unfortunate demise Volume Two examines unique models and variations of Chevrolet and Buick manufactured in the Southern Hemisphere and Asia but never offered in North America Daewoo Wuling and Baojun are other Asian brands covered in detail This volume concludes with recording the remarkable early success of Holden and its continued independence through to today Volume Three covers the smaller assembly operations around the world and the evolution of GM's export operations A brief history of Isuzu Subaru and Suzuki looks at the three minority interests GM held in Asia The GM North American model specifications are the most comprehensive to be found in a single book Global and regional sales statistics are included GM executives and management from around the globe are listed with the roles they held An index ensures that these volumes serve as the ideal reference source on GM

Two Billion Cars Daniel Sperling, Deborah Gordon, 2009-01-13 Today there are over a billion vehicles in the world and within twenty years the number will double largely a consequence of China's and India's explosive growth Given that greenhouse gases are already creating havoc with our climate and that violent conflict in unstable oil rich nations is on the rise will matters only get worse Or are there hopeful signs that effective realistic solutions can be found Blending a concise history of cars and their impact on the world leading transportation experts Daniel Sperling and Deborah Gordon explain how we arrived at this state and what we can do about it Sperling and Gordon assign blame squarely where it belongs on the auto industry short sighted government policies and consumers They explore such solutions as getting beyond the gas guzzler monoculture re inventing cars searching for low carbon fuels and more Promising advances in both transportation technology and fuel efficiency together with shifts in traveler behavior they suggest offer us a way out of our predicament The authors conclude that the two places that have the most troublesome emissions problems California and China are the most likely to become world leaders on these issues Arnold Schwarzenegger's enlightened embrace of eco friendly fuel policies which he discusses in the foreword and China's forthright recognition that it needs far reaching environmental and energy policies suggest that if they can tackle the issue effectively and honestly then there really is reason for hope Updated with a new afterword that sheds light on the profound changes in the global economy in the last year Two Billion Cars makes the case for why and how we need to transform transportation now more than ever Authoritatively prescriptive Tom Vanderbilt Wilson Quarterly Provocative and pleasurable far seeing and refreshing fact based and yet a page turner global in scope but rooted in real places The authors make a convincing case that smart consumers driving smart electric drive cars can find the critical path to a safer planet Robert Socolow Princeton University In this insightful and persuasive book Sperling and Gordon highlight one of the biggest environmental challenges of this century two billion cars They rightly contend that we cannot avert the worst of global warming without making our cars cleaner and petroleum free Luckily the authors also offer a roadmap for navigating this problem that is both visionary and achievable Frances Beinecke President Natural Resources Defense Council

Engines of Change Paul Ingrassia, 2012-05 From Pulitzer Prize winning journalist Ingrassia comes an American cultural history that explores how cars have both propelled and reflected the national experience from the Model T to the Prius Automobility and the City in Twentieth-Century Britain and Japan Simon Gunn, Susan C. Townsend, 2019-08-22 Automobility and the City in Twentieth Century Britain and Japan is the first book to consider how mass motorization reshaped cities in Japan and Britain during the 20th century Taking two leading motor cities Nagoya and Birmingham as their principal subjects Simon Gunn and Susan C Townsend show how cars changed the spatial form and individual experience of the modern city and reveal the similarities and differences between Japan and Britain in adapting to the motor age The book has three main themes the place of automobility in post war urban reconstruction the emerging conflict between the promise of mobility and personal freedom offered by the car and its consequences for the urban environment the M E dilemma and the extent to which the Anglo Japanese comparison can throw light on fundamental differences in cultural understanding of the environment urbanism and the self The result is the first comparative history of mass automobility and its environmental consequences between East and West

Climate and Energy E. Calvin Beisner, 2024-03-26 The attempted cures for climate change are generally worse than the disease especially for the poor In this groundbreaking volume experts in all the fields related to climate change explain for laymen what we know about climate change and evaluate from a Christian perspective the proposed responses Demands to transform the global energy infrastructure to depend heavily on wind solar and other renewables are harmful to people in America and the world especially to the poor Meanwhile continued large scale use of traditional energy sources like nuclear hydro and fossil fuels would reduce poverty while doing less harm to the environment Climate and Energy The Case For Realism combines outstanding climate science physics economics environmental science political science ethics and theology to present a well reasoned understanding of human induced climate change and how to respond to it

Fixing Higher Education Christian Schierenbeck, 2012-11-06 Christian Schierenbeck makes a provocative case that higher education across the globe suffers from a profound productivity crisis which prevents broad access to affordable and high quality educational services He shows how the vast productivity gap in higher education could be closed if academic managers borrowed some of the managerial practices applied by the world's leading business enterprises In order for this to happen in practice the author argues for radical changes in the policy framework for higher education

Advocacy John A. Daly, 2011-08-30 When a group of people gather together to generate ideas for solving a problem or achieving a goal sometimes the best ideas are passed over Worse a problematic suggestion with far less likelihood of success may be selected instead Why would a group dismiss an option that would be more effective Leadership and communications expert John Daly has a straightforward answer it wasn't sold to them as well If the best idea is yours how can you increase the chances that it gains the support of the group In Advocacy: Championing Ideas and Influencing Others Daly explains in full detail how to transform ideas into practice To be successful leaders in every type of organization must find practical and action oriented ways to market their ideas and achieve buy in from the members of the group Daly offers a comprehensive action guide that explains how to shape opinion inspire action and achieve results Drawing on current research in the fields of persuasion power relations and behavior change he discusses the complex factors involved in selling an idea the context of the communication the type of message being promoted the nature and interests of the audience the emotional tenor of the issues at stake and much more For the businessperson politician or any other member of a group who seeks the satisfaction of having his or her own idea take shape and become reality this book is an essential guide Automotive News ,1972-07 Library Journal Melvil Dewey, Richard Rogers Bowker, L.
