Sapre,2022-05-24 Human behavior under diverse social conditions is complex and puzzling Driven by experience ambitions struggles passion emotions social situations etc humans try to find ways to survive and progress Every individual and situation is unique and shapes up differently Yet there exists a common thread or a general pattern showing a natural trend It is reasonably possible to understand this trend if one keeps free from biases strategies ideologies or closed thinking

Positive thinking could provide a picture that would be closer to reality Peculiar social realities could be better understood within a general pattern Based on daily experiences one develops some understanding of the diverse behavior of the people around It has a strong and reasonably discernable social context Collating and shaping these thoughts on diverse social topics needs efforts to shade out unrealistic content and take insight closer to reality The topics covered in the book are of common interest and readers may find them closer to their daily experiences Overall there is a message to be positive going closer to the natural processes and taking a balanced view even in puzzling situations Understanding social issues is a utilitarian exercise diverse unending interesting and even relaxing Contributing to this dispassionate exercise is always a pleasure for anyone

A General Theory of Emotions and Social Life Warren D. TenHouten, 2006-11-22 Founded upon the psychoevolutionary theories of Darwin Plutchik and Izard a general socioevolutionary theory of the emotions affect spectrum theory classifies a wide spectrum of the emotions and analyzes them on the sociological psychological and neurobiological levels This neurocognitive sociology of the emotions supersedes the major theoretical perspectives developed in the sociology of emotions by showing primary emotions to be adaptive reactions to fundamental problems of life which have evolved into elementary social relationships and which can predict occurrences of the entire spectrum of primary complex secondary and tertiary emotions Written by leading social theorist Warren D TenHouten this book presents an encyclopaedic classification of the emotions describing forty six emotions in detail and presenting a general multilevel theory of emotions and social life The scope of coverage of this key work is highly topical and comprehensive and includes the development of emotions in childhood symbolic elaboration of complex emotions emotions management violence and cultural and gender differences While primary emotions have clearly defined valences this theory shows that complex emotions obey no algebraic law and that all emotions have both creative and destructive potentialities
