Contact in the 16th Century Brad Loewen, Claude Chapdelaine, 2016-05-12 From Labrador to Lake Ontario the Gulf of Saint Lawrence to French Acadia and Huronia Wendaki to Tadoussac and from one chapter to the next this scholarly collection of archaeological findings focuses on 16th century European goods found in Native contexts and within greater networks forming a conceptual interplay of place and mobility The four initial chapters are set around the Gulf of Saint Lawrence where Euro Native contact was direct and the historical record is strongest Contact networks radiated northward into Inuit settings where European iron nails roofing tile fragments and ceramics are found Glass beads are scarce on Inuit sites as well as on Basque sites on the Gulf's north shore but they are numerous in French Acadia Ceramics on northern Basque sites are mostly from Spain An historical review discusses the partnership between Spanish Basques and Saint Lawrence Iroquoians c 1540 1580 The four chapters set in the Saint Lawrence valley show Tadoussac as a fork in inland networks Saint Lawrence Iroquoians obtained glass beads around Tadoussac before 1580 Algonquin from Lac Saint Jean began trading at Tadoussac after that They plied a northern route that linked to Huronia Wendaki via the Ottawa Valley and the Frontenac Uplands Finally four chapters set around Lake Ontario focus on contact between this region and the Saint Lawrence valley Huron Wendat sites around the Kawartha Lakes show an influx of Saint Lawrence trade in the 16th century followed by an immigration wave about 1580 Huron Wendat sites near Toronto show an unabated inflow of Native materials from the Saint Lawrence valley however neutral sites west of Lake Ontario show Native and European materials arriving from the south A review of glass bead evidence presented by various authors shows trends that cut across chapters and bring new impetus to the study of beads to discover 16th century networks among French and Basque fishers Inuit and Algonquian foragers and Iroquoian farmers With contributions from Sara Barreiro Meghan Burchell Claude Chapdelaine Martin S Cooper Amanda Crompton Vincent Delmas Sergio Escribano Ruiz William Fox Sarah Grant Fran ois Guindon Erik Langevin Brad Loewen Jean Fran ois Moreau Jean Luc Pilon Michel Plourde Peter Ramsden Lisa Rankin and Ronald F Williamson Published in English

History of the Native People of Canada, Volume III (A.D. 500 - European Contact) James Vallière Wright, 1996-01-01 Part 1 of the final volume of A History of the Native People of Canada treats eastern Canada and the southern Subarctic regions of the Prairies from A D 500 to European contact It examines the association of archaeological sites with the Native peoples recorded in European documents and particularly the agricultural revolution of the Iroquoian people of the Lower Great Lakes and Upper St Lawrence River Part 2 was never completed as the author passed away Published in English Painting the Past with a Broad Brush David L. Keenlyside, Jean-Luc Pilon, 2009-01-01 For over 50 years J V Wright was a ground breaking leader and inspiring mentor for the Canadian archaeological profession This publication brings together 23 scholarly articles on various aspects of Canada s ancient past that pay tribute to and reflect J V Wright s diverse geographic and cultural interests in relation to Canadian archaeology and pre history This exceptional festschrift includes an annotated bibliography of J V Wright s works Published in English Passion for the Past James Vallière Wright, Jean-Luc Pilon, 2004-01-01 A Passion for the Past celebrates the late archaeologist James F Pendergast The book includes twenty two essays on subjects ranging from archaeological ethnicity to Native perspectives on archaeology and features several texts on the St Lawrence Iroquoians a subject dear to Pendergast s heart Published in English Ibss: Anthropology: 1972 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation, 1974-10-24 First published in 1974 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Natives and Newcomers Bruce G. Trigger, 1986 According to convential nineteenth century wisdom societies of European origin were naturally progressive native societies were static One consequence of this attitdde was the almost universal separation of history and anthropology Today despite a growing interest in changes in Amerindian societies this dichotomy continues to distort the investigation of Canadian history and to assign native peoples only a marginal place in it Natives and Newcomers discredits that myth In a spirited and critical re examination of relations between the French and the Iroquoian speaking inhabitants of the St Lawrence lowlands from the incursions of Jacques Cartier through the explorations of Samuel de Champlain and the Jesuit missions into the early years of the royal regime Natives and Newcomers argues that native people have played a significant role in shaping the development of Canada Trigger also shows that the largely ignored French traders and their employees established relations with native people that were indispensable for founding a viable European colony on the St Lawrence The brisk narrative of this period is complemented by a detailed survey of the stereotypes about native people that have influenced the development of Canadian history and anthropology and by candid discussions of how historical ethnographical and archaeological approaches can and cannot be combined to produce a more rounded and accurate understanding of the past

Diversity and Complexity in Prehistoric Maritime Societies Bruce J. Bourque, 2007-09-04 New England archaeology has not always been everyone s cup of tea only late in the Golden of nineteenth century archaeology as archaeology s focus turned westward did a few pioneers look northward as well causing a brief flurry of investigation and excavation Between 1892 and 1894 Charles C Willoughby did some exemplary excavations at three small burial sites in Bucksport Orland and Ellsworth Maine and made some models of that activity for exhibition at the Chicago World s Fair These activities were encouraged by E Putnam director of the Harvard Peabody Museum and head of anthropology at the Columbian Exposition Even earlier another director of the Peabody Jeffries Wyman spawned some real interest in the shellheaps of the Maine coast but that did not last very long Twentieth century New England archaeology specifically in Maine was for its first fifty years rather low key too with short lived but important activity by Arlo and Oric a Bates Harvard student prior to World War Later I another Massachusetts institution the Peabody Foundation at Andover took some minor but responsible steps toward further understanding of the area s prehistoric past

Pour une histoire amérindienne de l'Amérique

Georges E.
