Otis Moss, III,2024-01-16 A deeply spiritual and socially radical Dr Obery Hendricks PhD guide to uplift our spirits as we work for justice in these politically turbulent times from Reverend Otis Moss III Senior Pastor at Chicago s Trinity United Church of Christ and one of the country s most renowned and beloved spiritual and civil rights leaders Once again as Dr Martin Luther King Jr first observed in the 1960s it is midnight in America a dark time of division and anxiety with threats of violence looming in the shadows In 2008 the Trinity United Church in Chicago received threats when one of its parishioners Senator Barack Obama ran for president We re going to kill you rang in Reverend Otis Moss s ears when he suddenly heard a noise in the middle of the night He grabbed a baseball bat to confront the intruder in his home When he opened the door to his daughter s room he found that the source of the noise was his own little girl dancing She was simply practicing for her ballet recital At that moment Pastor Moss saw that the real intruder was within him Caught in a cycle of worry and anger he had allowed the darkness inside But seeing his daughter evoked Pslam 30 You have turned my mourning into dancing He set out to write the sermon that became this inspiring and transformative book Dancing in the Darkness is a life affirming Dr Teresa L Fry Brown guide to the practical political and spiritual challenges of our day Drawing on the teachings of Dr King Howard Thurman sacred scripture southern wisdom global spiritual traditions Black culture and his own personal experiences Dr Moss instructs you on how to practice spiritual resistance by combining justice and love This collection helps us tap into the spiritual reserves we all possess but too often overlook so we can slay our personal demons confront our civic challenges and reach our highest goals Culture in Camouflage Patrick Deer,2009-03-26 Culture in Camouflage aims to remap the history of British war culture by insisting on the centrality and importance of the literature of the Second World War The book offers the first comprehensive account of the emergence of modern war culture arguing that its exceptional forms and temporalities force us to reappraise British cultural modernity The book explores how writers like Ford Madox Ford Siegfried Sassoon Wilfred Owen T E Lawrence Winston Churchill Elizabeth Bowen Virginia Woolf James Hanley Rex Warner Alexander Baron Keith Douglas Henry Green and Graham Greene contested the dominant narratives of war projected by an enormously powerful and persuasive mass media and culture industry Patrick Deer reads war literature as one element in an expanded cultural field which also includes popular culture and mass communications the productions of war planners and military historians projections of new technologies of violence the fantasies and theories of strategists and the material culture of total war Modern war cultures Deer contends are defined by their drive to normalize conflict and war making by their struggle to colonize the entire wartime cultural field and by their claim to monopolize representations and interpretation of the conflict But the mobilization of cultural formations during wartime reveals at times glaringly the constitutive contradictions at the heart of modern ideas of culture The Great War failed to produce a popular war culture on the home front producing instead an extraordinary literature of protest yet the strategists struggled to regain their oversight over both the enemy across no man s land and the minds and bodies of their own mass conscript armies The interwar years saw a massive effort to make strategic fantasies a reality if the technology of imperial air power or mobile armoured warfare did not yet exist culture could be mobilized to shore up the ramshackle war machine During World War Two a fully fledged British war culture emerged triumphant in time of national crisis offering the vision of a fully mobilized island fortress a loyal empire and a modernized war machine ready to wage a futuristic war of space and movement This was the struggle that British World War Two writers confronted with extraordinary courage and creativity The Love-charm of Bombs Lara Feigel,2013-07-09 A portrait of World War II era London by five literary volunteers documents their experiences as ambulance drivers firefighters and other civilian aids through the course of a single night in September 1940 20 000 first printing Report of the ...
