

The background of the book cover is a vibrant, stylized illustration. In the foreground, a Native Alaskan woman with long, wavy, reddish-brown hair is depicted. She has a serene expression and is wearing a traditional necklace with a large, square, metallic-looking pendant. Behind her, a totem pole with several figures is visible. The background features a landscape with green hills, a body of water, and a small town or village. The overall style is painterly and colorful.
