Sister Thea Bowman, Shooting Star Thea Bowman, 1999 Thea Bowman Maurice J. Nutt, 2019-04-30 With every passing year since her death in 1990 more people are recognizing Sister Thea Bowman as one of the most inspiring figures in American Catholic history This granddaughter of slaves became Catholic on her own initiative at the age of nine As a Franciscan sister she lived a wide ranging ministry of joy music and justice Now Father Maurice Nutt offers a new biography of Sister Thea that introduces her and sheds new light on who she was Drawing on careful research and the insights of people who were close to her Nutt explores her personality her passion her mission and her prayer He captures Thea Bowman as she was an unapologetically African American woman a religious sister who deeply loved God and the people to whom she ministered through teaching preaching and singing and who embraced the blessing of her ancestry the wisdom of the old folks and a passion for justice and equality for all God's children Sister Thea Bowman Sklar, Peggy A., 2020 A young adult book that explores the life and accomplishments of this trailblazing African American sister 1937 1990 teacher and scholar who made a major contribution to the ministry of the Catholic Church bringing a recognition of black culture to the faith Ages 10 and up We Are Beloved Thea Bowman, 2021-12-03 We Are Beloved offers you a personal thirty day retreat based on the prophetic words of Servant of God Sr Thea Bowman a renowned Black Catholic evangelizer teacher writer and singer Requiring only a few minutes each day We Are Beloved allows you to reflect deeply on your fundamental need for belonging the healing community offered by the Church and the challenge to welcome all people in the Body of Christ We Are Beloved offers selections from four decades of Bowman's writings reflections presentations and interviews Bowman has gained attention in the last several years her cause for canonization was endorsed in 2018 and the 2020 national reckoning with racism highlighted her as one of the prophetic voices in the Church that have been marginalized When she joined the Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration in 1952 Bowman was the first Black sister in the community Throughout her ministry she highlighted the need to make Black Americans feel more welcome in Catholic Church In her powerful testimonies that included gospel singing preaching and storytelling she honored the richness of diverse communities and encouraged people of all races to find joy in unity We Are Beloved offers thirty days of brief morning meditations mantras for use throughout the day and night prayers to focus your thoughts at the day's end This simple book is the perfect prayer companion for busy people who want to root their spiritual practice in Bowman's vibrant vision of joy in unity Reflecting perceptively on the dignity of all people Bowman also encourages you to root out sources of division in your life and calls you to continual conversion Each book in the Great Spiritual Teachers series provides a month of daily readings from one of Christianity's most beloved spiritual guides These easy to use books are the perfect prayer companion for busy people who want to root their spiritual practice in the solid ground of these great spiritual teachers Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A.

Thomas,2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life Amoris Laetitia Grant Gallicho,James F. Keenan, SJ,2018 Essays by distinguished bishops and theologians that not only introduce readers to the theological depth found in Amoris Laetitia but consider the full document including its reception in the multicultural and diverse environment that characterizes the church in the United States and the full range of challenges and issues related to marriage and family life Blazing the Trail Vinita Hampton Wright,2025-02-07 Four remarkable women stand apart as women who boldly carried their faith into the heart of American life Saints Elizabeth Ann Seton and Frances Xavier Cabrini and Servants of God Dorothy Day and Thea Bowman Building on the success of Set the World on Fire renowned spiritual author and retreat leader Vinita Hampton Wright now offers Blazing the Trail a powerful four week retreat with these American Women of the Church to help you connect personally with some of the Church's most influential female visionaries and activists Spanning three centuries of American history the dramatic lives of these women will inspire you to cultivate grit humility discernment vision courage and strength Each week of your retreat begins with weekend reading and prayer to introduce the woman and the spiritual theme of the week followed by five days of morning and evening prayers Much of the text comes from the women's own writings Scripture reflection questions and action steps are thoughtfully crafted to help you engage personally with each woman and her wisdom for living out your faith Week one St Elizabeth Ann Seton considered the mother of American Catholic education Seton's pursuit of truth transformed her journey from Episcopal convert to Catholic founder revealing how faith can redefine your calling Week two St Frances Xavier Cabrini a determined Italian immigrant whose missionary work brought hope and purpose to thousands of orphans and impoverished children in New York City during the late 1800s offers a lesson in how perseverance and faith can change the world Week three Servant of God Dorothy Day a social activist of the twentieth century who poured her heart out for the poor and the marginalized while unabashedly criticizing hypocrisy in the Church dares us to match our bold declarations of faith with equally bold actions Week four Servant of God Thea Bowman A Black religious sister and dynamic teacher who through her love liturgy and voice inspires us to embrace our full selves and to love others without reservation This retreat goes beyond simply reading about saints it invites you to integrate the wisdom of these extraordinary women into your everyday life Through scripture prayer and their own words Blazing the Trail calls you to grow spiritually and take meaningful action guiding you toward a deeper more courageous faith

Great Women of Faith Sue Stanton, 2003

The Art of Dying and Living Kerry Walters, 2011 Earlier generations of Christians studied classic ars moriendi manuals on the art of dying to help them face and embrace morality They learned from these books something our own generation is in danger of forgetting that the manner in which one dies very much depends on the manner in which one has lived The author explores the connection between living and dying well by recounting the stories of seven exemplary people of our time and the particular virtues they embodied

Love is a Flame of the Lord Walter J. Burghardt, 1995 In several ways the present set of homilies continues an approach to preaching apparent in the more recent of my collections which the Paulist Press has graciously presented to the public First there is an ongoing struggle with Scripture Three sets of such responsibilities cover the gamut of human living 1 Love God above all else 2 Treat every man woman and child like another self 3 Touch the earth the nonhuman with unfailing reverence

To Stand on the Rock Joseph A. Brown SJ, 2011-08-01 If I could I surely would stand on the rock where Moses stood from the Spiritual Elijah Rock Taking its theme from the pastoral letter of the Black Catholic bishops of the United States which spoke of the challenge of being authentically Black and truly Catholic To Stand on the Rock invites us to linger awhile in the garden of our imagination and try to see with the eyes of faith and art how the old ones took a twisted version of Christianity and re twisted it into a culture of liberation transcendence creativity and wholeness Father Brown begins by recalling the religion and identity of those Africans who were brought to these shores in bondage the original source in the quest for what it means to be authentically Black He then explores the style of Christianity they forged through the sufferings of slavery which found expression in the Spirituals Brown then reflects on the struggle of Black Catholics to claim their own style of faith and spirituality and to assert their distinctive gifts to the church universal

Priesthood in Religious Life Stephen Bevans, Robin Ryan, 2018-09-27 This is the first book in English on priesthood in religious life to be published in twenty years Its fourteen contributors search for new ways forward in the understanding of the distinct identity and ministry of religious men committed to community the prophetic lifestyle of vows or promises and the particular charisms of their congregations who have also answered the call to priesthood Essays in this collection include reflections from a bishop from the perspective of a lay theologian from an expert in the social sciences and on Pope Francis s teachings on priesthood Included as well are essays that are rooted in particular cultural traditions in spirituality and in canon law The Catholic Studies Reader James Terence Fisher, Margaret M. McGuinness, 2011 Divided into five interrelated themes sources and contexts traditions and methods pedagogy and practice ethnicity race and Catholic studies and the Catholic imagination the editors provide readers with the opportunity to understand the great diversity within this area of study A Precious Fountain Mary E. McGann, 2015-11-20 A Precious Fountain is a work of liturgical ethnography that probes the rich liturgical life of one worshipping community whose roots and practices are at once Black and Catholic using music as a primary lens through which to explore the community s liturgy and embodied theology Our Lady of Lourdes community in San Francisco is part of a larger event in the American church the emergence of a new paradigm of Catholic worship one that is authentically Black and truly Catholic Mary E McGann RSCJ describes how the music worship of Our Lady of Lourdes in San Francisco not only enriches that community but also is an example of how a theology of music is practiced in that parish She offers this new genre of liturgical literature that brings to light how God s Spirit is working in the churches through the idioms perceptions and insights of specific ethno cultural communities in this time of massive cultural change and globalization Openings (2nd Edition) Rev. Larry J. Peacock, 2014-04-01 Move closer to God one day at a time by reading the Psalms and practicing prayer in ways you may not have imagined before This is a prayer book for every day of the year for people who don t usually think about using a prayer book Drawing on a wide variety of resources lives of saints and sages from every age psalms guides for personal reflection and suggestions for practice Rev Larry J Peacock offers helpful guidance for anyone hungry for a richer prayer life Each day s reading has four parts Remember a notable person of faith or a significant event Read a psalm or another scripture passage Ponder that day s scripture or person of faith Practice a variety of ways to pray including prayer through play music and physical movement This new edition features the addition of ancient and modern sages from inside and outside the Christian tradition as well as updated resources for deepening your spiritual life throughout the year

Preaching the Just Word Walter J. Burghardt, 1998-10-11 Arguing why biblical justice not merely ethical legal justice should be applied to matters concerning the poor the oppressed and the marginalized the author of this text suggests that everyone is responsible for these people since they are involved in a covenant with God Let It Shine! Mary E. McGann, R.S.C.J., 2009-08-25 Let It Shine probes the distinctive contribution of black Catholics to the life of the American church and to the unfolding of lived Christianity in the United States This important book explores the powerful spiritual renaissance that has marked African American life and selfunderstanding over the last several decades by examining one critical dimension the forging of new expressions of Catholic worship rooted in the larger Catholic tradition yet shaped in unique ways by African American religious culture Starting with the 1960s the book traces the dynamic interplay of social change cultural awakening and charismatic leadership that have sparked the emergence of distinctive styles of black Catholic worship In their historical overview McGann and Eva Marie Lumas chronicle the liturgical and pastoral issues of a black Catholic liturgical movement that has transformed the larger American church McGann then examines the foundational vision of Rev Clarence R J Rivers who promoted forms of black worship music preaching and prayer that have enabled African American Catholics to reclaim the fullness of their religious identity Finally Harbor constructs a black Catholic aesthetic based on the theological ethical and liturgical insights of four African American scholars expressed through twenty three performative values This liturgical aesthetic illuminates the distinctive gift of black Catholics to the multicultural tapestry of lived faith in the American church and can also serve as a pastoral model for other cultural communities Blending history theology and liturgy Let It Shine is a valuable resource for scholars teachers and students and a practical pastoral guide to bringing African American spirituality more firmly into the sacramental life of American parishes

Is It a Sermon? Donyelle C. McCray, 2024-10-08 Is It a Sermon is an informative and daring call to blur the boundaries of the sermon genre exploring the shoreline of homiletics or the place where preaching laps up against other modes of discourse In this book Donyelle McCray explores how preaching merges with prayer song performance and activism the gospel dancing in and out of the forms we create for it Consider the sermonic performance of Isaiah walking naked and barefoot for three years the deaconess whose morning prayer rhythmically flows into sermon or the gospel soloist who pauses in her song to tell a story or break into a sermonette McCray is interested in the possibilities that emerge when we play at the shoreline and she questions what modes of preaching get overlooked due to genre classifications She seeks to discover what we might learn from these shoreline preachers about bearing witness enacting Scripture and listening to life While these questions could be explored generally McCray focuses on African American preachers who play at the boundaries of the sermon genre with attention to how genre fluidity provides a means of drawing on ancestral wisdom Key figures like Mahalia Jackson Harriet Powers Rosie Lee Tomkins Thea Bowman Howard Thurman and Toni Morrison are examined as artists activists and proclaimers She shines a new light on their work and points out how they reform preacherly identities and refuse traditional patterns of holding authority Ultimately in blurring the boundaries of sermon genre this book offers readers strategies for embracing their voices more fully within and beyond the pulpit
