are already smitten with Lyle's amazing good looks beautiful guitar playing and singing and natural charisma They begin to recruit him to come to Los Angeles to join their Pentecostal televangelism empire Alienated from Maria and fed up with his mother Lyle decides it's time for him to strike out on his own so he follows Brother Bud and Sister Sis to L A A black woman named Matilda of the Golden Voice now alienated from Bud and Sis encourages his musical gift but warns him obliquely not to trust Bud and Sis Quickly Bud and Sis begin grooming Lyle as the newest Christian star sensation dubbing him The Lord's Cowboy Meanwhile a desperate and vain B movie actress named Tarah Worth is angling to make a comeback She hears she is up for the role of Helen Lawson the older washed up actress character in a sequel to Valley of the Dolls Shortly after arriving in town Lyle has taken a job working at a party at the Playboy Mansion and saves Miss Millennium a Playmate from a feral peacock He becomes known around L A as the Mystery Cowboy and Tarah hatches a plan in which Lyle will be framed for kidnapping her that she feels will assure her the Valley of the Dolls role One of Lyle's friends from Texas a gay kid named Raul shows up in L A Bud and Sis are none too thrilled that their charge is trusting his gay friends and Sister Matilda over them and he breaks from them on air during their televangelist show which they play off as demonic possession Lyle attempts to keep Raul from getting bilked by sketchy pornographers and to otherwise protect him from the seedier elements preying on gay street kids in L A Maria shows up in town to announce that she still loves Lyle sleep with him one last time and then inform him she's marrying a business contact of her father's for money Lyle feels betrayed and tells her he never wants to speak to her again Most dramatically Lyle finally meets his father Having been told he's an abandoning son of a bitch his entire life he's very angry and hostile but there is some closure and a hint of rapprochement He also learns from a letter from Clarita that his mother's difficult life is over and gains some insight into her childhood The end comes when he re-encounters Sister Matilda now preaching on the street comparing her father's lynching to the Crucifixion and takes her to lunch at Musso Frank's Feeling a sense of great tragedy and change he takes off his clothes and on a busy street in L A does the preacher strut and sings Amazing Grace as a tribute to his mother jeered by passersby
