Modern French Marxism Michael Kelly, 2025-06-05 Marxist thought was a powerful force in French political and intellectual life throughout the twentieth century This book takes you from its early beginnings to its peak in the 1970s when it dominated the battle of ideas You will follow conceptual debates on the materialist dialectic explore Marxism as a system of thought and experience the ambition of the men and women of letters who sought to change the world This second edition is augmented with essays on how Marxist thinkers grappled with religion everyday life the Cold War and other leading intellectual movements Popular Culture Roger Cestin, Eliane Dalmolin, 1997 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature s relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license Femmes R. Celestin, Eliane Françoise DalMolin, 2000 First Published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Women Roger Célestin, 2012-11-12 Published in 2001 Women is a valuable contribution to the field of Performance Remembering the Occupation in French film L. Hewitt, 2008-02-18 When collective memory is a source of national debate the public representation of history quickly becomes a locus of controversy and ideological struggle This work shows how French film has allowed for a public airing of current concerns through the lens of memory s recreations of the Occupation

Rewriting the Orient Yunfei Bai, 2024-03-15 In this ambitious volume Yunfei Bai delves into the creative adaptations of classical Sanskrit Chinese and Tibetan literary texts by four renowned nineteenth and early twentieth century authors in France and Argentina Thophile Gautier St phane Mallarmé Victor Segalen and Jorge Luis Borges Without any knowledge of the source languages the authors crafted their own French and Spanish retellings based on received translations of these

Asian works Rewriting the Orient not only explores the so far untapped translation rewriting continuum to trace the pivotal role of Orientalism in the formation of a singular corpus of world literature that goes beyond the Anglophone canon but also sheds light on a wide range of innovative discursive strategies that readily challenge traditional notions of cultural appropriation

European Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2019-01-04 European Film Noir is the first book to bring together specialist discussions of film noir in specific European national cinemas Written by leading scholars this groundbreaking study provides an authoritative understanding of an important aspect of European cinema and of film noir itself for too long considered as a solely American form The Introduction reviews the problems of defining film noir its key characteristics and discusses its significance to the development of European film the relationship of specific national films noirs to each other to American noir and to historical and social change Eight chapters then discuss film noir in France Germany Britain and Spain analysing both earlier developments and the evolution of neo noir through to the present A further chapter explores film noir in Italian cinema where its presence is not so well defined Each piece provides a critical overview of the most significant films in relation to their industrial and social contexts European Film Noir is an important contribution to the study of European cinema that will have a broad appeal to undergraduates cin astes film teachers and researchers

Latin American Dictators of the 20th Century Javier A. Galván, 2013-01-01 Throughout the 20th century the emergence of authoritarian dictatorships in Latin America coincided with periods of social convulsion and economic uncertainty This book covers 15 dictators representing every decade of the century and geographically from the Caribbean and North and Central and South America Each chapter covers their personal information childhood education marriage family assumption of power relationship with the United States oppression of civilians and collapse of their regimes The book also investigates inherent contradictions in U S foreign policy promoting democracy abroad while supporting brutal dictatorships in Latin America Such analysis requires multiple perspectives and this work embraces an evaluation of the influence of military dictatorships on cultural elements such as art literature journalism music and cinema while drawing on data from documentary archives court case files investigative reports international treaties witness testimonies and personal letters from survivors The dramatic experiences of courageous individuals who challenged these 15 oppressors are also recounted

Humour in Self-Translation Margherita Dore, 2022-10-15 This book explores an important aspect of human existence humor in self translation a virtually unexplored area of research in Humour Studies and Translation Studies Of the select group of international scholars contributing to this volume some examine literary texts from different perspectives sociological philosophical or post colonial while others explore texts in more extraneous fields such as standup comedy or language learning This book sheds light on how humour in self translation induces thoughts on social issues challenges stereotypes contributes to recast individuals in novel forms of identity and facilitates reflections on our own sense of humour This accessible and engaging volume is of interest to advanced students of Humour Studies and Translation Studies
