Elizabeth H. Brett, 2013-05-13 So You Want to Be a Teacher is a bit of light reading in a troubled world today I left names by the wayside and emphasized actions especially innovative behavior The students I enjoyed were full of mischief but for the most part it was simply that mischief Very few of the students I taught in my forty years were bad they just needed a bit of love and understanding Who cares what Socrates said when you are a student who had no supper the night before I try to be a stepping stone not a stumbling block If You Want to Lead, Not Just Manage Dennis R. Dunklee, 2000-03-13 Effective timely and engaging A practical approach to transforming educators into successful and reflective school administrators John C Daresh Author of Beginning The Principalship Insight into the perceptions personal values and personalities that help principals succeed A successful principal is more than a good manager Becoming an effective school leader means understanding the culture as well as acquiring the technical skills If You Want to Lead Not Just Manage tells you what the Masters programs don't about the personalities and value systems that school leaders need to succeed First year administrators and graduate students will find this a practical gauge in determining what it takes to become a successful principal More experienced administrators will find it a useful tool for reflection and validation of their own practices and approaches within the school and district Key issues include Matching your personality with the role of principal Navigating the school culture successfully Changing the organization without alienating the culture Blending the best of management and leadership Fitting in marketing yourself as well as your school Culture shock when teachers become principals This is the book that closes the gap between theory and practice teaching prospecting and current administrators how to lead at every level Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States, William J. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on District of Columbia Appropriations,1997 Conversations With Principals Andrew E. Dubin,2006-01-06 Conversations With Principals Issues Values and Politics is a unique compilation of interviews with principals at the elementary middle and secondary levels Unlike any other text in Educational Administration this book allows students the unusual opportunity to experience the inner voice of principals as they discuss the many decisions they make and the multitude of people they must engage The Principal's Hot Seat Nicholas J. Pace,Shavonna L. Holman,Cailen M. O'Shea,2022-02-21 The Principal s Hot Seat Observing Real World Dilemmas 2nd edition provides a window through which aspiring and practicing school leaders observe and evaluate some of the most challenging authentic and unpredictable interactions common to the principalship With video footage from an unscripted role play in which teachers parents and stakeholders share a variety of issues and emotions with the principal the Hot Seat challenges readers to unpack the ways principals attempt to address routine and unpredictable challenges in school leadership From distraught pushy or irate parents to teachers refusing to collaborate curriculum controversies and cultural responsivity readers assume the hot seat and feel the challenge principals face in navigating conversations and issues in ethical individual standards based ways Each chapter begins with stage setting and scenario background information along with relevant literature research and resources followed by a transcript of the interaction and questions promoting discussion reflection and constructive critique Each scenario comes alive through several minutes of video footage of the unscripted interaction allowing examination of body language tone of voice and non verbal communication The second edition adds new scenarios related to teacher collaboration controversial curriculum current social issues updated literature and resources and cases in which the principal must interact with more than one stakeholder at a time New questions examine principals performance related to equity when to seek assistance from others and more Video footage located at <https://textbooks.rowman.com/principals-hot-seat2e>

Leading Schools Successfully Christopher Day, David Gurr, 2013-07-24 Leading Schools Successfully Stories from the field considers international research focussing on leadership in schools Based on the ISSPP International Successful School Principalship Project which has conducted over one hundred multiple perspective case studies of successful school principals from more than a dozen countries the book captures the exhilaration of being a principal who grows and sustains success from those practitioners who are acknowledged as exhibiting outstanding leadership Whilst much is known about successful school leaders the book reinforces the argument that it is neither possible nor appropriate to generalise specific strategies that should be adopted to ensure success for all schools at all times in all settings Instead success calls for a high level of judgement wisdom artistry and sheer hard work on the part of principals adapting for their particular context the knowledge about leading schools successfully Reflection sections in each chapter ask the reader to consider further issues which each chapter raises Topics considered include the importance of school principals to school success turning around under performing schools values led leadership sustaining successful leadership leading in multi cultural settings issues and implications for the future With international contributions from experts in the field the book offers a new perspective on leadership in schools and will be of interest to school principals and researchers
