Spiritual Psychology Walter Kania Ph.D.,2018-12-28 In today s world there is a New Science and there is an Old Science There is an Old Traditional form of Religion and there is a New form of Spirituality There is Quantum Physics the New Science Epigenetics the New Biology an Old Psychology and a New Psychology Spiritual or Transpersonal Psychology Each of these New forms tell us of a world very different from that in which we have presumed to live There are realms of reality and impacts on our genes bodies and behaviors never before understood The messages that emerge in the Old and in the New are very different There is an Old Traditional Jesus that is tied to dogma rules rituals notions of separation and exoteric practices that neglect and distort the true message of Jesus There is a New Jesus who is the Original Jesus that you find in his esoteric inner messages like the Jesus you find in A Course In Miracles This is a Jesus whose focus is on the heart and the psychology of human nature the human mind and on human behavior His true message was on what is within and it is one of transformation and awakening to our Transcendent Self our true inner nature People who have Spiritually Transformative Experiences discover that their bodies or their personalities are not who they are They discover the essence of what it was that Jesus was teaching Some of his teachings about our true inner nature or Transcendent Self include the following Our Source is a Loving Essence You are a powerful spiritual being living in a physical body You and your Consciousness are immortal and eternal There is a realm of reality beyond the material universe All that is visible comes from that which is invisible WALTER KANIA Ph D The Talking Halloween Pumpkin Gary David,2025-05-23 The Talking Halloween Pumpkin is the adventure of two boys Josh and Mitch who venture into a mysterious forest on Halloween night Guided by a magical talking pumpkin they navigate riddles curses and enchanted creatures learning important life lessons along the way From a haunted mirror to a cursed cauldron the forest challenges their courage friendship and understanding of magic As they face the final riddle the boys discover the deeper magic within themselves and the true meaning of Halloween A tale of mystery wonder and the timeless spirit of adventure perfect for young readers Spooky Technology: A reflection on the invisible and otherworldly qualities in everyday technologies Daragh Byrne,Dan Lockton,Matthew Cruz,Christi Danner,Karen Escarcha,Katherine Giesa,Meijie Hu,Yiwei Huang,Miranda Luong,Anuprita Ranade,Gordon Robertson,Elizabeth Wang,Lisa (Yip Yan) Yeung,Catherine Yochum,2021-08-31 Spooky Technology explores our understanding of the invisible technologies in our everyday lives from objects with intelligence to systems in our homes that talk to us and each other The book is an inventory of spooky technologies compiled by Carnegie Mellon students reviewing work across art design HCI psychology human factors research and other fields that has been done in this field or adjacent to it both historically and more recently with commentary essays and interviews with creators and artists We often hear that the technologies in our everyday lives would appear to be magic and potentially terrifying to people in the past instantaneous communication with people all over the world access to a vast ever growing resource of human knowledge right there in the palm of our hand objects with intelligence that can sense and talk to us and each other But rarely are these otherworldly dimensions of technologies explored in more detail There is an often unspoken presumption that the march of progress will inevitably mean we all adopt new practices and incorporate new products and new ways of doing things into our lives all cities will become smart cities all homes will become smart homes But these systems have become omnipresent without our necessarily understanding them They are not just black boxes but invisible entities in our homes and everyday lives which work through hidden flows of data unknown agendas imaginary clouds mysterious sets of rules which we perhaps dismiss as algorithms or even AI without really understanding what that means On some level the superstitions and sense of wonder and ways of relating to the unknown and the supernatural deities spirits ghosts which humanity has felt in every culture throughout history have not gone away but started to become transferred and transmuted into new forms

Fire & Water: Stories from the Anthropocene Mary Fifiield, Kristin Thiel, 2021-11-28 A Somali woman studying Alaska fish populations sees our past and future through their present signs of stress and her ancestral knowledge A teenager faces a permanent drought in Australia and her own sexual desire An unemployed man in Wisconsin marvels as a motley parade of animals makes his trailer their portal to a world untrammelled by humans Featuring short fiction from authors around the globe Fire Water Stories from the Anthropocene takes readers on a rare journey through the physical and emotional landscape of the climate crisis not in the future but today By turns frightening confusing and even amusing these stories remind us how complex and beautiful it is to be human in these unprecedented times

Halloween Murray Leeder, 2015-02-17 The 1970s represented an unusually productive and innovative period for the horror film and John Carpenter's Halloween 1978 is the film that capped that golden age and some say ruined it by ushering in the era of the slasher film Considered a paradigm of low budget ingenuity its story of a seemingly unremarkable middle American town becoming the site of violence on October 31 struck a chord within audiences The film became a surprise hit that gave rise to a lucrative franchise and it remains a perennial favourite Much of its success stems from the simple but strong constructions of its three central characters brainy introverted teenager Laurie Strode a late bloomer compared to her more outgoing friends Dr Loomis the driven obsessive psychiatrist and Michael Myers the inexplicable ghostlike masked killer Film scholar Murray Leeder offers a bold and provocative study of Carpenter's film which hopes to expose qualities that are sometime effaced by its sequels and remakes. It explores Halloween as an unexpected ghost film and examines such subjects as its construction of the teenager and the relationship of Halloween the film to Halloween the holiday and Michael Myers's brand of pure evil. It is a fascinating read for scholars and fans alike.

Red Twilight Dustin Feyder, 2008-12-23 Welcome to Red Twilight. Here the line between good and evil becomes hazy. Monsters can be beautiful and men can be demons. Follow along with Richard Blake into a blackend maze of nightmares drawn from the minds of ten fellow travelers. Begin with four groups of drifters as the mouth of hell seems to open up beneath them. They must become a team to survive a night like no other. Each must unlock their inner might to become heroes here in the first act in the Red Twilight saga. A Dawning of Power. All of you look at yourselves and look at the men and women with you. What do you see? Ten men lost and afraid. I don't see destiny. Not happenstance. Vampires, demons, aliens. It shouldn't matter. We have a purpose and we have power. Who are we? A witch, a warlock, and a cleric. Jacob points at Trash Pistol and himself. A white knight and a giant. He points to El and Lacerti. A marshal, arts master, and two rogues. He points out Spooky and the Gekks brothers. There is but one monster down here and it is no man. It is a philosophy, the philosophy of hate and greed and lust. It poisons our hearts and our minds with its filth, killing us from the inside out. But we are the divine. We are chosen to consecrate this place, this idea, this evil. Father Lances Jacob.
