Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Culture and Customs of Iran Elton L. Daniel, Ali Akbar Mahdi, 2006-10-30 Iran is often a hotspot in the news and the Muslim state is usually negatively portrayed in the West Culture and Customs of Iran rejects facile stereotyping and presents the rich age old Persian culture that struggles with pressures of the modern world This is the first volume in English to reveal the important sociocultural facets of Iran today for a general audience in an objective fashion Authoritative substantive narrative chapters cover the gamut of topics from religion and religious thought to Iranian cuisine and festivals

Arab Social Life in the Middle Ages Shirley Guthrie, 2013-08-01 This vivid portrait of everyday life in the medieval Arab world draws on thirteenth century miniatures from collections as far afield as St Petersburg and Istanbul The wide range of topics covers every aspect of society in the Abbasid period from life at court to the pomp and ceremony of the military from the dispensing of justice to the bustle of the suq and slave market The routine of village life is contrasted with the pleasures of urban society and we are also introduced to the world of musicians and professional mourners Women are shown not only as virtuous wives and in childbirth but as spirited and articulate individuals The traditions of Arab hospitality are described with scenes of drinking feasting and etiquette The author has illustrated her study with contemporary miniatures principally those of al Wasiti which accompany the celebrated Maqamat of al Hariri In his text al Hariri made no attempt to conceal his admiration for his unprincipled and thoroughly disreputable protagonist Abu Zayd who represents the voice of the common man and possibly provides a prototype for the popular picaresque heroes of later European literature Al Hariri frequently used the tales as a subtle and indirect way of satirizing the prevailing social order yet he was insistent that his work had an underlying moral purpose Guthrie s work is scholarly and her book is a mine of information on both basic and recondite features of Islamic society Robert Irwin Times Literary Supplement Very lively and informative on a wide range of topics in medieval Islamic history The book is eminently accessible to students and non specialists and is certainly one that merits close attention Medical History An essential read for Arabs and non Arabs alike al Hayat Plants and Gardens in Persian, Mughal and Turkish Art Norah M. Titley,1979 Middle East Garden Traditions Michel Conan,Dumbarton Oaks,2007 This book unites new information and surprising results from the last fifteen years of garden research at a remove from the clichés of Orientalism Garden archaeology reveals the economic importance of Judean gardens in Roman times and the visual complexity of gardens created and transformed in Moorish Spain More contemporary approaches unravel the cultural continuities variations and differences between gardens in the Middle East since Roman times and in the Islamic world Dragons in Persian, Mughal and Turkish Art Norah M. Titley,1981
