From Foster to Fabulous Helen Ramaglia,2012-08-30 As a former foster child I know how it feels to be alone to feel lost to feel hopeless and to feel helpless I also know you can make a difference in the life of a foster child Ive been there While my story is not unique I want to share it in order to help the caring people of America walk in the shoes of a child who

experiences physical mental and emotional abuse is removed from everything she knows is provided a roof over her head by the State and strangers and then is thrust into adulthood totally unprepared but later succeeds I want them to see touch and feel what the abused foster child suffers and why they are who they are I want them to see the major gaps in the child's life skills and social abilities and why they exist We must walk in the child's shoes in order to understand them Only then will we be able to truly fill the enormous amount of needs they have and feel confident in adopting fostering and working with foster children We must fully understand the heart and life of a foster child before we can effectively foster adopt or work with this vulnerable population of extraordinary children I invite you to walk with me and learn how it truly feels to grow up as nobody's child A little girl destined to failure confined by abuse and traumatized by foster care is inspired by faith to succeed
