

Summary of Lost Spring

The Lost Spring summary describes the terrible condition of poor children. These children are those who didn't get to enjoy childhood because of the prevailing socio-economic condition in this world. This is something that one can see all over the world. These children don't have the opportunity for schooling. Moreover, there is a lot of pressure on these children to enter into labour early in life. These unfortunate children are forced into labour. This certainly denies them education as well as the opportunity to have enjoyment. The author Anees Jung raises voice to eliminate child labour. Jung does so by raising awareness regarding child education and strict law enforcement against child labour. The call is to put an end to the exploitation of children. This way the children will be able to enjoy the days of the spring and have fun.
