Asian Place, Filipino Nation Nicole CuUnjieng Aboitiz, 2020-07-14 The Philippine Revolution of 1896 1905 which began against Spain and continued against the United States took place in the context of imperial subjugation and local resistance across Southeast Asia Yet scholarship on the revolution and the turn of the twentieth century in Asia more broadly has largely approached this pivotal moment in terms of relations with the West at the expense of understanding the East East and Global South connections that knit together the region s experience Asian Place Filipino Nation reconnects the Philippine Revolution to the histories of Southeast and East Asia through an innovative consideration of its transnational political setting and regional intellectual foundations Nicole CuUnjieng Aboitiz charts turn of the twentieth century Filipino thinkers and revolutionaries Asianist political organizing and proto national thought scrutinizing how their constructions of the place of Asia connected them to their regional neighbors She details their material and affective engagement with Pan Asianism tracing how colonized peoples in the periphery of this imagined Asia focusing on Filipinos but with comparison to the Vietnamese reformulated a political and intellectual project that envisioned anticolonial Asian solidarity with the Asian center of Japan CuUnjieng Aboitiz argues that the revolutionary First Philippine Republic s harnessing of transnational networks of support activism and association represents the crucial first instance of Pan Asianists lending material aid toward anticolonial revolution against a Western power Uncovering the Pan Asianism of the periphery and its critical role in shaping modern Asia Asian Place Filipino Nation offers a vital new perspective on the Philippine Revolution s global context and content Comparative History of India and Indonesia L. Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling, 1999 Volume 2 discusses Southeast Asia s interaction with foreign countries during the period c 1500 to c 1800 Legal Evolution and Political Authority in Indonesia Daniel Lev, 2021-10-25 For nearly forty years following the collapse of Indonesia s parliamentary system Indonesia s once independent legal institutions were transformed into dedicated instruments of a powerful elite and allowed to sink into a deep mire of corruption and malfeasance Legal process was devastated far beyond the capacity of any simple effort at reconstruction by post Suharto governments Indonesia s problems in this respect surpass those of other countries in the region compelled by economic crisis to re examine institutional structures The works reprinted in this collection constitute a case study over time of legal decay and the rise of reform interests in one of the most complex countries in the world Written during a period of more than thirty years beginning in the early 1960s the essays trace several themes in the legal history of modern Indonesia They make clear however that legal history is seldom that alone but rather like law itself is largely derivative fundamentally imbedded in the interest ideas purposes and contentions of local political social and economic power India and Indonesia ,1989

Becoming International Jens Bartelson,2023-10-26 When and how did the modern world become an international one Jens Bartelson a leading scholar of the history of international thought provides new answers to this question by analyzing how relations between polities have been conceptualized across different historical contexts from the sixteenth century to the present day A global intellectual history of the international system this book challenges the widespread assumption that this system emerged as a result of a transition from empires to states instead proposing that the international realm is but a continuation of imperial relations by other means Showing how the international system spread through the creative appropriation of European concepts of nation and state by non Europeans Bartelson argues that this system has taken on a life of its own to the point of becoming an empire in its own right The Politics of Indonesia-Malaysia Relations Joseph Chinyong Liow,2005 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the relationship between Indonesia and Malaysia focusing especially on how the relationship has developed in the last fifty years It argues that the political relationship between the two countries has been largely defined by rivalry despite the fact that the processes of national self determination began by emphasising Indo Malay fraternity It shows how the two countries have different contested interpretations of Indo Malay history and how the continuing suspicion of Javanese hegemony which defined much of the history of the Indo Malay world is also a key factor in the relationship Japan and Korea Frank Joseph Shulman,2013-10-23 First Published in 1971 This annotated bibliography of doctoral dissertations on Japan and Korea grew out of a decision to expand and bring up to date an earlier list entitled Unpublished Doctoral Dissertations Relating to Japan Accepted in the Universities of Australia Canada Great Britain and the United States 1946 1963 compiled by Peter Cornwall and issued by the Center for Japanese Studies in 1965 The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia: Volume 2, The Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Nicholas Tarling,1992 Southeast Asia has long been seen as a unity although other terms have been used to describe it Further India Little China the Nanyang The region has had a protracted maritime history Confucianism Buddhism Islam Hinduism Christianity are all represented It has seen a quintet of colonial powers Britain France The Netherlands Spain the United States Most recently it has become one of the fastest growing parts of the world economy The very term Southeast Asia is clearly more than a geographical expression The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia is a multi authored treatment of the whole of mainland and island Southeast Asia from Burma to Indonesia Unlike other histories of the region it is not divided on a country by country basis and is not structured purely chronologically but rather takes a thematic and regional approach to Southeast Asia s history This volume the second and final in the series takes us into the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from the late eighteenth century of the Christian era when most of the region was incorporated into European empires to the complexity and dramatic change of the post World War II period It covers the economic and social life as well as the religious and popular culture of the region as they develop over two centuries The political structures of the region are also closely examined from the insurgencies and rebellions of early this century to the modern Nationalist movements which challenged the control of the colonial powers and led to the formation of independent states Under the editorship of Nicholas Tarling Professor of History at the University of Auckland New Zealand each chapter is well integrated into the whole Professor Tarling has assembled a highly respected team of international scholars who have presented the latest historical research on the region and succeeded in producing a provocative and exciting account of the region's history late Sultan of Yogyakarta Special Province is revered by Indonesians as one of the great founders of the modern Indonesian state He leaves a positive but in some ways ambiguous legacy in political terms His most conspicuous achievement was the survival of hereditary Yogyakarta kingship and he provided rare stability and continuity in Indonesia's highly fractured modern history Under the New Order Hamengku Buwono also helped to launch the Indonesian economy on a much stronger growth path Although remembered as the epitome of a political decencye he faded from power and influence as Vice President in the 1970s and the repressive and anti democratic features of Suharto's New Order seemed to contradict much of what Hamengku Buwono originally stood for This biography seeks to explain his political standpoint motivations and achievements and set his career in the context of his times The Encyclopedia of the Cold War Spencer C.

Tucker,2007-09-12 A comprehensive five volume reference on the defining conflict of the second half of the 20th century covering all aspects of the Cold War as it influenced events around the world The conflict that dominated world events for nearly five decades is now captured in a multivolume work of unprecedented magnitude from a publisher widely acclaimed for its authoritative military and historical references Under the direction of internationally known military historian Spencer Tucker ABC CLIO s The Encyclopedia of the Cold War A Political Social and Military History offers the most current and comprehensive treatment ever published of the ideological conflict that not so long ago enveloped the globe From the Second World War to the collapse of the Soviet Union The Encyclopedia of the Cold War provides authoritative information on all military conflicts battlefield and surveillance technologies diplomatic initiatives important individuals and organizations national histories economic developments societal and cultural events and more The nearly 1 300 entries plus topical essays and an extraordinarily rich documents volume draw heavily on recently opened Russian Eastern European and Chinese archives The work is a definitive cornerstone reference on one of the most important historical topics of our time Shari'a and Social Engineering R. Michael Feener,2013-12-12 This book seeks to open new lines of discussion about how Islamic law is viewed as a potential tool for programs of social transformation in contemporary Muslim society It does this through a critical examination of the workings of the state shari a system as it was designed and implemented at the turn of the twenty first century in Aceh Indonesia While the empirical details of these discussions are unique this particular case presents a remarkable site for investigating the broader issue of the impact of instrumentalist future oriented visions of Islamic law on modern Muslim calls for the state implementation of Islamic law In post tsunami post conflict Aceh the idea of shari a as an exercise in social engineering was amplified through resonance with an increasingly pervasive rhetoric of total reconstruction Based upon extensive fieldwork as well as critical readings of a wide range of archival materials official documents and local publications this work focuses on the institutions and actors involved with this contemporary project for the state implementation of Islamic law The individual chapters are structured to deal with the major components of this system to critically examine how these institutions have taken shape and how they work It also shows how the overall system was informed not only by aspects of late twentieth century da wa discourses of Islamic reform but also modern trends in sociological jurisprudence and the impact of global models of disaster relief reconstruction and development All of these streams of influence have contributed significantly to shaping the ways in which the architects and agents of the state shari a system have attempted to use Islamic legislation and legal institutions as tools to steer society in particular desired directions

Encountering Islam Hui Yew-Foong,2003-08-01 This volume seeks to introduce and deepen the understanding of Islam and its role in politics as encountered in different national and transnational contexts in Southeast Asia eschewing the neo orientalist approach that has informed public discourse in recent years In Encountering Islam the book lingers beyond the summary moment and reflects on the multiple impressions suppressions and repressions whether coherent or incoherent associated with Islam as a socio political force in public life To this end it is not adequate simply to represent the divergent identities associated with Islam in Southeast Asia whether embedded in state endorsed orthodoxy or Islamic movements that contest such orthodoxy It is also important to examine religious minorities in political contexts where Islam is dominant and Muslim communities in national contexts where they are minorities By situating these religious identities within their larger socio political contexts this volume seeks to provide a more holistic understanding of what is encountered as Islam in Southeast Asia
