Driving by Memory William L. Fox,1999 Road trips to Las Vegas are the occasion for this entertaining meditation on the quintessentially American experience of driving across the desert William Fox successively exiled from California Nevada and New Mexico has spent more time than most of us driving to Las Vegas and he has taken notes on three recent trips his own way of bringing cohesion to the vast and mind numbing aspects of the freeway Approaching the most postmodern city on the planet from three directions he examines the landscape and what we do to it while also trying to figure out who he is what that means and the nature of the transformations of land into landscape through art and architecture landscape design and advertising Fox s history of the region both natural and cultural highlights the creep of the urban supergrid across the most extensively traveled desert in the world This is a profoundly personal even idiosyncratic book about the most public of subjects living in the postmodern West at the end of the millennium and what the cities the freeways the open spaces and the billboards tell us about ourselves

The Politics of Public Memory Martha K. Norkunas,1993-01-01 This book examines American public culture and the means by which communities in the U S reconstruct the past and reinterpret the present in the development of tourism Norkunas shows how public culture is not confined to just museums or monuments but can be constructed on many different levels and in different settings such as community ethnicity natural setting environment literary landscape and history In her case study of Monterey the author explores the particular ideologies that prompt the community to represent itself in tourism and that also act to legitimate the current social structure

Mountains Of Memory Don Scheese,2001-11 In Mountains of Memory seasoned wilderness dweller Don Scheese charts a long season of watching for and fighting fires in Idaho s River of No Return Wilderness 151the largest federal wilderness area in the mainland United States An inspiring tale of self discovery Mountains of Memory paints a complex portrait of the natural institutional and historical forces that have shaped the great forested landscapes of the American West A student of nature writing as well as a fire lookout with over a decade of experience Scheese recounts his life at the top of the world along with daring adventures such as backpacking and mountaineering in the Bighorn Crags and kayaking down the Middle Fork of the Salmon River All the while he touches upon the mysterious and powerful realities of the wilderness around him and stunning dawns visible within the glass cage perched on a 9 000 foot mountain stirring flashes of lightning visible all around the dark landscape as the radio crackles with reports of strikes observed and fires spotted long awaited trips down the mountain to civilization for cold beer and hot pizza In the tradition of Edward Abbey and Gary Snyder Don Scheese offers readers a meditation on the meaning and value of wilderness at the beginning of the twenty first century

A Disposition to Be Rich Geoffrey C. Ward,2013-04-23 A New York Times Notable Book The compelling behind the scenes story of the greatest swindler of the Gilded Age whose villainy bankrupted Ulysses S Grant and stunned the world of finance told by his great grandson award winning historian Geoffrey C Ward Ferdinand Ward the son of a Protestant missionary and small town pastor moved to New York at twenty one and in less than a decade made himself the business partner of a former president and established himself as the Young Napoleon of Finance In truth he was running a massive pyramid scheme Drawing from thousands of family documents never before examined Geoffrey C Ward traces his great grandfather s rapid rise to riches and fame and his even more dizzying fall from grace in a narrative populated with mistresses crooked bankers corrupt New York officials and a desperate kidnapping scheme Here is a great story about a classic American con artist

Growing Up in Burbank: Boomer Memories from The Akron to Zody Wesley H. Clark and Michael B. McDaniel, 2017-11-27 Life in Burbank during the 60s and 70s was an unparalleled experience From biking Lucky Busters trail to enjoying movies at the Cornell Theater and shopping at The Akron Burbankers choices of entertainment seemed endless Relive fond memories of dining out at Genio s the Dip or Santoro s Recall visits to the Golden Mall before heading home to watch Dark Shadows on television While some of the local icons may have changed the spirit has remained the same and it s waiting to be rediscovered Authors Wes Clark and Mike McDaniel guide you through their hometown and remember the fads the hijinks and the places that made Burbank the place it is today

Mystic Chords of Memory Michael Kammen, 2011-08-17 Mystic Chords of Memory Illustrated with hundreds of well chosen anecdotes and minute observations Kammen is a demon researcher who seems to have mined his nuggets from the entire corpus of American cultural history insightful and sardonic Washington Post Book World In this ground breaking panoramic work of American cultural history the Pulitzer Prize winning author of A Machine That Would Go of Itself examines a central paradox of our national identity How did the land of the future acquire a past And to what extent has our collective memory of that past as embodied in our traditions have been distorted or even manufactured Ranging from John Adams to Ronald Reagan from the origins of Independence Day celebrations to the controversies surrounding the Vietnam War Memorial from the Daughters of the American Revolution to immigrant associations and filled with incisive analyses of such phenomena as Americana and its collectors historic villages and Disneyland Mystic Chords of Memory is a brilliant immensely readable and enormously important book Fascinating a subtle and teeming narrative masterly Time This is a big ambitious book and Kammen pulls it off admirably He brings a prodigious mind and much scholarly rigor to his task an important book and a revealing look at how Americans look at themselves Milwaukee Journal

Memory Battles of the Spanish Civil War Sebastiaan Faber, 2021-04-30 The ability to forget the violent twentieth century past was long seen as a virtue in Spain even a duty But the common wisdom has shifted as increasing numbers of Spaniards want to know what happened who suffered and who is to blame Memory Battles of the Spanish Civil War shows how historiography fiction and photography have shaped our views of the 1936-39 war and its long painful aftermath Faber traces the curious trajectories of iconic Spanish Civil War photographs by Robert Capa Gerda Taro and David Seymour critically reads a dozen recent Spanish novels and essays interrogates basic scholarly assumptions about history memory and literature and interviews nine scholars activists and documentarians who in the past decade and a half have helped redefine Spain's relationship to its past In this book Faber argues that recent political developments in Spain from the grassroots call for the recovery of historical memory to the indignados movement and the foundation of Podemos provide an opportunity for scholars in the humanities to engage in a more activist public and democratic practice
