The Territorial Divisions, 1914-1918 John Stirling, 1922 The Territorial Divisions, 1914-1918 (Classic Reprint) J. Stirling, 2017-11-23 Excerpt from The Territorial Divisions 1914 1918 It is doubtful if Britain ever quite realised what it owed to the Territorials who went abroad before the New Armies were ready Apart from the four divisions which went to the East in the autumn of 1914 thus allowing the Indian Corps to be brought to France the Territorial strength in France alone in April 1915 before the second great struggle at Ypres broke out probably exceeded that of the British Army at Mons and it is by no means certain that the ten Regular divisions plus two Indian divisions and one Canadian could have held the great gas attack About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Territorial Divisions 1914-1918 J Stirling, 2020-07-07 A very useful work by an gifted compiler it gives the outline histories of every Territorial division both first and second line with lists of the operations in which they took part The Territorial Force was established on 1 April 1908 as a volunteer auxiliary to the British Army It was formed by the amalgamation of the former auxiliary institutions of the Volunteer Force and the yeomanry Designed primarily as a home defence force its members could not be compelled to serve overseas unless they volunteered to do so On the outbreak of the First World War in 1914 many did The first units were deployed piecemeal in support of the regular army as it defended against the opening German offensive in Belgium and France in 1914 The first territorial divisions to be deployed were used to free up imperial garrisons overseas but in 1915 they began to be deployed to the front lines on the Western Front and at Gallipoli The pre war territorial divisions were numbered in May 1915 in order of their deployment As they were deployed second line divisions were raised to replace them at home and in 1916 these began to be deployed to combat zones By the end of the war in 1918 the Territorial Force had provided 28 divisions and 14 mounted brigades The Territorial Divisions, 1914-1918 John Stirling, 2023-12-08 The Territorial Divisions 1914 1918 is a classical and a rare book that has been considered important throughout the human history and so that this work is never forgotten we at Alpha Editions have made efforts in its preservation by republishing this book in a modern format for present and future generations This whole book has been reformatted retyped and redesigned These books are not made of scanned copies of their original work and hence their text is clear and readable This remarkable volume falls within the genres of History General and Eastern Hemisphere World War I 1914 1918 The Territorial Divisions, 1914-1918. By J. Stirling Great Britain. Army. Territorial Army, 1922 History of the 53rd (Welsh) Division (T.F.), 1914-1918 Charles Humble

Dudley Ward,1927 The 56th Division: 1914-1918 Major C.H. Dudley Ward,2012-03-29 This is the history of a pre war TF division the 1st London Division It had the unhappy experience of being broken up right at the beginning of the war to provide reinforcements elsewhere By the beginning of 1915 the division had ceased to exist but in January 1916 it was reconstituted in France and numbered 56th Its first major engagement was the unsuccessful diversionary attack at Gommecourt on 1 July 1916 which resulted in 4 749 casualties The division remained on the Somme till October and in the following year fought in the 1917 Arras offensive and again at Cambrai In the German March 1918 offensive the 56th formed the right flank of First Army NE of Arras where alongside 4th Division it faced seven German divisions in the Mars offensive the German advance here was checked By the end of the war the division had suffered 34 809 casualties This account is by an author with a reputation as a writer of regimental and divisional histories and his experience as a regimental and staff officer in the war show clearly There is an excellent appendix providing details on order of battle commanders staff and units and the changes with dates The History of the 51st (Highland) Division, 1914-1918 Frederick William

Bewsher,1921 If it were possible for the General who for three years commanded all the British Divisions in France and was served with equal gallantry devotion and success by each to admit a predilection for any of them my affection would naturally turn to the Division that drew so many of its recruits from the same part of Scotland where my boyhood was spent and my own people lived Those who read the pages of this book will find therein a tale of patient endeavour and glorious achievement of which I claim a good right to be as proud as any of my fellow countrymen The 51st Division does not need to boast of its prowess or its record It can point to the story of its deeds plainly and simply told and leave the world to judge
