at the trauma inflicted on Italians not simply as national or cultural traumas but rather as the creation identification of subnational and transnational communities shaped by these trauma cases The term subnational or transnational community is used mostly in reference to human beings as they form those communities however they are also connected to a specific place namely Italy In addition whereas things cannot become traumatized this book also considers living things such as the environment and the nature which may create further trauma s for people The Rescue of Belsen's Diamond Children Bettine Siertsema,2022-08-11 This book uncovers the history of a group of Jewish workers and merchants in the Amsterdam diamond industry during the Holocaust They and their families were exempt from deportation for a long time but were eventually deported to Bergen Belsen In the end almost all of the men perished and the women barely survived slave labour Their children were left to die in the camp but were miraculously saved by the intervention of a Jewish Polish woman nurse Luba The main sources on which this book is based are video testimonies of the surviving members of this group personal interviews minutes of interviews taken down in shorthand shortly after the war and personal documents such as letters archival documents and autobiographical books Holocaust Intersections Axel Bangert,2017-07-05 Recent representations of the Holocaust have increasingly required us to think beyond rigid demarcations of nation and history medium and genre Holocaust Intersections sets out to investigate the many points of conjunction between these categories in recent images of genocide The book examines transnational constellations in Holocaust cinema and television in Europe disclosing instances of border crossing and boundary troubling at levels of production distribution and reception It highlights intersections between film genres through intertextuality and pastiche and the deployment of audiovisual Holocaust memory and testimony Finally the volume addresses connections between the Holocaust and other histories of genocide in the visual culture of the new millennium engaging with the questions of transhistoricity and intercultural perspective Drawing on a wide variety of different media from cinema and television to installation art and the internet and on the most recent scholarship on responses to the Holocaust the volume aims to update our understanding of how visual culture looks at the Holocaust and genocide today With the contributions Robert S C Gordon Axel Bangert Libby Saxton Introduction Emiliano Perra Between National and Cosmopolitan 21st Century Holocaust Television in Britain France and Italy Judith Keilbach Title to be announced Laura Rascaroli Transits Thinking at the Junctures of Images in Harun Farocki's Respite and Arnaud des Pallieres's Drancy Avenir Maxim Silverman Haneke and the Camps Barry Langford Globalising the Holocaust Fantasies of Annihilation in Contemporary Media Culture Ferzina Banaji The Nazi Killin Business A Post Modern Pastiche of the Holocaust Matilda Mroz Neighbours Polish Jewish Relations in Contemporary Polish Visual Culture Berber Hagedoorn Holocaust Representation in the Multi Platform TV Documentaries De Oorlog The War and 13 in de Oorlog 13 in the War Annette Hamilton Cambodian Genocide Ethics and Aesthetics in the Cinema of Rithy Panh Piotr Cieplak Emma Wilson The Afterlife of Images Unruly Penelopes and the Ghosts Eva Darias-Beutell,2012-08-06 This collection of essays studies

the cultural and literary contexts of narrative texts produced in English Canada over the last forty years. It takes as its starting point the nationalist movement of the 1960s and 70s when the supposed absence or weakness of a national sense became the touchstone for official discourses on the cultural identity of the country. That type of metaphor provided the nation with the distinctive elements it was looking for and contributed to the creation of a sense of tradition that has survived to the present. In the decades following the 1970s, however, critics, artists, and writers have repeatedly questioned such a model of national identity still fragile and in need of articulation by reading the nation from alternative perspectives such as multiculturalism, environmentalism, neo-regionalism, feminism, or postcolonialism. These contributors suggest that the artistic and cultural flowering Canada is experiencing at the beginning of the twenty-first century is to a great extent based on the dismantlement of the images constructed to represent the nation only forty years ago. Through their readings of representative primary texts, their contextual analysis, and their selected methodological tools, the authors offer a tapestry of alternative approaches to that process of dismantlement. Together they read as an unruly Penelopiad, their unravelling readings self-consciously interrogating Canada's lack of ghosts.

A Companion to Textile Culture Jennifer

Harris, 2020-08-17. A lively and innovative collection of new and recent writings on the cultural contexts of textiles. The study of textile culture is a dynamic field of scholarship which spans disciplines and crosses traditional academic boundaries. A Companion to Textile Culture is an expertly curated compendium of new scholarship on both the historical and contemporary cultural dimensions of textiles, bringing together the work of an interdisciplinary team of recognized experts in the field. The Companion provides an expansive examination of textiles within the broader area of visual and material culture and addresses key issues central to the contemporary study of the subject. A wide range of methodological and theoretical approaches to the subject are explored: technological, anthropological, philosophical, and psychoanalytical, amongst others, and developments that have influenced academic writing about textiles over the past decade are discussed in detail. Uniquely, the text embraces archaeological textiles from the first millennium AD as well as contemporary art and performance work that is still ongoing. This authoritative volume offers a balanced presentation of writings from academics, artists, and curators. Presents writings from disciplines including histories of art and design, world history, anthropology, archaeology, and literary studies. Covers an exceptionally broad chronological and geographical range. Provides diverse global, transnational, and narrative perspectives. Included numerous images throughout the text to illustrate key concepts. A Companion to Textile Culture is an essential resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students, instructors, and researchers of textile history, contemporary textiles, art, and design, visual and material culture, textile crafts, and museology.

Doing Educational Research, 2015-01-01. In the second edition of Doing Educational Research, we explore a variety of critical issues and methodologies. Authors include some of the most influential voices selected from across the spectrum of career disciplines. The scholars provide detailed insights into dimensions of the research process that engage both students and experienced researchers with key concepts and recent innovations in the art of doing research The contributors adopt a stance that is practical as it introduces beginning scholars to social inquiry and innovative as it transforms the boundaries of conversations about educational research Doing Educational Research appears at a critical moment in which educational researchers are pushed to align with a pervasive scientism that embraces tenets of crypto positivism The book addresses logics of inquiry underpinning cutting edge approaches to educational research that extend far beyond limited visions that are presented through the lenses of positivism The chapters explore a variety of methodologies including action research bricolage ethnography hermeneutics historiography media based research psychoanalysis and conversation analysis in a matrix of social theory authentic inquiry critical pedagogy and differences in epistemology ontology and axiology A diverse array of complex topics are presented in accessible forms and will compel both scholars and students

Feeling Power Megan Boler, 2004-11-23 First published in 1999 Megan Boler combines cultural history with ethical and multicultural analyses to explore how emotions have been disciplined suppressed or ignored at all levels of education and in educational theory FEELING POWER charts the philosophies and practices developed over the last century to control social conflicts arising from gender class and race The book traces the development of progressive pedagogies from civil rights and feminist movements to Boler's own recent studies of emotional intelligence and emotional literacy Drawing on the formulation of emotion as knowledge within feminist psychobiological and post structuralist theories Boler develops a unique theory of emotion missing from contemporary educational discourses

Climate Trauma E. Ann Kaplan, 2015-12-04 Each month brings new scientific findings that demonstrate the ways in which human activities from resource extraction to carbon emissions are doing unprecedented perhaps irreparable damage to our world As we hear these climate change reports and their predictions for the future of Earth many of us feel a sickening sense of déjà vu as though we have already seen the sad outcome to this story Drawing from recent scholarship that analyzes climate change as a form of slow violence that humans are inflicting on the environment Climate Trauma theorizes that such violence is accompanied by its own psychological condition what its author terms Pretraumatic Stress Disorder Examining a variety of films that imagine a dystopian future renowned media scholar E Ann Kaplan considers how the increasing ubiquity of these works has exacerbated our sense of impending dread But she also explores ways these films might help us productively engage with our anxieties giving us a seemingly prophetic glimpse of the terrifying future selves we might still work to avoid becoming Examining dystopian classics like Soylent Green alongside more recent examples like The Book of Eli Climate Trauma also stretches the limits of the genre to include features such as Blindness The Happening Take Shelter and a number of documentaries on climate change These eclectic texts allow Kaplan to outline the typical blind spots of the genre which rarely depicts climate catastrophe from the vantage point of women or minorities Lucidly synthesizing cutting edge research in media studies
