Husserl in Contemporary Context B.C. Hopkins, 2013-03-14 James F Sheridan Allegheny College As we come to the end of the century an attentive student of contemporary European philosophy will no doubt be startled by a volume titled Husserl in Contemporary Context Such philosophers are most likely to believe that Husserl has now been declared II classical rather than a contemporary thinker or worse simply old fashioned Access to Husserl today will most likely come through the allegedly definitive critiques of his work by Heidegger and Derrida and to a lesser extent through the readings of his work by Levinas and Merleau Ponty although Merleau Ponty himself has been declared old fashioned by some postmoderns Hence if by II contemporary one understands the problematic set by the work of the late Heidegger Derrida Foucault et al Husserl's work seems strange indeed in such a contemporary context seems better understood as the last gasp of philosophy dominated by metaphysics and thus fit only for inclusion in courses in the history of philosophy
