Written Expression Disorders N. Gregg, 2012-12-06 A critical review of the literature on written expression disorders of individuals with learning disabilities The purpose of the book is to shed light on issues concerning definition assessment and interaction for individuals with writing disorders The integrated model of written expression offered draws on the work of cognitive psychology neurolinguistics and sociolinguistics The model illustrates the interrelationship between cognitive and affective processing networks that influence the selection and use of linguistics and information structures in producing a written text Particularly noteworthy aspects of this book are the emphasis on the role of writing in developing higher mental functions other texts on writing disorders have placed greater emphasis on lower order aspects not only the addition and integration of the sociolinguistic dimension into the model of writing but also the inclusion of guidelines for assessing this dimension specification of needed research in which both populations and tasks have been carefully defined and finally notice of the importance of a continuum for defining assessing and treating each component of written expression This state of the art work on disorders of writing is of interest to both researchers and clinicians concerned with written expression disorders in children and or adults Advanced Data Mining and Applications Quan Z. Sheng, Gill Dobbie, Jing Jiang, Xuyun Zhang, Wei Emma Zhang, Yannis Manolopoulos, Jia Wu, Wathiq Mansoor, Congbo Ma, 2024-12-12 This six volume set LNAI 15387 15392 constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 20th International Conference on Advanced Data Mining and Applications ADMA 2024 held in Sydney New South Wales Australia during December 3 5 2024 The 159 full papers presented here were carefully reviewed and selected from 422 submissions These papers have been organized under the following topical sections across the different volumes Part I Applications Data mining Part II Data mining foundations and algorithms Federated learning Knowledge graph Part III Graph mining Spatial data mining Part IV Health informatics Part V Multi modal Natural language processing Part VI Recommendation systems Security and privacy issues Encore Tricolore Nouvelle 2 Teacher's Book Sylvia Honnor, Heather Mascie-Taylor, 2001 This course features a rigorous and comprehensive approach to grammar progression with clear explanations and extensive practice motivating and challenging topics and tasks set in authentic contexts to enable students to reach their full potential clear and attractively designed pages with humorous and stimulating artwork user friendly vocabulary and grammar reference sections to encourage independent learning and end of unit summaries to provide a clear learning framework Community Series in Mental Illness, Culture, and Society: Dealing with the COVID-19 Pandemic, volume VIII Mohammadreza Shalbafan, Samer El Hayek, Renato de Filippis, 2024-06-21 The COVID 19 outbreak has impacted many areas of our lives including mental health Lockdown and physical distancing measures have been one major effective intervention to counter the spread of the virus and reduce the impact of the disease However they have negatively impacted mental well being and behaviors either triggering the onset of new psychiatric symptoms and diseases or amplifying pre existing ones The pandemic and lockdown measures have also been associated with reduced access to treatment and facilities all over the world further worsening mental health outcomes. The impact on mental health although universal varied between nations. Cultural and societal variables including norms, values, religion, and stigma have played an important role in shaping COVID-19 related mental health symptoms including anxiety, depression, grief, psychosis, and addiction. These sociocultural factors have also molded how mental health interventions are tailored and provided. Highlighting the intertwining relationship between the pandemic mental health and sociocultural factors are essential to managing emerging mental health symptoms adequately.

Reading-to-Write Linda Flower, Victoria Stein, John Ackerman, Margaret J. Kantz, Kathleen McCormick, Wayne C. Peck, 1990-09-20. The Social and Cognitive Studies in Writing and Literacy Series is devoted to books that bridge research theory and practice exploring social and cognitive processes in writing and expanding our knowledge of literacy as an active constructive process as students move from high school to college. This descriptive study of reading to write examines a critical point in every college student's academic performance when he or she is faced with the task of reading a source, integrating personal ideas, and creating an individual text with a self-defined purpose. Offering an unusually comprehensive view of this process, the authors chart a group of freshmen as they study and write in their dormitories, recording their think-aloud strategies for reading, writing, and revising their interpretation of the task and their broader social, cultural, and contextual understanding of college writing. Flower, Stein, and colleagues convincingly conclude that the legacy of schooling in general makes the transition to college difficult and more important that the assumptions students hold and the strategies they use in undertaking this task play a significant role in their academic performance. Embracing a broad range of perspectives from rhetoric, composition, literacy research, literary and cultural theory, and cognitive psychology, this rigorous analysis treats reading to write as both a cognitive and social process. It will interest researchers and theoreticians in rhetoric and writing, teachers working with students in transition from high school to college, and educators involved in the links between cognition and the social process.

Import Competition and Response Jagdish Bhagwati, 2009-02-15. These papers by a number of leading international trade theorists present the first significant theoretical work to be done on a topic of considerable interest: import competition. Nine theoretical papers on topics ranging from protectionist lobbying to adjustment costs are synthesized in the editor's Introduction, which also contrasts these contributions with the traditional classroom analysis of import competition. Three major empirical studies close the volume. It will prove indispensable for anyone who wishes to think clearly about import competition and about how economies do and should respond to it.
