Preparing Better Consultants Susan Adams, Alberto Zanzi, 2011-12-01 Pearls of Wisdom Stephen G. Haines, 2004 This volume focuses on a relatively neglected area of management consulting the education of consultants In today s business world we find training programs provided by consultancies certification programs provided by professional organizations on the job training of consultants with formal or informal supervision self taught professionals and some academic programs and courses Is that enough No better consultants are needed to handle the complexity and changing nature of business Academe is in the best position to provide the critical thinking preparation necessary Yet academic institutions have been slow in embracing this challenge The role of academia needs to grow in magnitude and in certain directions that educate consultants beyond industry training practices Chapter authors provide examples of innovative programs topical approaches for courses and thoughtful reflections on the role academia can play in preparing better consultants There are lessons for business schools consultancies and aspiring and practicing consultants Management Consulting International Labour Office, 2002 New topics covered in this edition include e business consulting in knowledge management total quality management corporate governance social role and responsibility of business company transformation and renewal and public administration Training and Development Yearbook, 2000 Carolyn Nilson, 2000 This comprehensive guide to current training literature and resources is now in its sixth edition It features the best full length articles from leading publications plus abstracts of hundreds of other articles all thoroughly indexed for easy retrieval and use
