The Bold Brave and Fearless Tejwant Singh,2003 Prologue The two pairs of soldiers walking on the pavement came face to face about fifty yards away from each other The Indian soldiers were from a local Infantry Battalion of the Sikh Regiment The British Soldiers were from the CMP short for Corps of Military Police commonly called the MPs The Indians looked at each other and realized that the situation was of one pair being on the right side or the wrong side of the road They made up their minds individually Said the first one to his friend The bloody Goras the Whiteman is called a Gora are on the wrong side Why should we get down to the road from the pavement His friend replied with emphasis That s right Why should we After a pause he added with more conviction We shall see today The Firangies foreigners don t enforce the same rule with British troops Let s see them today We can bear the consequences later said the first one with emphasis Both the Indians braced up Raising their heads they walked as though fully prepared for the confrontation which was by then just thirty yards away and approaching fast The MPs also raised their chins Without looking at each other they exchanged words Said the taller one to his slim friend Those damn Indians are right in our way I think we ought to give them a good dressing down if they don't get down from the pavement Bloody right mate They should not have been here in the first place said the slim one while transferring his right hand to the grip of his cane and removing it from under his left armpit Instinctively his left hand went to his right pocket and unbuttoned the flap so that he could pull out the whistle quickly That was like a routine drill movement for any MP when he realized the need to blow the whistle mainly as a warning to a defaulter and also to alert others of his profession By then both the pairs were about ten yards apart The Indians showed no sign of relenting and the MPs thought they had a duty to perform Seeing the cane being transferred to the right hand the second Indian muttered to his friend He may hit one of us That is my gut feeling If he dares This puny fellow had it today I'll cut him to pieces said the first one in the same low tone muttered through his clenched teeth Punjabi language can be very forceful when it comes to emphasising a point as was the Pushtu language of the local Pathans tribals since they were neighbors As the distance between the pairs became less their speed of paces slowed down The Indians had made up their mind to confront the MPs Since a Sikh never starts a fight they were waiting for action from the Goras The two MPs were slightly taken aback at the audacity of the Sikh soldiers By then they were just a yard apart The pavement at that point was slightly wide Both the Sikhs tried to stay on the pavement and made way for the Policemen by edging closer to the hedge The first one was on the right of second one and thus closer to the British The MPs reluctantly edged towards the road while definitely staying on the pavement The aim was to stay on the pavement The slim one was on the right of the tall one and thus closer to the first Indian As he came next to them his face turned red with disdain seeing the damn Indians conveniently edging towards the hedge thus taking up a slightly higher and superior position rather than give way to the British masters by stepping down on to the low road That was a challenge to the self respect of

M., the Apostle & the Evangelist - Volume 14 Swami Nityatmananda, 2020-07-10 Swami Nityatmananda lived in the company of Sri M for a long time maintained a diary and elaborated it in sixteen parts of Sri Ma Darshan The book is also available in English under the title M the Apostle the Evangelist All the sixteen parts are available in Bengali too It is a continuation of the Kathamrita This work is the result of twenty years of hard and incessant work and tapasya on the banks of the Ganga in Rishikesh in the Himalayas In this series of 16 volumes the reader is brought in close touch with the life and teachings of Sri Ramakrishna family Thakur Swamiji Holy Mother M Swami Shivananda Swami Abhedananda and others And there is the elucidation according to Sri Ramakrishna's line of thought of the Upanishads the Gita the Bible Guru Granth Sahib the Holy Quran and other scriptures The third specialty of this work is the commentary on the Gospel of Sri Ramakrishna by the author himself Says Swami Shraddhananda One wonders at the unusual capacity of Swami Nityatmananda in recording these day to day conversations of this Vyasadeva of our time M and later developing his notes into his masterly work One cannot fail to discover the special training he received from Sri M himself in this direction while he was serving as a teacher in M's school and living with him for years

When he read it Swami Jagadananda remarked The author has presented M s words lifelike After reading his Kathamrita a study of this book will throw new light on the Kathamrita There is no doubt about it The great American and senior sadhu Swami Atulananda wrote This book may serve a double purpose To those who are acquainted with M s Kathamrita it may be welcome as a companion volume and to those not yet acquainted with the Kathamrita it may arouse a desire to make that acquaintance For this book which is a record of M s talks with his admirers about his reminiscences not only reveals new facts about the life of Sri Ramakrishna but throws new light on that wonderful life Swami Virajananda the late President of Sri Ramakrishna Math and Mission heard the manuscript read to him by his Secretary when he visited Dehradun for the last time and he was delighted to hear it He told to the author What a wonderful thing you have written Why didn t you show it to me earlier Never mind now go and finish the writing Human life is so uncertain If you complete the writing itself publication can be taken up by others Ah The move is as dramatic as the subject is sublime The Rámáyana of Tulsi Dás
