Bleakley, 1999-11-26 Animals appear not just as biological creatures but as vehicles of meaning for human imagination mind and culture Animal life may form the basis for an animalizing imagination that can enhance our cultural religious and aesthetic sensibilities This imagination is rooted in the pre modern affective relationship between shamans and their familiars but can be tracked to our post modern ecological crisis where we can reclaim a totemic identification with animals as signifiers of a new ecological understanding A Jungian Inquiry into the American Psyche Ipek S. Burnett, 2019-07-23 In A Jungian Inquiry into the American Psyche The Violence of Innocence Ipek Burnett's penetrating cultural criticism enriched with psychoanalytical and Jungian insight offers a timely interrogation of national consciousness in the United States Through evocative storytelling Burnett unpacks the images and myths that run deep in the American psyche from that of the New World the city upon a hill to the Manifest Destiny the melting pot and the pursuit of happiness Against this backdrop she investigates the vicious cycles of innocence and violence that have dominated American history and continue to reinforce systematic oppression in America evident in racial and economic inequality xenophobia materialism and more Burnett's thought provoking analysis exposes the ways in which psychological defenses such as historical amnesia projection denial and dissociation work on a collective level helping America avoid a confrontation with these violent truths of its past and present circumstances and its national character With its seamless multidisciplinary
