The "Inscrutably Chinese" Church Nathan Faries, 2010-09-23 The first half of the twenty first century promises to be a time of great change for the Christian church in the People's Republic of China. The situation is complex and fluid and the information gap between those on the inside and those outside of China is still significant though shrinking. The Inscrutably Chinese Church moves readers nearer to the Chinese Christian experience as Nathan Faries helps foreign readers to see with greater clarity just how Chinese Christians view their government and themselves in relation to those ruling powers. There still exists a measure of inscrutability about China and its complex relationship with religion that must be explained to the outsider. It is this gap in understanding between insider points of view within China and those outsiders seeking knowledge about the Christian faith in China that Faries seeks to close.

The Breath of a Wok Grace Young, Alan Richardson, 2013-06-25 Award winning author Grace Young celebrates and demystifies the art of wok cooking for the Western home cook. When Grace Young was a child her father instilled in her a lasting appreciation of wok hay, the highly prized but elusive taste that food achieves when properly stir fried in a wok. As an adult Young aspired to create that taste in her own kitchen. Grace Young's quest to master wok cooking led her throughout the United States, Hong Kong and mainland China. Along with award winning photographer Alan Richardson Young sought the advice of home cooks, professional chefs and esteemed culinary teachers like Cecilia Chiang, Florence Lin and Ken Hom. Their instructions, stories and recipes gathered in this richly designed and illustrated volume offer not only expert lessons in the art of wok cooking but also capture a beautiful and timeless way of life. With its emphasis on cooking with all the senses The Breath of a Wok brings the techniques and flavors of old world wok cooking into today's kitchen, enabling anyone to stir fry with wok hay. IACP award winner Young details the fundamentals of selecting seasoning and caring for a wok as well as the range of the wok's uses. This surprisingly inexpensive utensil serves as the ultimate multipurpose kitchen tool. The 125 recipes are a testament to the versatility of the wok with stir fried, smoked, pan fried, braised, boiled, poached, steamed and deep fried dishes that include not only the classics of wok cooking like Kung Pao Chicken and Moo Shoo Pork but also unusual dishes like Sizzling Pepper and Salt Shrimp, Three Teacup Chicken and Scallion and Ginger Lo Mein. Young's elegant prose and Richardson's extraordinary photographs create a unique and unforgettable picture of artisan wok makers in mainland China, street markets in Hong Kong and a wok a thon in which Young's family of aunts, uncles and cousins cooks together in a lively exchange of recipes and stories. A visit with author Amy Tan also becomes a family event when Tan and her sisters prepare New Year's dumplings. Additionally there are menus for family style meals and for Chinese New Year festivities, an illustrated glossary and a source guide to purchasing ingredients, woks and accessories. Written with the intimacy of a memoir and the immediacy of a travelogue, this recipe rich volume is a celebration of cultural and culinary delights.
