

The book cover features a detailed black and white illustration of a large, multi-story house with a gabled roof, surrounded by dense foliage and trees. The house has several windows and a central entrance. In the center of the entrance, three children are peeking out from behind a yellow curtain. The title is written in a stylized, bold font across the top of the house, and the author's name is in a smaller font below it. The overall theme is spooky and playful, consistent with the title.
