Suicide And The Inner Voice Risk Assessment Treatment And Case Management:

Suicide and the Inner Voice Robert W. Firestone, 1997-05-30 What internal factors cause a person to end his or her life and what are the familial and societal factors which seem to make a destructive contribution The answers to both questions are at the heart of this volume which will be invaluable for practitioners when assessing risk and designing treatment for depressed and suicidal patients The author argues that the key to understanding suicidal behaviour comes from a knowledge of the destructive thought processes of those at risk and an awareness of their origins in early family interactions Firestone sees negative events in our lives as being less harmful than what we tell ourselves about them which can result in a downward spiral of negative internal conversations Wi Behavioral Neurobiology of Suicide and Self Harm Enrique Baca-Garcia, 2020-12-21 This book reviews the recent research into biological aspects of suicide behavior and outlines each of the varied recent approaches to prevent suicide Suicidal behavior perhaps is the most complex behavior that combines biological social and psychological factors A new frontier and new opportunities are opening with the technologies of data acquisition and data analysis Personalized models based on digital phenotype could provide promising strategies for preventing suicide The Self Under Siege Robert Firestone, Lisa A. Firestone, Joyce Catlett, 2013 Noted clinical psychologist Robert Firestone and his co authors explore the struggle that all of us face in striving to retain a sense of ourselves as unique individuals What Is Democracy? Alain Touraine, David Macey, 1997-04-04 In this sequel to A Critique of Modernity Alain Touraine questions the social and cultural content of democracy today At a time when state power is being increasingly eroded by the economic might of transnational capital what possible value can we ascribe to a democratic idea that is defined merely as a set of guarantees against the totalitarian state If democracy is to survive in the postcommunist world Touraine argues it must accomplish two urgent goals It must somehow protect the power of the nation state at the same time as it limits that power for only the state has sufficient means to counterbalance the global corporate wielders of money and information and it must reconcile social diversity with social unity and individual liberty with integration This is not merely a philosophical problem but a dilemma whose resolution will dramatically affect the immediate future of people everywhere If we want a resolution in democracy's favor then it is time in Touraine's view for us to redefine democracy in terms of active intervention rather than mere passive institution To preserve the power and effectiveness of our states and societies we must make visible strides and soon away from a politics of particularity and toward the integration and balancing of women and minorities of immigrants of rich and poor If our states become too weakened too debased by the politics of competing identities and interest groups we will one day find ourselves without the means to protect the very values we believe we are fighting to uphold Katie's Diary David Lester, 2004-03 Katie's Diary is a unique analysis of the diary left behind by a young woman who has committed suicide As compared to suicide notes which are typically brief Katie's diary consists of five separate books an opportunity to look into the mind of a suicide from a source of data that is extraordinarily rare Commenting on the diary are professionals in the fields of suicidology linguistics women s studies Jungian analysis and voice therapy among others Suicidal themes that prevail in her writing are discussed as well as potential treatment methods in the hopes that the study will contribute to suicide prevention

Counselling Suicidal Clients Andrew Reeves,2010-02-16 I have worked in psychiatry as well as in private practice with suicidal people I found it poignant and true when Reeves points out that people do not have to be mad to be suicidal and that assessing suicide potential fundamentally lies in engaging with the suicidal client at a deeper relational level So true This thoroughly researched book is written with passion and compassion It will be a valuable addition to the libraries of therapists and anyone else who works with suicidal people Therapy Today July 2010 A uniquely accessible comprehensive and practical guide Essential reading for counsellors and psychotherapists and all helping professionals who work with clients at risk of suicide Mick Cooper Professor of Counselling University of Strathclyde A must read for counsellors of all experience levels offering sound practical strategies alongside thought provoking case studies and discussion points Reeves addresses this difficult topic with depth breadth and integrity Excellent Denise Meyer developer and lead author of www studentdepression org Andrew Reeves brings together his experience as a social worker counsellor and academic to explore the essential elements in working with suicidal clients His openness and integrity in writing about this complex topic creates a valuable resource for reflective practice Barbara Mitchels Solicitor and Director of Watershed Counselling Service Devon Counselling Suicidal Clients addresses the important professional considerations when working with clients who are suicidal The bigger picture including legal and ethical considerations and organisational policy and procedures is explored as is to how practitioners can work with the dynamics of suicide potential in the therapeutic process The book is divided into six main parts The changing context of suicide The prediction prevention model policy and ethics The influence of the organisation The client process The practitioner process The practice of counselling with suicidal clients The book also includes chapters on the discourse of suicide suicide and self injury and self care for the counsellor It is written for counsellors and psychotherapists and for any professional who uses counselling skills when supporting suicidal people

P. Wong,2008 In this new volume death is treated both as a threat to meaning and as an opportunity to create meaning Fatal Freedom Thomas Szasz, 2002-08-01 Fatal Freedom is an eloquent defense of every individual's right to choose a voluntary death. By maintaining statutes that determine that voluntary death is not legal, Thomas Szasz believes that our society is forfeiting one of its basic freedoms and causing the psychiatric medical establishment to treat individuals in a manner that is disturbingly inhumane. Society's penchant for defining behavior it terms objectionable as a disease has created a psychiatric establishment that exerts far too much influence over how and when we choose to die. In a compelling argument that clearly and intelligently addresses one of the most significant ethical issues of our time, Szasz compares suicide to other practices that historically began as sins, became crimes, and now are seen as mental illnesses. Critical Thinking in Counselling and Psychotherapy Colin Feltham, 2010-06-22 This innovative new textbook examines the critical debates around key topics in counselling and psychotherapy. In nine sections including Everyday Counselling Practice, Training and Curriculum Issues, and Counselling Society and Culture, Colin Feltham explores 60 provocative questions central to counselling training and practice. Ranging from more mainstream subjects like unconditional positive regard, ethics, and supervision to broader social or philosophical issues such as employment concerns and the debate on assisted suicide, entries include: Why have we focused on core theoretical models? What are the pros and cons of short-term time-limited counselling? What's wrong with CBT? Where is research taking us? Is statutory regulation a good and inevitable development? Are there limits to personal change in counselling? Each section includes questions for reflection, case studies, and student exercises. This comprehensive student-friendly text is a useful resource for lecturers to stimulate seminar discussion and for all trainees wishing to write essays or generally develop their critical thinking in counselling and psychotherapy. Assessment,

Treatment, and Prevention of Suicidal Behavior Robert I. Yufit, David Lester, 2005 Understanding of suicidal behavior has become more nuanced than it was years ago, and it has become apparent that no one theory and no one therapy can fill all the many manifestations of self-destructive feelings and behaviors. From the foreword, Editors, psychologists Yufit (Northwestern U Medical School) and Lester (Richard Stockton College of New Jersey) both are specialists in suicide, briefly introduce 18 contributions, a few of their own, aimed at bringing clinicians up to date on assessment and a myriad of treatment and prevention approaches. The special issues section addresses the legacy of suicide coping in schools, college students, and suicide terrorism. Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L.

Peck, 2009-07-15 Death and dying and death-related behavior involve the causes of death and the nature of the actions and emotions surrounding death among the living. Interest in the varied dimensions of death and dying has led to the development of death studies that move beyond medical research to include behavioral science disciplines and practitioner-oriented fields. As a result of this interdisciplinary interest, the literature in the field has proliferated. This two-volume resource addresses the traditional death and dying-related topics but also presents a unique focus on the human experience to create a new dimension to the study of death and dying. With more than 300 entries, the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience includes the complex cultural beliefs and traditions and the institutionalized social rituals that surround dying and death as well as the array of emotional responses relating to bereavement grieving and mourning The Encyclopedia is enriched through important multidisciplinary contributions and perspectives as it arranges organizes defines and clarifies a comprehensive list of death related perspectives concepts and theories Key Features Imparts significant insight into the process of dying and the phenomenon of death Includes contributors from Asia Africa Australia Canada China eastern southern and western Europe Iceland Scandinavia South America and the United States who offer important interdisciplinary and cross cultural perspectives Provides a special focus on the cultural artifacts and social institutions and practices that constitute the human experience Addresses death related terms and concepts such as angel makers equivocal death end of life decision making near death experiences cemeteries ghost photography halo nurses caregiver stress cyberfunerals global religious beliefs and traditions and death denial Presents a selective use of figures tables and images Key Themes Arts Media and Popular Culture Perspectives Causes of Death Conceptualization of Death Dying and the Human Experience Coping With Loss and Grief The Human Experience Cross Cultural Perspectives Cultural Determined Social Oriented and Violent Forms of Death Developmental and Demographic Perspectives Funerals and Death Related Activities Legal Matters Process of Dying Symbolic Rituals Ceremonies and Celebrations of Life Theories and Concepts Unworldly Entities and Events With an array of topics that include traditional subjects and important emerging ideas the Encyclopedia of Death and the Human Experience is the ultimate resource for students researchers academics and others interested in this intriguing area of study

Cultural Diversity and Suicide Mark M Leach, 2014-02-25 This book adds a vital and overlooked dimension diversity to suicide assessments and interventions The literature on the relationship between culture and suicide has historically been widely scattered and often difficult to find Cultural Diversity and Suicide summarizes that widespread literature so that counselors can begin to include diversity issues as important variables that can help them become even more effective when conducting suicide assessments or interventions For ease of reading Cultural Diversity and Suicide is divided into chapters based on ethnicity The book avoids broad generalizations whenever possible thus each chapter specifically discusses critical within group variables issues relating to gender age religion and sexuality that should be considered when conducting suicide assessments and interventions Each chapter includes at least one case study and incorporates clear headings that make it simple to find specific information Cultural Diversity and Suicide is not a book of cookie cutter approaches to suicide prevention nor is it a primer for the novice Rather it has been carefully designed to help counselors and counselors in training gain a fuller understanding of the issues that may lead individuals from diverse backgrounds to consider suicide and the cultural aspects of an individual's heritage that can influence that person's decision Written for professionals who have a pre-existing understanding of how to work with suicidal clients the book begins with a concise but essential overview of traditional suicide risk factors and a brief assessment model an excellent memory refresher and then moves quickly into specific diversity issues relevant to European Americans African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans Native Americans Cultural Diversity and Suicide explores ethnicity and its relationship to suicide for example suicide rate and reason differences based on ethnic group or ethnic identity plus meaningful within group variables such as lesbian gay bisexual issues and the increase in suicide rate based on sexual orientation and sexual identity religious differences suicide rates among various religious groups religious differences in views of suicide views of the afterlife burial practices and views of lesbian gay bisexual people cultural buffers such as extended family and religious practice suicide prevention interventions based on cultural differences essentially how traditional suicide prevention programs can be altered to include new variables This book is essential reading for everyone doing the vital work of conducting suicide assessments and interventions Please consider making it part of your professional teaching collection today
