Congress. House. Committee on Banking and

Currency, 1965 Culture and the City Deborah Stevenson, Amie Matthews, 2013-09-13 This edited collection will examine the way in which cities are imagined experienced and shaped by those who reside within them those who manage or govern them and those who as visitor tourist or traveller pass through them Attention will be paid to the influence that these various inhabitants have on city life and living and the dialectic that exists between their sometimes collective and sometimes divergent perceptions and uses of city space In conjunction with this the collection will explore the ways in which local culture and cultural policy are used by public and private interests as the framework for changing the image and amenity of the city in order to raise its profile and attract tourists The book contributes to discussions of the increasingly high profile place that cultural programs have in urban regeneration initiatives and explore the tensions conflicts and negotiations that emerge in urban spaces as a result of policy and culture coming together Papers will be sought from researchers around the world with a view to examining the nexus between tourism leisure and cultural programming from a number of perspectives and with reference to a range of international case studies This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Policy Research in Tourism Leisure and Events Ground-up City Liane Lefaivre, 2007 With Ground Up City author Liane Lefaivre has developed a theoretical model for tackling playgrounds as an urban strategy She starts with a historical overview of play and the ludic in art architecture and urban design focusing particularly on postwar playgrounds realized in Amsterdam as joint ventures between Aldo van Eyck Cornelis van Eesteren and Jakoba Mulder The architecture firm D IJ Atelier voor Bouwkunst explored the possibility of applying the model in two urban redevelopment areas in Rotterdam Oude Westen in the inner city and Meeuwenplaat in Hoogvliet an outlying postwar district refining it into a practical design strategy The second part of the book provides a refreshing new look at play in a picture essay with reference images illustrating play as an urban phenomenon Ground Up Cityplaces the playground high on the agenda as an urban design challenge It also shows how specifying a generic academic model for a particular situation can lead to a practically applicable design resource

A Heart for the Community John Dr. Fuder, Noel Castellanos, 2012-03-21. Islam, gentrification, AIDS, and multiculturalism. Where do we face these realities? A few years ago it was in the city. But today many city dwellers are moving to the suburbs, either by choice or because of circumstances beyond their control. And this shift is changing both the urban and suburban landscape. With this shift in mind, editors John Fuder and Noel Castellanos have gathered together a team of experts to help you minister effectively in both the urban and suburban context. Divided into four sections: Critical Issues, Church Planting Models, Ministering to Suburban Needs, and Para Church Ministries, A Heart for the Community is a rich resource designed to help you do ministry today.
