Klein, 1995 Once mostly rolling hills and valleys covered with hardwood forest in the seventeenth century contemporary Philadelphia and the Delaware Valley now claim the largest concentration of many of the finest public and private gardens in the world William M Klein explores the broader attitudes and behaviors toward nature that have influenced this development of colonial farms and gardens created for survival to the art of suburban gardens to nature conservatories and public parks Discover how in 300 years we have moved from fencing nature out to fencing nature in Out of the past examine the worm fence at Colonial Pennsylvania Plantations overgrown by weeds as it would have been during Colonial times zigzagging across the fields tenuously holding back the great forest that presses down Into the present consider the chain link fence at the John Heinz Wildlife Refuge at Tinicum that bounds a threatened wetland habitat from the intrusion of highways and reverberates to the sounds of traffic from I 95 and the Philadelphia International Airport Klein's eloquent and knowledgeable narrative include detailed portraits of forty four individual gardens all lustrously illustrated by noted garden photographer Derek Fell While considering a particular garden s historical and social influences Klein discusses the philosophy behind each garden its planner s goals and even personality and the garden s interaction with surrounding architecture This complete guide also includes each location s address phone number hours of operation events and featured plants flowers and trees Yet this book goes far beyond the usual guides in this search for answers to the perennial questions of how and why each generation struggles to define its place in nature As we approach the twenty first century the garden has become the metaphor for how we must begin to view all nature today tended space where we collect name nurture and share our love of plants Author note Formerly Director of the Morris Arboretum of the University of Pennsylvania Dr William M Klein Jr is Executive Director of the National Tropical Botanical Garden in Lawai Hawaii In 1993 he was presented with the American Horticultural Society s Professional Award and has been a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science since 1989 He has published many important writings on nature botany and landscape including his previous book The Vascular Flora of Pennsylvania Annotated Checklist and Atlas Derek Fell is a widely published garden photographer and the author of more than 50 garden books and garden calendars

A Hard Ticket Home David Housewright, 2004-05-04 Ex St Paul cop Rushmore McKenzie has more time and more money than he knows what to do with In fact when he s willing to admit it to himself and he usually isn t Mac is downright bored Until he decides to do a favor for a friend facing a family tragedy Nine year old Stacy Carlson has been diagnosed with leukemia and the only one with the matching bone marrow that can save her is her older sister Jamie Trouble is Jamie ran away from home years ago Mac begins combing the backstreets of the Twin Cities tracking down Jamie s last known associates He starts with the expected pimps and drug dealers but the path leads surprisingly to some of the Cities most respected businessmen as well as a few characters far more unsavory than the street hustlers he anticipated As bullets fly and bodies drop Mac persists only to find that what he s looking for and why are not exactly what he d imagined David Housewright s uncanny ability to turn the Twin Cities into an exotic brooding backdrop for noir fiction and his winning witty hero Rushmore McKenzie serve as a wicked one two punch in A Hard Ticket Home a series debut that reinforces Housewright s well earned reputation as one of crime fiction s rising stars
