Multiple Lenses, Multiple Images Hillel Goelman, Sally Ross, Sheila Marshall, 2004-01-01 Drawing from a wide range of disciplines and perspectives the essays in Multiple Lenses Multiple Images are oriented around the idea that images of childhood can be understood within three dimensions time space and discipline Time refers to both the chronological ages of the children under consideration and the historical timeframe in which that particular essay is suited Space is a dimension that includes familial community institutional and cultural spaces within which children live The third dimension discipline names the specific and distinct areas of scholarship and research that define the ontology epistemology and methodology within which the contributors write Multiple Lenses Multiple Images is intended to deepen and expand the collaborative interdisciplinary discourse on children and childhood through reflections not just on what is known about children but on how it has been learned

Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg, 2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today's global arena
