turning point that changed the course of the Troubles the Bloody Sunday massacre continues to define ongoing debates about the legacy of the Troubles and the impact of state violence Bloody Sunday has been at the centre of numerous cultural and literary expressions which deal with the grief and trauma of the massacre such as murals songs plays and poetry This volume is the first comprehensive study of the poetry of Bloody Sunday written by critically acclaimed Irish poets including Seamus Heaney Paul Muldoon Thomas Kinsella Seamus Deane and Medbh McGuckian By focusing on poems written between 1972 and 2015 this book examines each poet's attempt to find an apt way of articulating the anger trauma and grief over the massacre with most of the poets continuously returning to the shooting in their poetry throughout their careers The monograph outlines how in the face of adversity the poets draw on old Irish literary traditions such as Gaelic laments and Aisling poetry which offer an indigenous anti colonial and counter hegemonic response to a massacre that was experienced as a colonial aggression It also discusses the complex relationship between poetry and politics and the negotiation between aesthetic freedom and the moral obligation to write about Bloody Sunday

Sunday Craig Harline, 2011-09-13 The mere mention of Sunday will immediately conjure up a rich mix of memories associations and ideas for most anyone of any age Whatever we think of be it attending church reading a bulky newspaper eating brunch or watching football Sunday occupies a unique place in Western civilization But how did we come to have a day with such a singular set of traditions Here historian Craig Harline examines Sunday from its ancient beginnings to contemporary America in a fascinating blend of stories and analysis For the earliest Christians the first day of the week was a time to celebrate the liturgy observe the Resurrection and work But over time Sunday in the Western world took on still other meanings and rituals especially in the addition of both rest and recreation to the day's activities Harline illuminates these changes in enlightening profiles of Sunday in medieval Catholic England Sunday in the Reformation and Sunday in nineteenth century France home of the most envied and sometimes despised Sunday of the modern world He continues with moving portraits of soldiers and civilians trying to observe Sunday during World War I examines the quiet Sunday of England in the 1930s and concludes with the convergence of various European traditions in the American Sunday which also adds some distinctly original habits of its own such as in the realms of commerce and professional sports With engaging prose and scholarly integrity Sunday is an entertaining and long overdue look at a significant hallmark of Western culture

Believer on Sunday, Atheist by Thursday Ronald P. Byars, 2019-07-30 Regular worshipers may be believers on Sunday but nearly atheists by Thursday The general public not making fine distinctions lumps mainline Protestants together with fundamentalists fighting to hold on to a privileged status already lost Circumstances favor religious skeptics who find themselves with rising influence Church members in mainline denominations feel caught between a rock and a hard place Thus comes the critical question of the moment is Christian faith of an intellectually serious and recognizably generous sort still possible This book invites readers to explore basic questions about faith itself and classically inclined Christian faith in particular Faith is a kind of knowing but a knowing that makes use of doubt and asserts that it is possible to be confident without claiming absolute certainty Faith is less like agreeing with an argument and more like falling in love Faith involves learning how to see with the eyes of the heart Faith embraces realities that can be perceived even by a child but that cannot always be directly expressed in the kind of language we use for discussing serious matters Living in faith is and will always be an against the grain way of imagining the world The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble, 2011-09-08 No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Index to the English Catalogue of Books ..., 1876 Zimbabwe in Crisis Stephen Chan, Ranka Primorac, 2013-10-18 This book covers not only the political situation in Zimbabwe but its international context and those areas of privation exclusion and silence within the country that are beneath the everyday face of politics Written by either a Zimbabwean or an internationally acknowledged expert on aspects of Zimbabwe all the authors agree that the silences in and surrounding the African state cannot continue This volume utilizes the perspectives of diplomacy health law and literature written in both English and Shona and of those deeply concerned with democratization in Zimbabwe and its surrounding region Zimbabwe and the Space of Silence will be of interest to students and scholars of African studies African and Third World politics and international law This book was previously published as a special issue of The Round Table Phineas Finn, the Irish Member Anthony Trollope, 1869 The English Catalogue of Books ... Sampson Low, 1873 Sunday School Times, 1894 International Who's Who in Poetry 2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864 Frank Leslie's Sunday Magazine, 1889 New York Magazine, 1994-01-10 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
