Old Time Paris George Frederick Edwards,1908 Chantilly in History and Art Louise M. Richter,2013 Chantilly in History and Art THE Ch teau of Chantilly now known as the Mus e Cond the magnificent gift so generously bequeathed to the French nation by the late Duc d Aumale has experienced great changes and passed through many vicissitudes At a very early date a Gallo Roman by name Cantillius fixed his abode upon an isolated rock in the midst of wild forest and marshland hence the name of Chantilly In the ninth century we find established here the Seigneurs of Senlis who bore the name of Bouteillers from their hereditary task of wine controllers to the Kings of France an honorary post which they held for some centuries But the last scion of that sturdy race having seen his castle pillaged during the Jacquerie of 1358 died without issue After changing hands through three decades Chantilly in 1386 became the property of Pierre d Orgemont Chancellor to Charles V of France who laid the foundations of an imposing feudal fortress flanked by seven stately towers Several centuries later a change again occurred in the ownership of Chantilly By default of male issue it passed into the possession of Jean II Baron de Montmorency who married Marguerite sole heiress of the Orgemonts and with this illustrious family Chantilly emerged from comparative obscurity into historical fame Henceforth it became a favourite centre for the leading men of France and within its hospitable walls kings and princes found sumptuous entertainment Matrimonial alliance in the beginning of the seventeenth century brought the property into the family of the Cond s a younger branch of the Bourbons and later still by the marriage of the last Prince de Cond with Princesse Bathilde d Orl ans and the tragic death of their only son the Duc d Enghien Chantilly passed into the possession of its last private owner Prince Henri d Orl ans Duc d Aumale The family of the Montmorencys was well known and famous in France during the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries but became extinct under Richelieu who for reasons of state sent the last scion of that race Henri de Montmorency to the scaffold
