A History of French Explorations and Projects in Australia ... With Eight Illustrations and Maps](#) Sir Ernest SCOTT,1910 Studies in the History of the Law of Nations Charles Henry Alexandrowicz,2013-11-11 Napoleon's navigation system Frank Edgar Melvin, Napoleon s navigation system A study of trade control during the continental blockade 1919 Napoleon's Navigation System Frank Edgar Melvin,1919 Frontiers of Taste Zane Ma Rhea,2016-07-28 This book provides a critical multiperspective sociohistorical analysis of the role of food in postcolonial Indigenous British and French settler relations Drawing on archival resources from Australian explorers settlers and nation builders the book argues that contemporary issues of food security sovereignty and sustainability have been significantly shaped by the colonial impact on human foodways The author goes on to enhance readers understanding of how contact between inhabitants and newcomers was shaped and informed by food and how these engagements established a modus vivendi that carries through to the present day Based on the assessment of archival records it uses a comparative socio historical lens to investigate contact between Indigenous and non Indigenous people where the exchange of food or knowledge about food took place It finds that the transfer of food and food knowledge was multifaceted and the flow of food knowledge occurred in both directions although these exchanges were neither symmetrical nor balanced It also analyzes and discusses food as a focal point of activity The final chapter offers an assessment of the potential for the development of a sustainable nutritious tasty Australian cuisine that moves beyond the tropes and stereotypical narratives embedded into colonial Indigenous settler relations in the context of food If this was accepted by all Australians it would allow opportunities to be created for Indigenous Australians to develop food products for the market that are sustainable economically viable and developed in ways that are culturally appropriate

Grotian Society Papers (1968) Alexandrowicz,2024-10-28 The A to Z of the Discovery and Exploration of Australia Alan Day,2009-06-19 This engaging reference examines the history of the search for and the discovery of Australia taking full account of the evidence for and the speculation surrounding possible earlier contacts by the Ancient Egyptians Arabs and Chinese seamen Day brings the expeditions to life expressing the desires that drove great sea captains deeper into turbulent waters searching for caches of spice silks and precious metals Covers a wide variety of topics including Seamen from eight nations The recovery of storm wrecked ships Diplomatic treaties Priority of discovery disputes Military and civil explorers and surveyors Topographical features Geographical terms and places Rivers and river system The Great Race David Hill,2014-07-03 On the afternoon of 8 April 1802 in the remote southern ocean two explorers had a remarkable chance encounter Englishman Matthew Flinders and Frenchman Nicolas Baudin had been sent by their governments on the same quest to explore the uncharted coast of the great south land and find out whether the west and east coasts four thousand kilometres apart were part of the same island And so began the race to compile the definitive map of Australia These men s journeys were the culmination of two hundred years of exploration of the region by the Dutch most famously Abel Tasman the Portuguese the Spanish and by Englishmen such as the colourful pirate William Dampier and of course James Cook The three year voyages of Baudin and Flinders would see them endure terrible hardships in the spirit of discovery They suffered scurvy and heat exhaustion and Flinders was shipwrecked and imprisoned always knowing he was competing with the French to produce the first map of this mysterious continent Written from diaries and other first hand accounts this is the thrilling story of men whose drawings recorded countless previously unknown species and turned mythical creatures into real ones and whose skill and determination enabled Terra Australis Incognita to become Australia

Clio's Lives Doug Munro, John G. Reid, 2017-10-09 Including contributions from leading scholars in the field from both Australia and North America this collection explores diverse approaches to writing the lives of historians and ways of assessing the importance of doing so Beginning with the writing of autobiographies by historians the volume then turns to biographical studies both of historians whose writings were in some sense nation defining and those who may be regarded as having had a major influence on defining the discipline of history The final section explores elements of collective biography linking these to the formation of historical networks A concluding essay by Barbara Caine offers a critical appraisal of the study of historians biographies and autobiographies to date and maps out likely new directions for future work Clio s Lives is a very good scholarly collection that advances the study of autobiography and biography within the writing of history itself taking theoretical questions in significant new directions The contributors are well known and highly respected in the history profession and write with an insight and intellectual energy that will ensure the book has considerable impact They examine cutting edge issues about the writing of history at the personal level through autobiography and biography in diverse and innovative ways Together the writers have provided reflective chapters that will be widely read for their impressive theoretical advances as well as being inspirational for new entrants to the disciplinary area Patricia Grimshaw University of Melbourne Clio s Lives brings together a most interesting and varied cast of contributors Its chapters contain sophisticated and well penned ruminations on the uses of biography and autobiography among historians These are clearly connected with the general themes of the volume This delightfully mixed bag makes very good reading and as well will serve as a substantial contribution to the study of the biography and autobiography Eric Richards Flinders University
