29th Texas Cavalry

This regiment was organized in July 1862 by Clarksville, Texas, newspaper publisher Charles DeMorse, who served as its colonel. In March 1863 Col. DeMorse received orders to move his regiment to Indian Territory to join Brig. Gen. Douglas H. Cooper's Mounted Indian Brigade. The regiment participated in an attack on the Fort Scott-Fort Gibson supply train at Cabin Creek on July 1-2, 1863, after which the regiment assembled at Honey Springs where they faced their first major engagement.

A company line was kept up by the skirmishers on both sides. The enemy advanced in line of battle along our entire front, keeping up a very rapid and vigorous fire of small arms. We could not fire until the enemy had approached within 20 yards, and then poured a galling fire upon them in the mean time the whole right had given away and were fast being flanked. We fell back to a small branch directly in our rear, where we made a stand, supposing that I was supported by the whole brigade. I sent Maj. Carroll to the right to ascertain the position of our regiments. The Major was returning, I went to ascertain the result, when I found that all our right had given away, and that the enemy were passing rapidly in our rear on the right. I immediately ordered the remainder of my men out of the branch, and being cut off from our horses, and the main command, we made our way up Elk Creek, thence on foot to North Fork.

1st Col. Otto C. Walsh, 29th Texas Cavalry, CSA

20th Texas Cavalry

Col. Thomas Coke Bass organized this regiment in the late spring of 1862. Prior to Honey Springs the 20th Texas Cavalry fought at Prairie Grove, Arkansas. In early November 1862, the regiment was disbanded and served the remainder of the war as foot soldiers.

We had a fight with the enemy and they withdrew to back the creek around the river and we picked it up and marched to the creek where we were camped and we fought on the right of the creek and they began with their cannon and filled the air with smoke and grappled us to lay down and not fire till the enemy came in forty yards. We lay down and they marched on and came and killed our men before they came in range of our guns. When they came near enough we fired at them and killed lots of them, though they made us halt, and the Texas boys had to fly. The Indians were faster than we ever saw before.
