However, the Yearbook has a broader scope as well to offer a platform for review of new developments in the field of international law. As of the 2010 Volume, the Yearbook will be compiled by a new and expanded Editorial Board offering fresh ideas and a new approach. A newly established Advisory Board has also been added, including ICJ Judge Bruno Simma, Serge Brammertz, Prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, ICTY, Jacomijn J. van Haersolte van Hof, advocate/advocaat at HaersolteHof and arbitrator, The Netherlands, and Professor Peter Hilpold, Innsbruck University, Austria. Sections have been created on public international law, private international law, international investment law, and international criminal law, containing in-depth articles on current issues. How does one make sense of the role of religion in violence and of perpetrators of violence who cite religion as a motivation? This encyclopedia includes a wide range of entries, biographies of key figures, historical events, religious groups, countries, and regions where religion and violence have intersected, and practices, rituals, and processes of religious violence.
