Six Months With An Older Woman:

Six Months with an Older Woman David A. Kaufelt, 1982-11-01 A thirty year old New York bachelor who is dominated by his mother and psychiatrist has a love affair with a woman who is fifteen years his senior Older Women in Europe Isabella Paoletti, 2022-09-30 This book is about older women's strength, freedom, tenacity, determination, resilience, independence, social and political involvement and in particular it is about reimagining ageing. Older women represent the great majority of older people. The book describes instances of age and gender discrimination and examples of social inclusion and protagonism of older women in Europe. It solicits a change in perspective focusing on the necessary societal changes to make space to older people and older women in particular. How is society going to address age and gender discrimination in social and institutional settings? How should work settings change to effectively make space to older workers and in particular older women? How should the pension system change? How could public health systems could provide effective care to older people and be sustainable? This edited collection focuses on older women's rights rather than their needs, adopting a human rights based approach. Preservation of older women's dignity, autonomy and security is its central topic that is ensuring that their rights are recognised. This collection offers insights valuable to a wide array of human rights activists, professionals, policymakers and social scientists and older women themselves. Mother Shock Andrea J. Buchanan, 2009-03-13 According to Andrea Buchanan, Mother shock is the state in which many new parents exist during those first confusing, chaotic and often comical years of parenting. It is the clash between expectation and reality. It is the twilight zone of 24 hour a day living where life is no longer neatly divided into day and night, the triple impact of hormonal imbalance, sleep deprivation and physical exhaustion. It is the stress of trying to acclimate quickly to the immediacy of mothering, a new conception of oneself, one's role in the family and in the world, a fearful new level of responsibility and a new delegation of domestic duties. In this much needed and delightfully funny collection of essays, Buchanan shares the insight she gains as she moves through the stages of mother shock. From Fear of the Double Stroller and Confessions of a Bottle Feeder to I'm an Idiot and Everything I Needed to Know I Learned in Playgroup, Buchanan details the unimaginably difficult and unbelievably rewarding process of becoming a mother. The Charity Organisation Review Charity Organisation Society (London, England), 1894 Encounters With the Paranormal Kendrick Frazier, 2023-10-17 Do polygraph tests really detect lies? Can memories be implanted? Is subliminal perception a reality? What is the relationship between science and belief? Experts in the fields of physical, biological, science, psychology, philosophy, social science and forensic science bring their perspectives to controversies that affect the way we think and how we perceive reality and the natural world. From science's influence on beauty to antiscience in our universities and from UFO mythologies to near death experiences, this volume spans the gamut of pseudoscience today. Child Abuse, Child Exploitation, and Criminal Justice Responses Daniel G. Murphy, April G. Rasmussen, 2020-01-08

There are few things in our society that provoke such raw emotions as that of child abuse. Most people justifiably so are outraged when they hear of allegations of abuse and their anger is intensified as they learn of what seems to be an inappropriate criminal justice response. However, the debate on child abuse usually happens through visceral emotions rather than facts. Taking emotions out of a child abuse debate is much easier said than done, but it is of utmost importance to identify the facts. When the reader has a better understanding of the scope of child abuse, they can become more objective but still maintain their passion about ways to protect this vulnerable and targeted population.

Child Abuse, Child Exploitation and Criminal Justice Responses is unique in that it offers the reader contributing facts based not only through scholarly research but practical experience working in the field from this wonderful collaboration of criminal investigator and forensic nurse. Thus, providing much personal insight and demonstrating how these two areas of expertise can join forces to achieve the objective of working as a team to facilitate safeguarding children. The authors also present the research on this complex yet worthy topic by identifying the unique challenges of investigating these offenses while ultimately bringing the perpetrators to justice and presenting the research from various perspectives of child abuse including both national and international issues and responses.

Yet most printed collections of folktales contain only stories stripped of the human contexts in which they are told. If storytellers are mentioned at all, they are rarely consulted about what meanings they see in their tales. In this innovative book, Indian American anthropologist Kirin Narayan reproduces twenty-one folktales narrated in a mountain dialect by a middle-aged Indian village woman, Urmila Devi Sood or Urmilaji. The tales are set within the larger story of Kirin Narayan's research in the Himalayan foothill region of Kangra and of her growing friendship with Urmilaji Sood. In turn, Urmilaji Sood supplements her tales with interpretations of the wisdom that she discerns in their plots. At a moment when the mass media is flooding through rural India, Urmilaji Sood asserts the value of her tales which have been told and retold across generations. As she says Television can't teach you these things These tales serve as both moral instruction and as beguiling entertainment The first set of tales focussing on women's domestic rituals lays out guidelines for female devotion and virtue Here are tales of a pious washerwoman who brings the dead to life a female weevil observing fasts for a better rebirth a barren woman who adopts a frog and lights ritual oil lamps and a queen who remains with her husband through twelve arduous years of affliction The women performing these rituals and listening to the accompanying stories are thought to bring good fortune to their marriages and long life to their relatives The second set of tales associated with passing the time around the fire through long winter nights are magical adventure tales Urmilaji Sood tells of a matchmaker who marries a princess off to a lion God splitting a boy claimed by two families into two selves a prince's journey to the land of the demons and a girl transformed into a bird by her stepmother In an increasingly interconnected world anthropologists' authority to depict and theorize about distant people's lives is under fire Kirin Narayan seeks solutions to this crisis in anthropology by locating the exchange of knowledge in a respectful affectionate collaboration Through the medium of oral narratives Urmilaji Sood describes her own life and lives around her and through the medium of ethnography Kirin Narayan shows how broader conclusions emerge from specific spirited interactions Set evocatively amid the changing seasons in a Himalayan foothill village this pathbreaking book draws a moving portrait of an accomplished woman storyteller Mondays on the Dark Night of the Moon offers a window into the joys and sorrows of women's changing lives in rural India and reveals the significance of oral storytelling in nurturing human ties
