Social Structure Of Islam Vol 12 Orientalism:

Orientalism: Early Sources, 2000      Islamic Law and Society in the Sudan Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, 2013-10-15 Few studies exist which deal with Islamic law in practice and this is among the first such studies in the English language for Islamic Africa It is significant that the present study was completed just prior to the extension of Islamic law as the sole governing law in the Sudan in 1983 for it captures many essentials of the Shari'a as it has been applied for decades prior to this important change Numerous movements for reform and change are discussed in the book which reflect the contemporary debate in the Sudan over the position of Shari'a in society      Social Theory, Volume II Roberta Garner, Black Hawk Hancock, 2014-05-29 The third edition of this popular reader reflects considerable changes The framework for understanding theory as a set of conversations over time is maintained and deepened but Volume II now begins with a focus on key transitional theorists who helped reconceive of classical theory in new ways Extending from the classical tradition chapters on race gender culture media and globalization show how contemporary theory builds on the past even as it moves in new directions New contextual and biographical materials surround the primary readings and each chapter includes a study guide with key terms discussion questions and innovative classroom exercises The result is a fresh and expansive take on social theory that foregrounds a plurality of perspectives and reflects contemporary trends in the field while being an accessible and manageable teaching tool      The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 6, Muslims and Modernity: Culture and Society since 1800 Robert W. Hefner, 2010-11-04 Unparalleled in its range of topics and geographical scope the sixth and final volume of The New Cambridge History of Islam provides a comprehensive overview of Muslim culture and society since 1800 Robert Hefner's thought provoking account of the political and intellectual transformation of the Muslim world introduces the volume which proceeds with twenty five essays by luminaries in their fields through a broad range of topics These include developments in society and population religious thought and Islamic law Muslim views of modern politics and economics education and the arts cinema and new media The essays which highlight the diversity and richness of Islamic civilization engage with regions outside the Middle East as well as within Islam's historic heartland Narratives are clear and absorbing and will fascinate all those curious about the momentous changes that have taken place among the world's 1.4 billion Muslims in the last two centuries      Yearbook of Islamic and Middle Eastern Law, Volume 12 (2005-2006) Eugene Cotran, Martin Lau, 2007-12 Practitioners and academics dealing with the Middle East can turn to the Yearbook of Islamic and Middle Eastern Law for an instant source of information on the developments over an entire year in the region The Yearbook covers Islamic and non Islamic legal subjects including the laws themselves of some twenty Arab and other Islamic countries The publication's practical features include articles on current topics country surveys reflecting important new legislation and amendments to existing legislation per country the text of a selection of documents and important court cases a Notes and News section and book reviews      Social and Gender Inequality in Oman Khalid M. Al-Azri, 2013 Looking at the social political and legal changes in Oman since 1970 this book challenges the Islamic and tribal traditional cultural norms relating to marriage divorce and women s rights which guide social and legal practice in the modern Omani state The book argues that despite the establishment of legal instruments guaranteeing equality for all citizens the fact that the state depends upon Islamic and tribal elites for its legitimacy invalidates these guarantees in practice Two particular features of the legal and cultural regulation of marriage and marital rights are focused on the perceived requirement for kafa aor equality in marriage between so called high and low socio economic status peoples is examined and the institution of talaq which grants greater rights to men than to women in appeals for divorce This book addresses highly complex subjects with great rigor in terms of empirical research and engagement with theory sociological and political as well as theological and legal It is an interesting investigation of the divisions of authority between the state Islam and tribal norms highlighting barriers to reform in both Oman and wider Islamic society and advocating the removal of such obstacles Islam, Liberalism, and Ontology Joseph J.

Kaminski, 2021-03-30 This book offers comparative ontologies of both Islam and liberalism as discourses more broadly construed The author argues that despite recent efforts to speak of overlapping consensuses and discursive congruence the fundamental categories that constitute Islam and Liberalism remain very different and that these differences should be taken seriously Thus far no recent scholarly works have explicitly or meticulously broken down where these differences lie The author rigorously explores questions related to rights moral epistemologies the role of religion in the public sphere and more general approaches to legal discourse via primary and canonical sources constitutive of both Islam and liberalism He then goes on to articulate why communitarian modes of thought are better suited for engaging with Islam and contemporary socio political modes of organization than liberalism is This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of politics and international relations Islam liberalism and communitarianism American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 26:2 Norman

A Post-Exotic Anthropology of Soqatra, Volume II Serge D. Elie, 2020-06-22 This two volume book offers a panoramic explanatory narrative of Soqatra Island s rediscovery based on the global significance of its endemic biodiversity The first volume A Post Exotic Anthropology of Soqatra A Mesography of an Indigenous Polity in Yemen initiated the analytical inventory of the four key vectors of Soqatra s transition process through a discussion of the first two economic disarticulation and political incorporation This volume A Post Exotic Anthropology of Soqotra Cultural Environmental Annexation of an Indigenous Community completes the analytical inventory by exploring the other two pivotal vectors of transition cultural modernization and environmental annexation These two vectors encompass the critical sociocultural spheres and environmental domains in which Soqotra's transformation process is unfolding The origin of these vectors is situated within Soqotra's long history of exogenous mediations by external actors and their symbolic appropriation of the island into an imaginative geography The legacy is a symbolic curse which has made Soqotra into an ideal playground for fantasist cultural or environmental experiments Accordingly this volume undertakes first a systematic inventory of the communal effects engendered within the domains of cultural modernization dissonant linguistic attitudes alienating consumption practices divergent religious affiliations and differentiating economic aspirations Second it anatomizes the process of environmental annexation through the reconstruction of the formulation and implementation process of a biodiversity conservation and sustainable development experiment in which the island and its residents are appropriated into an anachronistic paradigm a pastoral ecotopia as a blueprint of their future
