Suffering in the Face of Death Bryan R. Dyer, 2017-04-20 Suffering and death are two topics that are frequently referred to in the Epistle to the Hebrews but have rarely been examined within scholarship on this important New Testament text Dyer redresses the balance in this study of these topics conducting a thorough investigation using semantic domain analysis He incorporates recent advancements in modern linguistics in particular the context of situation and then connects these topics to the social situation addressed in Hebrews In so doing he is able to reveal how the author is responding to the reality of suffering in the lives of his audience With this awareness it becomes clear how the author also responds to his audience's pain by creating models of endurance in suffering and death These serve to motivate his audience toward similar endurance within their own social context Dyer shows that it is possible to make significant determinations about the social setting of Hebrews based upon an examination and analysis of the language used therein

Clothing the Body of Christ at Colossae Rosemary Canavan, 2012 What we think of our bodies and what we wear says something about who we are and how we belong This was the same in the ancient world Rosemary Canavan explores the imagery of clothing and body in the first century CE Christian writing An examination of statuary funerary monuments and coins in this geographical location contemporaneous with the letter's writing reveals how clothing and body images were understood This is then placed in dialogue with the metaphorical use of clothing and body in other texts especially the Letter to the Colossians Social identity and rhetorical studies draw on archaeological epigraphical iconographical and literary sources to formulate a new approach to biblical interpretation aptly named visual exegesis

Matthew's Parable of the Royal Wedding Feast Ruth Christa Mathieson, 2023-06-02 Ruth Christa Mathieson's unique reading of Matthew's parable of the royal wedding feast Matt 22 1-14 which concludes with the king's demand that one of the guests be bound and cast out into the outer darkness focuses on the means of the underdressed guest's expulsion Using sociorhetorical interpretation Mathieson draws the parable into conversation with early Jewish narratives of the angel Raphael binding hands and feet 1 Enoch Tobit and the protocol for expelling individuals from the community in Matt 18 She asserts that readers are invited to consider if the person who is bound and cast out is a danger to the little ones of the community of faith unless removed and restrained

Exploring Grammatical Metaphor Zhong Yang, 2025-06-30 This book explores the fascinating world of grammatical metaphor through the lens of systemic functional linguistics. It provides a valuable toolkit for understanding how grammatical metaphor can expand the potential for meaning and serve as a key resource for bridging linguistic and cultural gaps in different contexts. Grammatical metaphor is presented not merely as a linguistic feature but as a powerful tool that transforms meaning across grammatical categories. This book examines how this phenomenon of transcategorisation works, showing how it shifts and enriches the representation of meaning. Using the framework of systemic functional linguistics, the book emphasises the dynamic relationship between language systems and the texts they produce. Combining theory and practice, it investigates the wide ranging applications of grammatical metaphor in fields such as contrastive linguistics, discourse analysis and translation studies. Readers will discover how grammatical metaphor increases the flexibility and depth of language, enabling speakers and writers to achieve more nuanced and effective communication. This book will be essential reading for linguists, language learners, translators and intercultural communicators. Whether you're a researcher or a practitioner, this book will inspire new ways of thinking about language and communication.

Innovative Document Summarization Techniques: Revolutionizing Knowledge Understanding Fiori, Alessandro, 2014-01-31 The prevalence of digital documentation presents some pressing concerns for efficient information retrieval in the modern age. Readers want to be able to access the information they desire without having to search through a mountain of unrelated data, so algorithms and methods for effectively seeking out pertinent information are of critical importance. Innovative Document Summarization Techniques: Revolutionizing Knowledge Understanding evaluates some of the existing approaches to information retrieval and summarization of digital documents as well as current research and future developments. This book serves as a sounding board for students, educators, researchers and practitioners of information technology, advancing the ongoing discussion of communication in the digital age.

Her Master's Tools? Caroline Vander Stichele, Todd C. Penner, 2005 This collection of essays, originating in the SBL International Meetings in Berlin 2002 and Cambridge 2003, explores the current reception of historical criticism in feminist biblical studies, pushing the boundaries of past study and opening new vistas for future research. By framing the discussion in the context of the current reevaluation of both historical criticism and feminist exegesis, the contributors highlight the ongoing need to engage methodological issues. In addition, a strong postcolonial emphasis throughout the volume challenges the hegemony of Western biblical interpretation, promoting a format of dialogue and engagement. The collection brings together diverse cultural and geographical perspectives on biblical criticism, with over ten countries represented. Consisting of Western and non-Western perspectives, female and male scholars, junior and senior voices in the field, and a range of feminist scholars situated alongside postcolonial and gender critics, this collection reveals not only the multiplicity of perspectives but also the various transitions in scholarship that have taken place over the past thirty years Volume contributors include Roland Boer Athalya Brenner Ann Graham Brock Kristin De Troyer Esther Fuchs Archie Chi Chung Lee Joseph Marchal John Marshall Hjamil Mart nez V zquez Madipoane Masenya ngwana Mphahlele Judith McKinlay Priscilla Geisterfer Nyvlt Jorunn kland Todd Penner Vernon Robbins Susanne Scholz Hanna Stenstr m and Caroline Vander Stichele Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org

Future Texts Vicki Callahan, Virginia Kuhn, 2015-10-25 Future Texts Subversive Performance and Feminist Bodies sketches several possibilities for future texts those that imagine new pathways through the forms used to express contemporary questions of race gender and identity Future Texts Subversive Performance and Feminist Bodies area of investigation is situated within popular culture not as a place of critique or celebration but rather as a contested site that crosses an array of media forms from music video to games to global journalism While there is an established tradition in feminist writing founded on experimental expression that disrupts patriarchal culture it has too often failed to consider issues of race and class This is evident in the dilemma faced by black feminists who alienated from dominant feminism s failure to consider their experience have been forced to choose whether they were black or women first To push back against such identity splintering Future Texts Subversive Performance and Feminist Bodies begins with the politics and aesthetics of Afrofuturism which sets the stage for the dialogue around contemporary feminism that runs through the collection With a paradigm of remix as linguistic play and reconfiguration the chapters confront the question of narrative codes and conventions These new formats are crucial to rewriting the relationship between hegemonic and resistant texts
