in child and family social work that is family centre services and related community based types of provision The text addresses the impact and effectiveness of family centres in supporting children families and communities Emphasis is placed on community based supportive preventive family services and those that provide a closed access and therapeutic service aimed at families referred by social workers where children are at risk of abuse Throughout the focus is on best practice exemplified by research findings of family centre impacts and outcomes in the UK the USA and Hong Kong Developing Good Practice in Children's Services Vicky White,John Harris,2004-07-15 Vicky White and John Harris have drawn together the contributors experiences of working with children in a broad range of settings emphasising ways in which the current context of change can be used as an opportunity to enhance the quality of service provision and achieve better outcomes for children and their families Young Children in Poverty ,1989 Families in Society ,2001

Handbook of Marriage and the Family Marvin B. Sussman,Suzanne K. Steinmetz,Gary W. Peterson,2013-06-29 To know where we are going as scholars educators and practitioners in the field of marriage and family life we first need to know where we have been A perusal of early texts on marriage and family life provides some thought provoking insights into the accuracy of the saying what goes around comes around It is interesting to note who has been considered to be in a position to provide information on marriage and family life Included in the eclectic collection of texts we reviewed were ministers whose focus was on spirituality doctors who emphasized medical aspects of child and adult health and public health professionals and home economists concerned with fighting disease who emphasized cleanliness order fighting germs and eliminating rodents and insects There are also philosophers who drew from ancient texts when discussing family life and a count who assembled a group of German intellectual elites to address various topics An insightful essay of this type is by Marta Karlweis 1926 in which she notes There is no other fetish that society holds to so firmly as the conception woman with all its usual associations of infantilism and dependence The child requires protection is a minor and consequently a serf but above all it possesses no spiritual existence Neither doctorates or other distinctions nor the right to vote have as yet been able to dispel this sweet idea of the childishness of woman which man cherishes p National Guide to Funding for Libraries & Information Services ,1991
