Social Exclusion In European Cities:

Social Exclusion in European Cities Judith Allen, Goran Cars, Ali Madanipour, 2012-08-21 Across Europe concern is rising over the disintegration of social relations and the growing number of people who are being socially excluded social Exclusion in European Cities the first major study of this topic provides a definition of social exclusion and looks at both the processes which cause it and the dimensions of the problem throughout Europe The experiences of people living in areas or neighbourhoods with low rates of social integration are considered illuminating the human impact of exclusion where it is most visible Finally the contributors evaluate the various policy and community initiatives which are currently confronting the problem in a wide sample of European Cities on a variety of levels from inform individual actions to supra national European Union policy and suggest new ways in which social exclusion could be tackled With most large cities experiencing some degree of social exclusion this is an important volume for all those working in the areas of regional policy town planning housing management social work community development sociology political science and urban studies Social Exclusion in European Cities , Governing European Cities Hans Thor Andersen, 2017 This title was first published in 2001 This volume is a result of the action COST A9 Civitas Transformation of European Cities and Urban Governance launched in 1995 which looks at the emergence of the urban question The COST framework is a European mechanism to provide scientific and technical assistance for national research programmes The text covers the change in the importance of European cities and analyzes how each city re formulates its policies and methods of governing in response to these changes The aim of this text is to analyze the new forms of urban governance using three points of view a statistical approach an economic approach and a sociological approach This book tackles the fragmentation and social exclusion that occurs in urban society and explores the different forms it takes throughout Europe It also presents some strategies to combat or at least regulate this fragmentation to ensure a united European city Provided by publisher Minorities in European Cities S. Body-Gendrot, M. Martiniello, 2016-04-30 Minorities in European Cities examines the issues pertaining to the dynamics of social integration and social exclusion of immigrant minorities at the neighbourhood level The book looks at the question of the participation and exclusion of migrants in the field of economics The study focuses on social relations at the neighbourhood level and their impact on the exclusion inclusion process as well as forms of political exclusion of migrant origin population in the local politics and policy making processes Finally Minorities in European Cities examines the ways in which conceptions of law and order and security as well as the local institutional praxis they engender effect exclusion inclusion opportunities Governing European Cities Hans Andersen, 2019-07-11 This title was first published in 2001 This volume is a result of the action COST A9 Civitas Transformation of European Cities and Urban Governance launched in 1995 which looks at the emergence of the urban question The COST framework is a European mechanism to provide scientific and technical assistance for national research programmes The text covers the change in the importance of

European cities and analyzes how each city re formulates its policies and methods of governing in response to these changes This text is to analyze the new forms of urban governance using three points of view a statistical approach an economic approach and a sociological approach This book tackles the fragmentation and social exclusion that occurs in urban society and explores the different forms it takes throughout Europe It also presents some strategies to combat or at least regulate this fragmentation to ensure a united European city Faith-based Organisations and Social Exclusion in European Cities,2009 Faith-based Organisations and Social Exclusion in European Cities. National Context Reports Danielle Dierckx,2009 From Social Exclusion to Participation Aila-Leena Matthies,Marja Järvelä,Dave Ward,2000 Welfare Policy from Below Arno Pilgram,2021-12-16 Available in paperback for the first time Welfare Policy from Below is the most comprehensive study available of social exclusion in contemporary Europe Invigorating and informative the book puts forward a new form of social exclusion knowledge based on an innovative conceptual and theoretical framework and a comparative empirical study of eight European cities The case studies encompassing research in Germany Austria the UK Italy Sweden the Netherlands and Spain focus on a range of problems associated with exclusion Issues such as poverty housing work migration gender equality and the family are considered in the context of different European welfare regimes providing insights into the experiences of ordinary people facing exclusionary challenges The distinguished contributors argue that social security and welfare must provide the infrastructure for the coping strategies of those at risk of exclusion Featuring a substantive new preface which includes contemporary discussions in European welfare policy Welfare Policy from Below will be invaluable to policy makers as well as academic researchers Making New Local Policies Against Social Exclusion in European Cities Aila-Leena Matthies,European Commission Community Research,2001 Social Exclusion and Inequalities in European Cities Simon Guentner,2009 Making New Local Policies Against Social Exclusion in European Cities Union européenne. Commission européenne,2001 Neighbourhoods of Poverty S. Musterd,A. Murie,C. Kesteloot,2006-01-27 Neighbourhoods of Poverty is concerned with the spatial dimension of urban social exclusion and integration It draws on research from twenty two neighbourhoods in eleven European cities Amsterdam Rotterdam Brussels Antwerp London Birmingham Berlin Hamburg Milan Naples and Paris and addresses two questions How do different neighbourhoods have an impact upon the opportunities and perspectives of poor individuals and households Are these neighbourhood impacts conditioned by national and welfare state contexts by the wider metropolitan structures and by specific neighbourhood characteristics Various aspects of poverty social exclusion and integration are brought together and provide a new assessment of the place of neighbourhood within these wider debates European Cities and Towns Peter Clark,2009-01-29 Examines and explains the waves of urbanization across Europe from the fall of the Roman empire to the dawn of the 21st century covering the whole of Europe north and south east and west and looking at urban trends the urban economy social developments cultural life and governance International Handbook of Urban Policy: Contentious global issues H. S. Geyer, 2007-01-01 This first Handbook in a series of three original reference works looks at globally contentious urban policy issues from a wide variety of different angles and perspectives Matters related to urban densification population mobility urban inequality and sustainability are analysed in a manner that will not only interest the advanced student but also the novice Urban policy covers a vast field This first volume combines chapters covering three broad themes policy issues pertaining to the spatial aspects of the city social and mobility issues and issues of urban governance The spotlight initially falls on urban structure urban densification the disappearing urban rural divide the urban economic landscape and the transformation of socialist economies The Handbook then goes on to focus on migration social mobility crime terrorism and social inequality Finally urban sustainability and urban governance come under the spotlight Integration of the planning process flexibilities in infrastructure and areas of neglect in environmental management feature strongly in this section of the Handbook Books of this nature are often slanted in one particular direction however this Handbook s approach is different Not only has the editor avoided shying away from politically sensitive issues but contributions have also been included that reflect distinct differences of opinion on politically sensitive issues hence the volume s subtitle of contentious global issues As a Handbook the chapters have been written not only for the advanced student and academics but also with undergraduate students in mind The Handbook will appeal to scholars and researchers of geography and urban and development planning demography and social science and environmental scientists for the focus on urban sustainability issues

Combatting the Causes of Inequality Affecting Young People Across Europe Mikael Stigendal, 2018-04-25 Inequality is one of the most burning issues of our time affecting young people in particular What causes inequality And how can actors at the local level combat the causes not only the symptoms By seeking to answer these questions the book will contribute to this growing and transdisciplinary subject area by using mainly qualitative research and a perspective that integrates theory in every phase of the analysis Drawing on cultural political economy based on critical realism the author claims that the most important causes of inequality are the ones inherent as potentials in capitalism and the capitalist type of state Compared with the first post war decades these potential causes have been actualised differently since around 1980 They are also actualised differently across Europe The book explores these differences concerning growth models and welfare regimes In general societies have developed into a new condition of social inclusion which explains why many young people have become excluded Societal borders have arisen in the cities separating the winners and losers of inequality Positioning itself outside the box of what tends to be the majority of the publications in the field the book proposes knowledge alliances between young people policy makers civil society and researchers to combat the causes of inequality

Urban Regeneration in Europe Chris Couch, Charles Fraser, Susan Percy, 2008-04-15 This book provides a comparative account of the process of urban regeneration and examines the factors influencing these processes as well as the consequences of their implementation Through a mixture of theoretical discussion and a series of case studies a thorough examination is made of the extent to which these different European old industrial conurbations are facing similar problems

The Oxford Handbook of Urban Politics Karen Mossberger, Susan E. Clarke, Peter John, 2015-02-15 The Oxford Handbook of Urban Politics is an authoritative volume on an established subject in political science and the academy more generally urban politics and urban studies The editors are all recognized experts and are well connected to the leading scholars in urban politics The handbook covers the major themes that animate the subfield the politics of space and place power and governance urban policy urban social organization citizenship and democratic governance representation and institutions approaches and methodology and the future of urban politics Given the caliber of the editors and proposed contributors the volume sets the intellectual agenda for years to come Urban Poverty and the Underclass Enzo Mingione, 2008-09-15 Over the last two decades poverty has moved centre stage as an issue within the social sciences This volume edited by one of Europe's foremost sociologists aims to assess the debates surrounding poverty and the responses to it exploring the ways in which the various socio political systems and welfarist regimes are being radically transformed The essays examine how such change is effected by failing welfare programmes and enervating social structures such as family and community which once would have provided mechanisms of social stability The first part of the book provides reflections on urban poverty the second part discusses the widely debated idea of an underclass and its meanings in Europe and in the USA and the final part draws on concrete empirical analyses to examine the patterns of poverty throughout Western Europe This volume will be of first rate importance to all serious students of politics sociology geography public policy youth and community studies social policy and American studies Mass Housing in Europe Sako Musterd, 2009-11-30 Based on empirical research from 29 major postwar housing estates in 15 European cities this collection explores mass housing experiments examining the problems policy responses and residents everyday experiences in the estates in the context of change and regeneration
