throughout including support materials Society John J. Macionis, 2008-10-01 Macionis's book is designed to help students see the relevance of the sociological theories and ideas that inform their own lives. Four main themes are found throughout the text: seeing sociology in everyday life, social diversity, global comparisons, and critical thinking. Escaping the Global Village Niamh Hourigan, 2004-01-01 In the face of expanding global media, Europe's linguistic minorities have begun to resist the homogenizing forces of television. Escaping the Global Village documents and analyzes various campaigns by indigenous minority language advocates throughout Europe for alternative language television services. Researching Sex and Sexualities Charlotte Morris, Paul Boyce, Andrea Cornwall, Hannah Frith, Laura Harvey, Yingying Huang, 2018-02-15 Sexuality is a complex and multifaceted domain encompassing bodily, contextual, and subjective experiences that resist ready categorisation. To claim the sexual as a viable research object therefore raises a number of important methodological questions: what is it possible to know about experiences, practices, and perceptions of sex and sexualities? What approaches might help or hinder our efforts to probe such experiences? This collection explores the creative, personal, and contextual parameters involved in researching sexuality, cutting across disciplinary boundaries and drawing on case studies from a variety of countries and contexts. Combining a wide range of expertise, its contributors address such key areas as pornography, sex work, intersectionality, and LGBT perspectives. The contributors also share their own experiences of researching sexuality within contrasting disciplines, as well as interrogating how the sexual identities of researchers themselves can relate to and inform their work. The result is a unique and diverse collection that combines practical insights on field work with novel theoretical reflections. Sport and Society in the Global Age Timothy Marjoribanks, Karen Farquharson, 2017-09-16 Are sports influenced by their social context? Can sport influence the social world? And how is sport changing in our increasingly globalized society? This thought-provoking text explores these questions and introduces key debates in the sociology of sport. Uncovering the power dynamics within sport and bringing this everyday topic under a sociological lens, the book explores hot topics and contemporary controversies such as e-gaming, fan violence, and sex testing. Examines the central role of technology and the media in how sport is consumed, represented, and played. Discusses a wide range of thinkers from Gramsci to Castells. Reflects on developments in sport at local, global, and national levels. With clearly explained theory and vibrant case examples, this text shows how we engage with sport in social, political, cultural, and economic terms. It is an indispensable text for students across the social sciences studying sports.
