Technological Change & Productivity Growth A. Link, 2013-06-17 This volume reviews the literature on productivity growth and relates it to the production function approach to technological change Economics of Technological Change I J. Lesourne, H. Sonnenschein, Technological Change and Productivity Growth Albert N. Link, 1987 First Published in 1987 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Employment Growth from Public Support of Innovation in Small Firms Albert N. Link, John T. Scott, 2012 Investigates the impacts of the U S publicly funded Small Business Innovation Research SBIR programme s funding on the overall employment growth of SBIR award recipient firms Finds that on average the overall employment effects associated with the SBIR programme are large absolutely and relative to dollars of funding but these effects are in general not statistically significant The Web and Faith Ayse Kok, 2022-09-01 Computing technology is an indispensable feature of modern life Our rapid paced world seems more and more remote from the world narrated in sacred scriptures However despite its pervasiveness there remains a dearth of theological reflection about computer technology and what it means to live as a faithful individual in a digitally saturated society The Web and Faith provides a brief theology of technology rooted in the Islamic tradition and oriented around the grand themes of creation redemption and new creation The book combines a concise accessible style with penetrating cultural and theological analysis Building on the work of Marshall McLuhan and Neil Postman and drawing from a wide range of enlightened Islamic thinkers the book situates computer technology within the big picture of the story of creation Technology is not neutral but neither is there an exclusively faith based form of technological production and use Instead this book guides us to see the digital world as part of a larger creation which is redeemable according to the law of faith Responsibly used technology can become an integral part of religious wisdom world wide R&D, Education, and Productivity Zvi Griliches, 2000 Griliches was a modern master of empirical economics Here he recounts what he and others have learned about the sources of economic growth and conveys how he tackled research problems For Griliches theorizing without measurement produces mere parables but measurement without theory is blind Judgment enables one to strike the right balance The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002 National Legal Bibliography, 1987 Peasant Economics Frank Ellis, 1993-11-25 This is a revised and expanded edition of a popular textbook on the economics of farm households in developing countries The second edition retains the same building blocks designed to explore household decision making in a social context Key topics are efficiency risk time allocation gender agrarian contracts farm size and technological change For these and other topics household economic behaviour represents the outcome of social interactions within the household and market interactions outside the household A new chapter on the environment combines exposition of economic tools not previously covered in the book with examination of household and community decision making in relation to environmental resources Technology, Natural Resources and Economic Growth Shunsuke Managi, 2011 Through a combination of global data analysis and focused country level analysis this timely book provides answers to the most pertinent country and industry specific questions defining the current relationship between technology natural resources and economic growth Technology Natural Resources and Economic Growth will provide a valuable resource for a wide readership including postgraduate students researchers academics and policy makers working in the fields of environmental and ecological economics
